THE CROWD WAS VERY ANGRY

A magnificent audience was assembled at the wigwam last night, drawn thither by the knowledge that the talented orator, Colonel J. O. Winship, of Cleveland, would address the meeting.

The meeting was not called to order until 8:30, as the speaker did not arrive until the late train and was naturally desirous of partaking of some refreshment.

Haines' band made music in the meantime for the crowd and kept them in a good humor.

At 9:15, Mr. George H. Owen introduced J. J. Purinton as the chairman for the evening. Mr. Purinton said:

"We are tonight on the verge of a matter of great moment, made doubly so on account of the happenings of the past four years; tomorrow will determine what shall be our condition and fate for the next four years. From the tenor of articles which appeared in our local papers of this evening, the Democracy and Prohibitionists seem to think that the Republicans who opposed R. W. Taylor in the battle for the nomination will oppose him now and cast their ballots against him. I opposed R. W. Taylor; but I will vote and work for him now, and I anticipate that every true Republican will do the same. I want to see Mr. Taylor run right along with our peerless leader, William McKinley."

Mr. Purinton then gave facts and figures in connection with the erection of fine homes, and with the savings effected by the workmen of East Liverpool during the last four years, and called upon the voters to do their full duty on the morrow and vote for McKinley and Roosevelt and the entire Republican ticket. He then introduced the speaker of the evening, who said in part:

"Four years ago I had the honor and pleasure of addressing an East Liverpool audience. I made certain predictions then as to the condition of affairs that would ensue two years from that time in case you placed William McKinley and the Republican party in power, and I am delighted to know that my predictions have been verified and that prosperity is within your borders. I'm a prophet than is Mr. Bill Bryan. A prominent English statesman is authorized to state that the United States is today the greatest nation in the world, and that she is an example for good all over the civilized world; so that it means something to be a citizen of the United States at the present time; and you have a right to be proud of citizenship; we are part and parcel of this wonderful sovereignty—the sovereignty of the individual, in the intelligent, thoughtful use of the ballot entrusted to our care. Our nation is today recognized as the champion of liberty and human rights the wide world over.

"We must not be controlled by partisanship or mere feeling or sentiment. We must exercise good sense and good judgment in the use of our ballot. A huge elephant was forcing his way through a thicket, when he collided with the nest of a humming bird, knocking down the nest, the mother bird and her young, fatally wounding the poor bird and causing her to agonize over the thought of her soon-to-be motherless little ones. The elephant was sorry at the mishap and tried to comfort the dying mother, telling her that he would adopt and care for and cherish her little children. The bird passed away, blessing the huge beast. And then the elephant was in a quandary; he didn't know anything more about the humming bird business than Bill Bryan does about the proper government and wise control of this great country; but the big beast happened to think that the mother bird sat down upon the nest and the wee birds, and he decided that he must therefore do the same, and he did, and he made a mash of the whole bird business. You see he had lots of feeling and sympathy; but he didn't have good horse sense. And in the matter of the use of your ballot tomorrow, you must carefully consider the fact that the interests of this great nation have been placed in your care. My Democratic friends, your interests are identical with mine. If you suffer by an unwise choice, I shall suffer with you. Let us reason together in the city. one, you o ness and common sense, to join in with me.

"What are the issues in the present battle? The Kansas City platform says that imperialism is the paramount issue. I don't believe that; you don't believe it, and they don't believe it. When they were in session at Kansas City, a message came to them from Bill Bryan saying that he insisted upon the Chicago platform, upon the free and unlimited coinage of silver, at the ratio of 16 to 1, and further threatened that if this was not complied with he would himself come to Kansas City by special train and take the stand in favor of silver, and if they still refused to bow to his autocratic, dictatorial and Populistic will, he would refuse to be their candidate for the presidency, and he carried the day; and the free silver Republicans likewise nominated Bill Bryan; and you know, and the political world knows, that the unlimited and free coinage of silver is the paramount issue with Bill Bryan and his followers, while imperialism and militarism are only side shows, to be made use of to catch the unwary and gullible voter.

"Bryan has said plainly that, if you elect him, he will destroy the gold basis of currency just as soon as it rests in his power to do so. And, my friend, he is fool enough to do it, and to destroy you and me and the industries of this nation if we are so blind and foolish as to cast our ballots in his favor.

"Say, my friend, let's reason together. The silver dollar I now hold in my hand is worth 100 cents in gold, if you wish to exchange it for gold. Bill Bryan's dollar will be worth from 48 to 51 cents in gold. Bill Bryan's silver dollars are to be on the same basis as the Mexican silver dollar, worth about 48 cents.

"Say, my friends, the commercial value of money will determine whether or not a particular class of currency shall control or remain upon the market and continue to do business. My farmer friend, if wheat commands 90 cents and rye commands 45 cents, and you find it necessary to feed grain to your hogs, what will you give them as food, wheat or rye? Do you drop? You will not feed them wheat. And if your stock of rye runs out, you'll still refuse to feed them your good wheat. Of course you will, for the simple reason that you possess good common sense; and you'll sell your wheat for 90 cents and continue to feed your hogs on 45 cent rye.

"If you owe a man a debt of ten dollars, and Bryan obtains full play in his silver craze or fallacy, you can take ten dollars in gold, go to the mint, get twenty dollars in silver pay your debt and still have ten Bryan dollars in your possession; and the fellow who owes you ten dollars can do the same with you."

(At this moment a man in the audience, a rabid silver fanatic, who has a few stereotyped ideas which he has been shooting off at the lesser lights about East Liverpool, desired to know if he could ask the speaker a question along the line of silver. Winship smilingly answered in the affirmative. The question was asked and an answer given which convulsed the audience and long continued.

Winship interfered and said: "Oh, no; don't be rude; the gentleman asked for information in a courteous way, and I shall be glad to answer any fair questions." And then the questioner, emboldened, played the part of a very foolish and verdant customer, and reiterated questions which he had already had answers to, and the colonel, appreciating the fact that he was simply trying to annoy him, said: "My friend, you have had a concise and comprehensive answer to that question, and if you possess the intelligence to know that two and two make four, you will appreciate the fact." And then the audience went wild. Colonel Winship then tried to resume his speech, but the individual kept talking right along to those about him, and the speaker halted, shook his finger at the disturber and said: "I treated you as a gentleman and answered your questions fairly and courteously; and now you have no right to disturb me; if you want to continue your talk, go and hire a hall." And then the crowd went wild for a few minutes, and indulged in hand clapping, cheers and cries of "put him out." As soon as the man could make himself heard he said: "That's right, sir, and I beg your pardon," and the meeting proceeded without any further interruption from him.)

"You remember the sad days and nights of four years ago, men, when good and true workmen, honest and honorable fellows, were willing to work at any employment at any kind of wages, in order to keep the wolf from the door, and were unable to get anything to do; it was indeed sad and pitiable.

(At this moment a man in the audience, a rabid silver fanatic, who has a few stereotyped ideas which he has been shooting off at the lesser lights about East Liverpool, desired to know if he could ask the speaker a question along the line of silver. Winship smilingly answered in the affirmative. The question was asked and an answer given which convulsed the audience in merriment and long contin-

of the fact. Your labor is your capital. I want my employer to do good business and make a good profit. And you want your employer to do the same, and then you want to use all honorable and peaceful and legal means to see that he grants you a fair division of his profits in the form of good and remunerative wages; and I want to tell you, right here, that the Democratic demagogue who tries to create confusion and strife between capital and labor, between the employer and his workmen, without showing any legitimate reason for so doing, is an arrant enemy to the toiler and mechanic and workingman; and that is the part that Bill Bryan has been playing all through this presidential campaign.

"What's a pernicious trust? A combination of great corporations under one great or general head, formed for the purpose of oppression and for the creation of artificial values. Some years since there was formed a gigantic railroad trust, embracing 31 lines of railroads, reaching from the New England states to the Mississippi river; and this trust aimed to fix the rate on every pound of freight hauled on other lines—a fancy and unjust price, and aiming to so control affairs that they could virtually take the producer and manufacturer by the throat. The great Standard Oil company tried the same thing. The state of Ohio tried to kill this latter monopoly, chased it out of Ohio and simply let it go to work in New Jersey and there continues its devilment.

"On the question of two mammoth railroad trusts, congress killed them by means of the interstate commerce law. But when congress attempted to reach after the corporations, working under a state charter, the supreme court stepped in and said that such interference was unconstitutional. The next play was for an amendment to the federal constitution, and when this came to a vote, every Democrat but five voted against it, and every Republican but two voted in its favor, and Democracy voted squarely in favor of the pernicious trusts. And, see here my Democratic friends, I defy you to show me any record wherein the Democratic party ever legislated a single solitary feature against a trust of any kind or character. Your party has been great along this line in bluff and bluster and chin music; but it all ended right there. The Republican party has enacted legislation against trusts and has driven them out of states where they were plying their nefarious traffic without a charter, and has voted almost solidly in favor of an amendment to the federal constitution, in order to reach them anywhere, in any state, and thus be able to successfully cope with them and crush them out of existence.

"Bill Bryan says we bought Filipinos at $1 50 a head, and that we rule without the consent of the governed. Bill talks too much; he talks so much that he don't have time to think. Napoleon had Louisiana and wanted to sell it. Thomas Jefferson, president of the United States, and the man who wrote the constitution, purchased Louisiana for the sum of fifteen million dollars, or about 87½ cents per head, and he didn't say a single word to a Spaniard, or a Frenchman, or a savage about the consent of the governed. Of course they kicked, and Jefferson sent an army down there and let them kick until they got tired and quit.

"In 1819, Monroe bought Florida, and he paid about 62½ cents a head. Of course they kicked, and a man by the name of Jackson, whom some Democrats may have heard of, was sent down there to quiet them, and he attended to the business in good shape. California and Texas had some experience along this line, which you Democrats may find of interest when you come to read about the matter.

"What about the Philippines? Two years ago, Democrats and Republicans alike were wrought up to a fine frenzy of rage over the outrages dered by the Spaniards within a short space of time. Then came the Maine horror. Then Spain declared war. Dewey received instructions to destroy a Spanish fleet which was threatening our Pacific coast; history tells how well he did his work; and the sound of Dewey's guns proclaimed the fact of the existence of the United States as a factor in the future movements of the civilized world. Sampson and Schley made quick ending of Spain's boasted navy and the war was virtually over.

"We had taken Manila; no government held control there, and we were in honor and duty bound to protect the rights and property of citizens, and give them some form of government, and, as Uncle Sam always does, when Republicans are in control, we did that duty well. Then came the ratification of the treaty of peace. And Bill Bryan was the cause, directly and absolutely, of the treaty being ratified, and he will be proud of this fact when he gets older and has better sense, as it is the only real good and sensible thing he ever did do.

"Then Aguinaldo attempted his dirty and treacherous work, when he aimed to have his followers murder all foreigners, in order that he might be able to loot the rich city of Manila and maltreat and outrage her women. But he counted without his host and was driven to his dens in the mountains.

"Schools are now being established in Manila. Night schools are being given play. Protestant churches are being established. Adults are crowding in, eager to learn the English language. Thousands of bibles are being distributed on every hand, and are eagerly sought for. Oh, my fellow citizens, wherever our dear old flag goes, she carries with her the glorious boon of fullest liberty and the destruction of servitude and darkness and slavery."

"Two years ago, European nations would get together and consult about the affairs of the civilized world, and never thought it worth while to take the United States into consideration. And now they cuddle up to your Uncle Samuel like a kitten to a hot brick.

"John Bright said that if the United States ever again became fully united, that not a gun would be fired in the world, after the expiration of 50 years, without the consent of the United States. Two years of John Bright's 50 have passed, and I wish to God that I could live throughout the other 48 years, and I'm going to do my best to do so.

"Democracy has had a checkered career. In 1864, when we were in the throes of disaster, and when England and France stood ready to recognize the Southern confederacy, the Democrats met in a national convention at Chicago and resolved that the war was a failure, that we could not conquer the south, and that the Democratic party, as a party, would not send another soldier to the front, nor subscribe a single dollar to the maintenance of the war. And this is undeniable history. And the Republicans of the northland assured Abraham Lincoln that he could have 500,000 more men if he so desired, and billions of money, and that the war must not be ended until out.

"And I here accuse Bill Bryan of being the murderer of each and every one of our boys who have been killed in the Philippine islands within the past four months.

"An old-time Democrat in Maine said to me not long since: 'Winship, I'm going to vote for McKinley.' I told him that I did not see how he could do otherwise, when one of his own brave boys was doing duty in the Philippines; and he made answer: 'It isn't that, altogether. Winship; but say, old man, I can't bear to think of being laid away in my last resting place, and have my neighbors point me out and say—that's the grave of a darned old copperhead.'

"And now, friends, old and young, every loyal and true citizen, every man who wants prosperity and who dreads depression and stagnation of business, with starvation in your midst, and soup houses doling out charity to yourself and your fellow men, go to the polls tomorrow and cast your ballots for McKinley and Roosevelt and the full Republican ticket, and thus inherit and deserve four years more of glorious prosperity. Good night."

DISTRICT CONVENTION.

Meeting of the Fourteenth District Convention of the Women's Relief Corps.

On Thursday last, November 1, the convention met in G. A. R. hall, Youngstown, Ohio, fifty-four delegates being present. The hall was beautifully draped with bunting and flags, presenting a very handsome appearance. Dinner and supper were served by the Youngstown corps, the layout reflecting credit upon the members of that organization. A fine musical program held sway at the camp fire in the evening, and a number of speeches were made by the veterans, Sons of Veterans and visiting members.

Mrs. Sadie Hogle, president of No. 3 corps, Youngstown, presided at the camp fire in a most pleasing manner.

Mrs. Rex, district president, of Canton, Ohio, presided at the convention proper.

Mrs. Fisher, of Youngstown, was elected president of the district for the coming year.

Mrs. Fannie Wylie and Mrs. Emma Palmer, of General Lyon corps, East Liverpool, were in attendance. These ladies report an exceedingly enjoyable time in our sister city. The next convention will be held at Salem.

Mrs. Mary D. Kerr, of General Lyon corps, East Liverpool, assistant inspector of this department, inspected the Marlborough corps, near Alliance, Ohio, on Saturday last. She reports having had a very enjoyable time, and states that the membership is very enthusiastic in the work. Choice refreshments were served. The hall was handsomely decorated.

Weeds if they are pulled out of a lawn at a time when they are full of seed will evince a degree of care for the seeds which is almost touching. They will curl their leaves upward as far as each can go to cover the seeds and protect them from the sun till the end, and often one will find weeds that are quite dead, sun killed, whose leaves still are wrapped firmly around the seed pods. of the fact. Your labor is your capital. I want my employer to do good business and make a good profit. And you want your employer to do the same, and then you want to use all honorable and peaceful and legal means to see that he grants you a fair division of his profits in the form of good and remunerative wages; and I want to tell you, right here, that the Democratic demagogue who tries to create confusion and strife between capital and labor, between the employer and his workmen, without showing any legitimate reason for so doing, is an arrant enemy to the toiler and mechanic and workingman; and that is the part that Bill Bryan has been playing all through this presidential campaign.

"What's a pernicious trust? A combination of great corporations under one great or general head, formed for the purpose of oppression and for the creation of artificial values. Some years since there was formed a gigantic railroad trust, embracing 31 lines of railroads, reaching from the New England states to the Mississippi river; and this trust aimed to fix the rate on every pound of freight hauled on other lines—a fancy and unjust price, and aiming to so control affairs that they could virtually take the producer and manufacturer by the throat. The great Standard Oil company tried the same thing. The state of Ohio tried to kill this latter monopoly, chased it out of Ohio and simply let it go to work in New Jersey and there continues its devilment.

"On the question of two mammoth railroad trusts, congress killed them by means of the interstate commerce law. But when congress attempted to reach after the corporations, working under a state charter, the supreme court stepped in and said that such interference was unconstitutional. The next play was for an amendment to the federal constitution, and when this came to a vote, every Democrat but five voted against it, and every Republican but two voted in its favor, and Democracy voted squarely in favor of the pernicious trusts. And, see here my Democratic friends, I defy you to show me any record wherein the Democratic party ever legislated a single solitary feature against a trust of any kind or character. Your party has been great along this line in bluff and bluster and chin music; but it all ended right there. The Republican party has enacted legislation against trusts and has driven them out of states where they were plying their nefarious traffic without a charter, and has voted almost solidly in favor of an amendment to the federal constitution, in order to reach them anywhere, in any state, and thus be able to successfully cope with them and crush them out of existence.

"Two years ago, European nations would get together and consult about the affairs of the civilized world, and never thought it worth while to take the United States into consideration. And now they cuddle up to your Uncle Samuel like a kitten to a hot brick.

"John Bright said that if the United States ever again became fully united, that not a gun would be fired in the world, after the expiration of 50 years, without the consent of the United States. Two years of John Bright's 50 have passed, and I wish to God that I could live throughout the other 48 years, and I'm going to do my best to do so.

"Democracy has had a checkered career. In 1864, when we were in the throes of disaster, and when England and France stood ready to recognize the Southern confederacy, the Democrats met in a national convention at Chicago and resolved that the war was a failure, that we could not conquer the south, and that the Democratic party, as a party, would not send another soldier to the front, nor subscribe a single dollar to the maintenance of the war. And this is undeniable history. And the Republicans of the northland assured Abraham Lincoln that he could have 500,000 more men if he so desired, and billions of money, and that the war must not be ended until

out. "And I here accuse Bill Bryan of being the murderer of each and every one of our boys who have been killed in the Philippine islands within the past four months.

"An old-time Democrat in Maine said to me not long since: 'Winship, I'm going to vote for McKinley.' I told him that I did not see how he could do otherwise, when one of his own brave boys was doing duty in the Philippines; and he made answer: 'It isn't that, altogether, Winship; but say, old man, I can't bear to think of being laid away in my last resting place, and have my neighbors point me out and say—that's the grave of a darned old copperhead.'

"And now, friends, old and young, every loyal and true citizen, every man who wants prosperity and who dreads depression and stagnation of business, with starvation in your midst, and soup houses doling out charity to yourself and your fellow men, go to the polls tomorrow and cast your ballots for McKinley and Roosevelt and the full Republican ticket, and thus inherit and deserve four years more of glorious prosperity. Good night."

DISTRICT CONVENTION.

Meeting of the Fourteenth District Convention of the Women's Relief Corps.

On Thursday last, November 1, the convention met in G. A. R. hall, Youngstown, Ohio, fifty-four delegates being present. The hall was beautifully draped with bunting and flags, presenting a very handsome appearance. Dinner and supper were served by the Youngstown corps, the layout reflecting credit upon the members of that organization. A fine musical program held sway at the camp fire in the evening, and a number of speeches were made by the veterans, Sons of Veterans and visiting members.

Mrs. Sadie Hogle, president of No. 3 corps, Youngstown, presided at the camp fire in a most pleasing manner.

Mrs. Rex, district president, of Canton, Ohio, presided at the convention proper.

Mrs. Fisher, of Youngstown, was elected president of the district for the coming year.

Mrs. Fannie Wylie and Mrs. Emma Palmer, of General Lyon corps, East Liverpool, were in attendance. These ladies report an exceedingly enjoyable time in our sister city. The next convention will be held at Salem.

Mrs. Mary D. Kerr, of General Lyon corps, East Liverpool, assistant inspector of this department, inspected the Marlborough corps, near Alliance, Ohio, on Saturday last. She reports having had a very enjoyable time, and states that the membership is very enthusiastic in the work. Choice refreshments were served. The hall was handsomely decorated.

COMING HERE.

Samuel Coventry, Formerly of the Salem Pottery, Will Work in This City.

Salem Herald.

Samuel Coventry, formerly president of the potters' union in this city and a former employee of the local pottery, went to Strasfield, O., this morning to recuperate his health. For the past two months Mr. Coventry has been an inmate of the Lakeside hospital, Cleveland, where he was confined by a severe attack of typhoid fever. He returned to this city a few days ago to arrange a few business matters. When Mr. Coventry regains his health he will go to East Liverpool to work.

Exhibit Lifelike Qualities.

Weeds if they are pulled out of a lawn at a time when they are full of seed will evince a degree of care for the seeds which is almost touching. They will curl their leaves upward as far as each can go to cover the seeds and protect them from the sun till the end, and often one will find weeds that are quite dead, sun killed, whose leaves still are wrapped firmly around the seed pods. No mother could show more striking devotion in death than do these despised plants.—Cincinnati Enquirer.

TRADE MARK

Tongaline is sold by all druggists. Book mailed free. MELLIER DRUG COMPANY, St. Louis.

NEW JERSEY.

New York, Nov. 6.—The Republicans are confident of success in New Jersey, but the Democrats claim that if the members of their party who remained away from the polls four years ago turn out today the state will go for Bryan. The increase in registration, the Republicans claim, is due to the normal growth of the voting people. The Democrats, however, claim that the increase shows that those Democrats who remained away from the polls four years ago expect to vote today.

ILLINOIS.

Chicago, Nov. 6.—A full vote will be polled in the state at large, and especially in Chicago and Cook county. The fight here has been of the warmest description, and every effort will be made to bring the full voting strength of both parties into the field.

VIRGINIA.

Richmond, Va., Nov. 6.—Democratic party authorities are confident of a plurality for Bryan of some 20,000 and of electing 7 out of the 10 congressmen, and have hopes amounting almost to positive belief that they will elect the other three. Except as to three close districts the Republicans make no claims.

KANSAS.

Topeka, Nov. 6.—The Republicans claim a victory for McKinley by 25,000 plurality, the success of the state ticket by a plurality somewhat less, the election of eight congressmen and a majority on joint ballot in the legislature. The fusionists concede one congressman to the Republicans, but claim everything else, placing Bryan's plurality of 16,000.

UNTOLD VALUE.

The Statement Contained in This Citizen's Statement is Priceless.

The hale, the hearty, the strong can afford to toss this paper to one side impatiently when they read the following, but any sufferer in East Liverpool who has spent a mint of money and suffered hours of excruciating torture caused by kidney complaint will stand in his own light if he does not follow the valuable advice offered by Mr. S. C. Hill, of Ester, Pa., carpenter, who says: "For a year I suffered from pain across my back, difficulty with the kidney secretions and was naturally anxious to procure some treatment which would check if not radically cure the trouble. Advised by a friend, I procured Doan's Kidney Pills at the W. & W. pharmacy, and I want East Liverpool people to thoroughly grasp this fact, before I used the entire contents of the box I was cured. To prove that my convictions were laid on solid foundation I have since purchased for a neighbor of mine three boxes of Doan's Kidney Pills. They cured him. Now, when a preparation which cured me in the condition I was in, and also my neighbor, a preparation which is held in such estimation in and around East Liverpool that an acquaintance of mine advised me through a newspaper statement to obtain it, when that preparation performs exactly what it promises, what can be expected of any resident of East Liverpool suffering from kidney complaint who will not take advantage of his neighbor's experience and profit by his opinions."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the U. S. Remember the name, Doan's, and take no substitute.

NEW JERSEY.

New York, Nov. 6.—The Republicans are confident of success in New Jersey, but the Democrats claim that if the members of their party who remained away from the polls four years ago turn out today the state will go for Bryan. The increase in registration, the Republicans claim, is due to the normal growth of the voting people. The Democrats, however, claim that the increase shows that those Democrats who remained away from the polls four years ago expect to vote today.

ILLINOIS.

Chicago, Nov. 6.—A full vote will be polled in the state at large, and especially in Chicago and Cook county. The fight here has been of the warmest description, and every effort will be made to bring the full voting strength of both parties into the field.

VIRGINIA.

Richmond, Va., Nov. 6.—Democratic party authorities are confident of a plurality for Bryan of some 20,000 and of electing 7 out of the 10 congressmen, and have hopes amounting almost to positive belief that they will elect the other three. Except as to three close districts the Republicans make no claims.

KANSAS.

Topeka, Nov. 6.—The Republicans claim a victory for McKinley by 25,000 plurality, the success of the state ticket by a plurality somewhat less, the election of eight congressmen and a majority on joint ballot in the legislature. The fusionists concede one congressman to the Republicans, but claim everything else, placing Bryan's plurality of 16,000.

UNTOLD VALUE.

The Statement Contained in This Citizen's Statement is Priceless.

The hale, the hearty, the strong can afford to toss this paper to one side impatiently when they read the following, but any sufferer in East Liverpool who has spent a mint of money and suffered hours of excruciating torture caused by kidney complaint will stand in his own light if he does not follow the valuable advice offered by Mr. S. C. Hill, of Ester, Pa., carpenter, who says: "For a year I suffered from pain across my back, difficulty with the kidney secretions and was naturally anxious to procure some treatment which would check if not radically cure the trouble. Advised by a friend, I procured Doan's Kidney Pills at the W. & W. pharmacy, and I want East Liverpool people to thoroughly grasp this fact, before I used the entire contents of the box I was cured. To prove that my convictions were laid on solid foundation I have since purchased for a neighbor of mine three boxes of Doan's Kidney Pills. They cured him. Now, when a preparation which cured me in the condition I was in, and also my neighbor, a preparation which is held in such estimation in and around East Liverpool that an acquaintance of mine advised me through a newspaper statement to obtain it, when that preparation performs exactly what it promises, what can be expected of any resident of East Liverpool suffering from kidney complaint who will not take advantage of his neighbor's experience and profit by his opinions."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the U. S. Remember the name, Doan's, and take no substitute.

YOUR BALLOT.

It is a sacred trust, the trust of your franchise. See that in your acceptance you fill it aright. Don't make a mistake. Go to the polls this evening and use your own good common sense. Has Republican rule been prosperous for the past four years? Have you had work and good wages? Has McKinley fulfilled every promise he made to the nation four years ago? If he has, and if prosperity rules, then, in the name of good sense, continue McKinley and the Republican party in power. Let well enough alone.

COLONEL WINSHIP.

Those who were at the wigwam last night had a rich and genuine treat. Colonel Winship is a power in any cause, and the Republican party can rejoice that such a man is doing duty in its ranks. He is ready of speech, quick in repartee and retort and is a natural born orator. He is a gentleman and a man of true courage. Had he been otherwise, there would have been trouble at the wigwam last night, as he was interrupted in the most ungentelemanly manner by the foreigner who desired to champion the cause of Bryan and Aguinaldo, and many men in the audience were in an ugly mood in consequence of the fellow's action. But Winship waved the trouble aside and called for fair play, even in favor of the fellow who was not treating the speaker right. Colonel Winship made many warm friends in East Liverpool last night, and he will always be assured of a warm welcome when he comes here.

DISORDERLIES.

Men, or some fellows who have grown to the size of men, should be taught that there is a limit to the right of so-called free speech, even in this land of liberty. The first man who annoyed Colonel Winship last night at the wigwam is evidently a gentleman, but one with an overweening amount of egotism. He first asked a question which he thought would puzzle the speaker, along the line of the silver issue, and received a keen and cutting and incisive retort which met the question fairly and squarely and absolutely routed the questioner, horse, foot and dragoons, and yet given by the colonel in the most gentlemanly and courteous manner and in the most polite language. The questioner returned to the charge and received answer after answer, getting laughed at heartily by the great audience for his pains; but he kept asking questions, until the colonel found was finally merely attempting to be annoying, and then Mr. Winship called him down to the queen's taste, and the lad had the good sense to appreciate the true situation, and he rendered a manly apology. But the second party who interrupted the speaker did not act the part of a gentleman. He is evidently deeply in sympathy with Aguinaldo and his band of assassins, and his words and actions aroused the anger of all those around and about him. He did not ask questions, and he did not desire information. He simply acted the part of a disorderly, and he should be taught that here, in free America, we do not permit speakers on a public platform to be made the play of hoodlums and disorderly persons who do not agree with that speaker. We know the man by sight, and we have had occasion to talk to him on a number of times when we visited the store of Mr. Charles Levis, in the Diamond, and he has always acted as a gentleman in our presence; but he became what we term the "typical tough" in this country, judging by his actions of last night, and acted according to the line laid down by Bill Bryan and Dick Croker. Men who have done full duty in the Philippines, and fathers and mothers who have sons on duty there now, hailing from East Liverpool, do not take kindly to openly expressed treason, and will not bear patiently with the advocacy and backing up of assassins like Aguinaldo and his bolo murderers. The dark skinned fellow who thus acted at the wigwam last night, can thank Colonel Winship that he did not receive a good thumping. An officer finally called the fellow down and danger of serious trouble was over. Colonel Winship, when he was spoken to about the interruptions, after the meeting was over, laughingly said: "Oh, that was all right; it simply added spice to the meeting, and gave me an opportunity to make use of the latter fellow as an object lesson or horrible example."

J. J. PURINTON'S WORDS.

His words carried weight with them last night along certain lines. John J. Purinton knows, very fully, what he is talking about when he discourses on savings banks, building and loan associations, the erection of business houses and houses on the part of the workingmen and mechanics of East Liverpool, and the money put away for a nest egg by our toilers, and his figures of last night, given from the books and defying successful contradiction, showed, in a startling manner, the wonderful success that has come to East Liverpool during the past four years, under Republican rule. As he gave facts and figures, and showed the vast amount of money saved by the toilers, and described the class of houses being erected by the workingmen, and rang out the deep, earnest challenge of "men, do you want a change from such conditions," the audience was closely and deeply attentive, and to the keen observer from the platform, looking squarely in the faces and eyes of the men present, the fact was evident that they appreciated the situation from its best standpoint, and were too deeply in earnest for mere outward applause and were revolving, in their heart of heart, that no change should occur in the country if their ballots could control the matter. John J. Purinton's words did good and made votes last night. Look at this, voters of East Liverpool. These are plain, incontrovertible facts. The net savings of the workingmen of this city amount at present to about twenty-five thousand dollars each month; the mortgages on the homes are being paid off at about the rate of fifteen thousand dollars each month. Do you realize, workingmen and mechanics, what this really means? It means about ten homes, each worth about fifteen hundred dollars, being freed from debt each month. And this under Republican rule. Do you want a change? No sensible man should desire it. Vote for McKinley and Roosevelt and the straight Republican ticket and enjoy four years more of prosperity.

THE HALF BREED.

In the Island of Luzon, Philippines, the Half Caste is

The Bond between the Spanish father and the Filipino mother, as a rule. The half castes are among the best and most enterprising citizens of Manila, and many of them are quite wealthy. When the writer was in Manila he had the pleasure of forming the close acquaintance of many of these half castes, meeting them in the gymnasium night after night, practicing with them in various sports, such as broad jump, high jump, lifting weights, horizontal bar, boxing, rolling ten pins and other healthful and beneficial exercises. We found them model athletes, courteous and clever in the extreme, anxious to be on good terms with the Americans, and extremely bitter in their hatred of the Spaniards. We believe that, to this day, these men are in favor of American rule, and we believe that no outbreak would have occurred on the part of the insurgents had it not been for Bill Bryan and his followers, and for the free silver kings, Bryan's employers, who made use of the Philippine scare, imperialism and militarism, for the purpose of misleading the people at large, if possible, and thus obtaining votes for Bryan, whom they desired to use as a tool in the advancement of their moneyed interests. Bill Bryan and his employers have forced human life into the balance, in order that they might possibly make millions of dollars out of their mines and silver bullion. There rests against Bryan and his followers an awful crime, if they are guilty of the charges put upon them.

A REQUEST.

Mayor Davidson Asks the Potters to Refrain from Blowing Their Whistles.

Owing to the serious condition of Mrs. Charles Surles, I would respectfully request that the potters refrain from blowing the whistles tonight. Also that the people who desire to jollify remain away from Seventh street. The life of Mrs. Surles hangs in the balance, and the physicians state that absolute quiet is necessary for her recovery.

W. C. DAVIDSON,
Mayor.

—Harley Gillingham returned to his home in Richland Center, Wis., yesterday afternoon after a three months' visit with Mr. and Mrs. Frank Earl, Seventh street.

SHERIFF SALES.

A NUMBER OF THEM WILL SOON TAKE PLACE.

Gen. J. W. Reilly Bid in the Virginia Bennett Property Yesterday.

DICK BURROWS

Made an Impromptu Speech at the Republican Wigwam Last Night.

Last evening while the band was playing in front of the wigwam Dick Burrows became enthused and made an impromptu speech. He was persuaded to return to his buggy by Officer Morris.

A Neat Compliment.

In speaking of the foot ball game played here last Saturday the Patriot pays the following well deserved compliment to the Royal Tigers:

"The Lisbon boys speak well of their opponents as gentlemanly players, and the courteous treatment given them generally on their visit to the Crockery City."

A TIP FOR THE JOKERS.

Furious Man Wants to Know About Mingling of Languages.

"It's a funny thing," said the man with the bad cigar, who had been reading day before yesterday's paper.

"What's that?" asked the young man with the phenomenally short coat.

"Why, the way these fellows that write jokes for newspapers get things tangled up," replied the first seaker.

"How is that?" asked the long legged young man.

"Why, look here," continued the man with the bad cigar warmly. "Did you ever read a Dutch joke in the papers where two Germans are supposed to be talking to each other?"

"Sure I did," said the tall young man, yawning languidly.

"Well, did you ever notice that every time the guy that wrote the joke has them jabbering at each other in broken English? What do you think of this?" He picked up the paper again and after hunting a few moments read as follows:

"Leberwurst—Heinrich, vy iss it ven you bock beer drink yet that you vant to yump alretty?"

"Schwarzkoppen—Mayple it iss vonce because die beer is mit hops filled up. No?"

"Now, that's a good thing, isn't it?" went on the man with the bad cigar.

"If those two Germans wanted to talk to each other, do you suppose they would amble around in broken English? No; they would spiel it out in German that they both understand. Suppose you and I were in Germany for a visit and I wanted to tell you about some sight I had seen, would I try to tell you in bum German that neither of us could speak or would I talk English? They make me tired."

"But that would spoil the joke," protested the tall young man.

"Hub!" snorted the other. "Some things are too bad to spoil."

And then the incident was considered closed.—Chicago Chronicle.

A UNIQUE STATE.

Texas Has Paid Allegiance to the Flags of Six Nations.

Scarcely another state in the union has as remarkable and interesting a history as Texas. In one respect at least it occupies a unique position in the history of American states. Since its discovery six different governments have at different times claimed its allegiance, and as many different flags have waved over it, those of France, Spain, Mexico, independent Texas, the United States and the Confederate states.

The foundations of Texas statehood were not laid as a British colony, nor under the grant or control of the British crown, as were those of the original thirteen states. Its first settlement dates back more than 200 years, and its first American colonists went there under terms and conditions imposed by a foreign state, to whose language, laws and institutions they were total strangers. There never was, there never could be, any sympathy between these first American colonists and the Mexican government under the old regime. Separated by vast wildernesses from the people of the United States, and unaided save by the individual efforts of sympathizing brethren therein, these colonists declared their independence, established it with the sword, and for nine years maintained a stable republic.

Texas was neither purchased nor conquered for the union. Annexation to the United States was accomplished through a treaty made by Texas representatives and ratified by the free suffrage of the citizens. No other state in the Union has had such varied experience or sailed through such stormy seas into the haven of peace and prosperity.—St. Louis Globe-Democrat.

The Professor's Prophecy Failed.

While a student at Harvard university Phillips Brooks was walking in the yard one day with a professor, who asked him what he intended making of himself.

"I am thinking of the ministry," answered the youth.

"Then banish such thoughts," said the professor earnestly. "Your manner of speech would forever bar you from being successful in that calling."

Many years later, when Phillips Brooks was one of the world's great pulpit orators, the most expert stenographer in England took down one of his sermons and said:

"Any stenographer who thought he has conquered fast talkers should study Phillips Brooks."—Ladies' Home Journal.

of the fact. Your labor is your capital. I want my employer to do good business and make a good profit. And you want your employer to do the same, and then you want to use all honorable and peaceful and legal means to see that he grants you a fair division of his profits in the form of good and remunerative wages; and I want to tell you, right here, that the Democratic demagogue who tries to create confusion and strife between capital and labor, between the employer and his workmen, without showing any legitimate reason for so doing, is an arrant enemy to the toiler and mechanic and workingman; and that is the part that Bill Bryan has been playing all through this presidential campaign.

"What's a pernicious trust? A combination of great corporations under one great or general head, formed for the purpose of oppression and for the creation of artificial values. Some years since there was formed a gigantic railroad trust, embracing 31 lines of railroads, reaching from the New England states to the Mississippi river; and this trust aimed to fix the rate on every pound of freight hauled on other lines—a fancy and unjust price, and aiming to so control affairs that they could virtually take the producer and manufacturer by the throat. The great Standard Oil company tried the same thing. The state of Ohio tried to kill this latter monopoly, chased it out of Ohio and simply let it go to work in New Jersey and there continues its devilment.

"On the question of two mammoth railroad trusts, congress killed them by means of the interstate commerce law. But when congress attempted to reach after the corporations, working under a state charter, the supreme court stepped in and said that such interference was unconstitutional. The next play was for an amendment to the federal constitution, and when this came to a vote, every Democrat but five voted against it, and every Republican but two voted in its favor, and Democracy voted squarely in favor of the pernicious trusts. And, see here my Democratic friends, I defy you to show me any record wherein the Democratic party ever legislated a single solitary feature against a trust of any kind or character. Your party has been great along this line in bluff and bluster and chin music; but it all ended right there. The Republican party has enacted legislation against trusts and has driven them out of states where they were plying their nefarious traffic without a charter, and has voted almost solidly in favor of an amendment to the federal constitution, in order to reach them anywhere, in any state, and thus be able to successfully cope with them and crush them out of existence.

"Bill Bryan says we bought Filipinos at $1 50 a head, and that we rule without the consent of the governed. Bill talks too much; he talks so much that he don't have time to think. Napoleon had Louisiana and wanted to sell it. Thomas Jefferson, president of the United States, and the man who wrote the constitution, purchased Louisiana for the sum of fifteen million dollars, or about 87½ cents per head, and he didn't say a single word to a Spaniard, or a Frenchman, or a savage about the consent of the governed. Of course they kicked, and Jefferson sent an army down there and let them kick until they got tired and quit.

"In 1819, Monroe bought Florida, and he paid about 62½ cents a head. Of course they kicked, and a man by the name of Jackson, whom some Democrats may have heard of, was sent down there to quiet them, and he attended to the business in good shape. California and Texas had some experience along this line, which you Democrats may find of interest when you come to read about the matter.

"What about the Philippines? Two years ago, Democrats and Republicans alike were wrought up to a fine frenzy of rage over the outrages dered by the Spaniards within a short space of time. Then came the Maine horror. Then Spain declared war. Dewey received instructions to destroy a Spanish fleet which was threatening our Pacific coast; history tells how well he did his work; and the sound of Dewey's guns proclaimed the fact of the existence of the United States as a factor in the future movements of the civilized world. Sampson and Schley made quick ending of Spain's boasted navy and the war was virtually over.

"We had taken Manila; no government held control there, and we were in honor and duty bound to protect the rights and property of citizens, and give them some form of government, and, as Uncle Sam always does, when Republicans are in control, we did that duty well. Then came the ratification of the treaty of peace. And Bill Bryan was the cause, directly and absolutely, of the treaty being ratified, and he will be proud of this fact when he gets older and has better sense, as it is the only real good and sensible thing he ever did do.

"Then Aguinaldo attempted his dirty and treacherous work, when he aimed to have his followers murder all foreigners, in order that he might be able to loot the rich city of Manila and maltreat and outrage her women. But he counted without his host and was driven to his dens in the mountains.

"Schools are now being established in Manila. Night schools are being given play. Protestant churches are being established. Adults are crowding in, eager to learn the English language. Thousands of bibles are being distributed on every hand, and are eagerly sought for. Oh, my fellow citizens, wherever our dear old flag goes, she carries with her the glorious boon of fullest liberty and the destruction of servitude and darkness and slavery."

"Two years ago, European nations would get together and consult about the affairs of the civilized world, and never thought it worth while to take the United States into consideration. And now they cuddle up to your Uncle Samuel like a kitten to a hot brick.

"John Bright said that if the United States ever again became fully united, that not a gun would be fired in the world, after the expiration of 50 years, without the consent of the United States. Two years of John Bright's 50 have passed, and I wish to God that I could live throughout the other 48 years, and I'm going to do my best to do so.

"Democracy has had a checkered career. In 1864, when we were in the throes of disaster, and when England and France stood ready to recognize the Southern confederacy, the Democrats met in a national convention at Chicago and resolved that the war was a failure, that we could not conquer the south, and that the Democratic party, as a party, would not send another soldier to the front, nor subscribe a single dollar to the maintenance of the war. And this is undeniable history. And the Republicans of the northland assured Abraham Lincoln that he could have 500,000 more men if he so desired, and billions of money, and that the war must not be ended until

out. "And I here accuse Bill Bryan of being the murderer of each and every one of our boys who have been killed in the Philippine islands within the past four months.

"An old-time Democrat in Maine said to me not long since: 'Winship, I'm going to vote for McKinley.' I told him that I did not see how he could do otherwise, when one of his own brave boys was doing duty in the Philippines; and he made answer: 'It isn't that, altogether. Winship; but say, old man, I can't bear to think of being laid away in my last resting place, and have my neighbors point me out and say—that's the grave of a darned old copperhead.'

"And now, friends, old and young, every loyal and true citizen, every man who wants prosperity and who dreads depression and stagnation of business, with starvation in your midst, and soup houses doling out charity to yourself and your fellow men, go to the polls tomorrow and cast your ballots for McKinley and Roosevelt and the full Republican ticket, and thus inherit and deserve four years more of glorious prosperity. Good night."

DISTRICT CONVENTION.

Meeting of the Fourteenth District Convention of the Women's Relief Corps.

On Thursday last, November 1, the convention met in G. A. R. hall, Youngstown, Ohio, fifty-four delegates being present. The hall was beautifully draped with bunting and flags, presenting a very handsome appearance. Dinner and supper were served by the Youngstown corps, the layout reflecting credit upon the members of that organization. A fine musical program held sway at the camp fire in the evening, and a number of speeches were made by the veterans, Sons of Veterans and visiting members.

Mrs. Sadie Hogle, president of No. 3 corps, Youngstown, presided at the camp fire in a most pleasing manner.

Mrs. Fisher, of Youngstown, was elected president of the district for the coming year.

Mrs. Fannie Wylie and Mrs. Emma Palmer, of General Lyon corps, East Liverpool, were in attendance. These ladies report an exceedingly enjoyable time in our sister city. The next convention will be held at Salem.

Mrs. Mary D. Kerr, of General Lyon corps, East Liverpool, assistant inspector of this department, inspected the Marlborough corps, near Alliance, Ohio, on Saturday last. She reports having had a very enjoyable time, and states that the membership is very enthusiastic in the work. Choice refreshments were served. The hall was handsomely decorated.

of the fact. Your labor is your capital. I want my employer to do good business and make a good profit. And you want your employer to do the same, and then you want to use all honorable and peaceful and legal means to see that he grants you a fair division of his profits in the form of good and remunerative wages; and I want to tell you, right here, that the Democratic demagogue who tries to create confusion and strife between capital and labor, between the employer and his workmen, without showing any legitimate reason for so doing, is an arrant enemy to the toiler and mechanic and workman; and that is the part that Bill Bryan has been playing all through this presidential campaign.

"What's a pernicious trust? A combination of great corporations under one great or general head, formed for the purpose of oppression and for the creation of artificial values. Some years since there was formed a gigantic railroad trust, embracing 31 lines of railroads, reaching from the New England states to the Mississippi river; and this trust aimed to fix the rate on every pound of freight hauled on other lines—a fancy and unjust price, and aiming to so control affairs that they could virtually take the producer and manufacturer by the throat. The great Standard Oil company tried the same thing. The state of Ohio tried to kill this latter monopoly, chased it out of Ohio and simply let it go to work in New Jersey and there continues its devilment.

"On the question of two mammoth railroad trusts, congress killed them by means of the interstate commerce law. But when congress attempted to reach after the corporations, working under a state charter, the supreme court stepped in and said that such interference was unconstitutional. The next play was for an amendment to the federal constitution, and when this came to a vote, every Democrat but five voted against it, and every Republican but two voted in its favor, and Democracy voted squarely in favor of the pernicious trusts. And, see here my Democratic friends, I defy you to show me any record wherein the Democratic party ever legislated a single solitary feature against a trust of any kind or character. Your party has been great along this line in bluff and bluster and chin music; but it all ended right there. The Republican party has enacted legislation against trusts and has driven them out of states where they were plying their nefarious traffic without a charter, and has voted almost solidly in favor of an amendment to the federal constitution, in order to reach them anywhere, in any state, and thus be able to successfully cope with them and crush them out of existence.

"Bill Bryan says we bought Filipinos at $1 50 a head, and that we rule without the consent of the governed. Bill talks too much; he talks so much that he don't have time to think. Napoleon had Louisiana and wanted to sell it. Thomas Jefferson, president of the United States, and the man who wrote the constitution, purchased Louisiana for the sum of fifteen million dollars, or about 87½ cents per head, and he didn't say a single word to a Spaniard, or a Frenchman, or a savage about the consent of the governed. Of course they kicked, and Jefferson sent an army down there and let them kick until they got tired and quit.

"In 1819, Monroe bought Florida, and he paid about 62½ cents a head. Of course they kicked, and a man by the name of Jackson, whom some Democrats may have heard of, was sent down there to quiet them, and he attended to the business in good shape. California and Texas had some experience along this line, which you Democrats may find of interest when you come to read about the matter.

"What about the Philippines? Two years ago, Democrats and Republicans alike were wrought up to a fine frenzy of rage over the outrages dered by the Spaniards within a short space of time. Then came the Maine horror. Then Spain declared war. Dewey received instructions to destroy a Spanish fleet which was threatening our Pacific coast; history tells how well he did his work; and the sound of Dewey's guns proclaimed the fact of the existence of the United States as a factor in the future movements of the civilized world. Sampson and Schley made quick ending of Spain's boasted navy and the war was virtually over.

"We had taken Manila; no government held control there, and we were in honor and duty bound to protect the rights and property of citizens and give them some form of government, and, as Uncle Sam always does, when Republicans are in control, we did that duty well. Then came the ratification of the treaty of peace. And Bill Bryan was the cause, directly and absolutely, of the treaty being ratified, and he will be proud of this fact when he gets older and has better sense, as it is the only real good and sensible thing he ever did do.

"Then Aguinaldo attempted his dirty and treacherous work, when he aimed to have his followers murder all foreigners, in order that he might be able to loot the rich city of Manila and maltreat and outrage her women. But he counted without his host and was driven to his dens in the mountains.

"Schools are now being established in Manila. Night schools are being given play. Protestant churches are being established. Adults are crowding in, eager to learn the English language. Thousands of bibles are being distributed on every hand, and are eagerly sought for. Oh, my fellow citizens, wherever our dear old flag goes, she carries with her the glorious boon of fullest liberty and the destruction of servitude and darkness and slavery."

(A very dark skinned gentleman in the audience, looking like a Spaniard or a half-breed Filipino, here angrily interrupted the speaker, and made himself so obnoxious that many persons in the audience were eager to throw him out. He was finally quieted, but afterward continued his interruptions and side exclamations, until an officer went to him and gave him instructions to desist, when he subsided. It has since been learned that he is engaged as a salesman in the store of Charles Lewis, in the Diamond. He has always conducted himself as a gentleman heretofore, and his outbreak of last night cannot be accounted for from the standpoint of a citizen of the United States, where men are taught, by the law, that they shall not disturb public meetings.)

"Two years ago, European nations would get together and consult about the affairs of the civilized world, and never thought it worth while to take the United States into consideration. And now they cuddle up to your Uncle Samuel like a kitten to a hot brick.

A Narrow Escape.

Andrew Johnson, who resides about one-half mile above the Rock Springs park, had a narrow escape early Monday morning.

Mr. Johnson, who is well advanced in years, has been suffering with a bad cold for the past four weeks. About 3:30 o'clock Monday morning he imagined something was wrong with his window and got on a chair to fix it. He fell out of the window and crawled on his hands and knees about one-eighth of a mile from the house and return in his underwear, which was covered with mud and burs, and his feet were almost frozen. He was discovered in the cellar upon his return to the house hunting for his bed.

The Charms of "Monte-Christo."

Lord Salisbury once told the following interesting and amusing incident at a meeting of a certain literary club. "One book," said Lord Salisbury, "has always fascinated me and on more than one occasion has drawn me out of bed very early in the morning. This is Dumas' 'Monte-Christo.' A few months ago I was staying at Sandringham. I had my favorite with me, and about half past 4 in the morning I got up and went into the beautiful grounds and sat down for an hour or two to be 'carried away' by my book.

"I had been reading for about half an hour when I heard some one say: 'What! Are a prime minister's duties so heavy that he must needs be up so early in order to study?' I turned and saw the Prince of Wales. I showed him the book that had drawn me out so early, and he said laughingly that he would read such an apparently fascinating book.

"Three weeks afterward he said to me: 'Monte-Christo' drew you out of bed at half past 4 in the morning. I may say that it drew me out of bed at 4 in the morning.'"—London Gem.

A Fish That Eats Ducks.

Among the queer things in India is the fish that eats ducks. When one misses some ducks and is told by the moorgywalla that a fish swallowed them, one begins to think there can really be no limit to the lies the Aryan brother can tell. But early one morning, soon after the ducks had been let out and had, as usual, made their way to the tank, on one side of which stands an indigo assistant's bungalow, the old khansama excitedly announced that the big fish had just caught another duck and swallowed it and could not keep down with it. The gun was at once got hold of, and after watching the antics of the fish trying to keep down under water he was shot. He proved to be a large boali and had actually got the entire bird down, with only the legs just showing in his mouth.

ELECTION DAY.

A LARGE VOTE IS BEING CAST IN THIS CITY.

There is Very Little Scratching And McKinley Will Have a Rousing Majority.

The campaign of 1900 is now almost a thing of the past, and it will only be a few hours until the result is known.

Much interest was taken in the election in this city and at 3 o'clock a large vote had been polled in every precinct. There has not been much scratching, and it is expected the count of the city will be complete not later than 10:30 o'clock.

At the Fourth ward James H. Tracy, one of the judges, caused a smile by getting his ticket and walking directly to the ballot box handing it to Leroy Orr to drop in the box. Everybody smiled and Mr. Tracy suddenly realized that he had not marked the ticket. It was returned to him and he marked it this time.

Arrangements have been made to receive the returns at many places in this city, but the News Review office will again be the place where the crowd will congregate, as nothing has been left undone to secure the most complete and reliable returns at the earliest hour.

Hard to Rob Drug Stores.

"I ain't doing nothing now," said the young man with the small eyes and low brow as he accepted an invitation from an equally low browed companion to sit at a round table. "My last job heeled me pretty well, and I don't do no work unless I has to."

"What is it?" asked the other rascal. The first tough made a significant motion with his arm to indicate his acquaintance with the art of sandbagging and lead piping.

"To tell the truth"—he called it "troot"—"this crackman's work is too risky. Too much pulling of guns by the other fellows, and you've got to have an expensive outfit, and doing the sneak act is too risky. Did I ever tell you how I started out? It was in a drug store, and I thought I could swipe some brushes or something like that. You can always hock them things. Well, I got in all right, but I had to buy a soda—a-r-h!—to get an excuse. I took my time swallowing the stuff, and up to that point the graft worked all right.

"The boss he walked away, and after awhile he went behind the little place where they put up prescriptions, and then I gathered in three nice brushes. But before I had taken three steps he was on to me. I found out afterward that all these druggists have little holes or cracks in the stained glass in front of their desks, so they can pipe off all that goes on in the store."—Chicago Tribune.

Glad He Had No Revolver.

"No," said the man, talking of traveling or going anywhere, for that matter, with a revolver. I gave mine away a number of years ago with a devout feeling of thankfulness that it had not been the cause of endless reproach to me. I had been up the Hudson with my wife, and on the return trip I had in my mind the stories that I had recently heard of sneak thieves who had been robbing passengers on the boat.

"I did not know that I had paid special attention to them, but in the middle of the night, when a little noise at the window awakened me, I knew at once that those sneak thieves were in the room, and with one bound—I couldn't have done it if I had tried at another time—I landed on the floor from the upper berth with my hands on the throat of the thief at the window. I held on so tightly that my victim couldn't make a sound, and you can imagine how horrified I was to find that I had nearly strangled my wife. If I had had a pistol, I would certainly have shot her, and the first opportunity I had after that I gave mine away. They are dangerous things to carry."—New York Times.

A Faithful Likeness.

Artist—Here is the portrait of your wife which—

Mr. Richman—Ah! It's very like her. Artist—She—er—h'm—she didn't pay for it. She said you'd do that.

ELIJAH W. HILL,

Real Estate Dealer,

Second Floor Grand Building, Corner Sixth and Washington,
EAST LIVERPOOL, O.

DO YOU WISH TO BUY OR SELL REAL ESTATE? If so, consult us.

We have the facilities for accommodating you. Having made real estate dealing a specialty for some time, we have become established in the business. Every day brings us new business and nearly every day sees a deal consummated. Our volume of business grows out of the reasonableness of our charges. We never speculate on other peoples' property. The price set by the owner is the price the purchaser pays. We do not conduct our business on the "get rich quick" plan. Our patrons appreciate this and show it by sending us other patrons. Owners of property who desire to sell the same will do well to place it on our sale list. Those intending to purchase property will do well to consult us before buying.

In all of our business we take care of the interests of both owner and purchaser. We are neither for the one or the other. Justice between both parties is what we seek.

Owners who want a quick sale and will offer a genuine bargain can be accommodated at all times by us. Purchasers, who want a bargain, can take advantage of these offers if they will let us know that they are in the market for such.

Those who have but little money, say from $50 to $100, can buy a home from us at any time, the balance being paid on installments at the rate of $1 monthly to the $100 of indebtedness, which pays both interest and principal, with privilege of paying faster. The large assortment of properties we have constantly on sale enables us to usually suit you.

DO YOU WISH FIRE INSURANCE? This is another branch of our business. We represent ten different companies, all of high standard. We insure dwellings, barns, mercantile buildings, factories, merchandise, household goods, etc. We write at regular rates. We think it unfair to give what is known as "cut rates." As a basis for dwelling rates, we would say that a frame, slate roof building which stands unexposed by other buildings for the space of 25 feet on all sides, will cost you 35 cents per $100 insurance for one year; 70 cents per $100 for three years; or, $1 per $100 for five years. This applies to household goods as well. Household goods are just as valuable, proportionately to you as the house is to its owner, and we often wonder why so many owners of household goods let themselves be exposed to loss, and often lose them when insurance rates are so reasonable.

BONDS, STOCKS AND INVESTMENTS we also handle. We can sell you local stocks, bonds and investments, and also corporation, bank and railroad stocks and bonds. Not much business in this line has developed here yet, but by your co-operation with us, either as a buyer or seller, will be all that is necessary to develop such.

HOUSE RENTING as a business is what East Liverpool has needed for some time. In our renting department, we do such and every day is adding to its utility. If you have any property to rent place them with us and see if it does not profit you.

All kinds of notarial work, such as wills, deeds, mortgages, contracts and agreements. We also procure marriage licenses.

Loaning of money on real estate is another feature of our business. We negotiate loans for a reasonable charge, the rate of interest depending on the class of security and amount wanted. Those who have money to put out should avail themselves of our facilities for doing this kind of business. No charges to the lender.

To the public we extend free of charge our services in the way of supplying information of a general nature concerning our city and vicinity. We try to have at all times just what you want to know.

We open this week a free bureau for the accommodation of those who are seeking houses to rent and landlords who are seeking tenants. We are constantly besieged with applications for houses for rent. To this end we invite all owners of rentable houses in the city or vicinity to let us know when they want or will want a tenant. If they will do so we will refer inquirers to them, making no charge whatever, either to applicant or owner. Landlords by doing this need never have a house empty for more than a day.

In the above we have endeavored to give you the general nature of the business in which we engage. We ask but a continuance of the patronage of the past, and, as then, we will endeavor to render you honest, accurate and valuable service.

NEW JERSEY.

New York, Nov. 6.—The Republicans are confident of success in New Jersey, but the Democrats claim that if the members of their party who remained away from the polls four years ago turn out today the state will go for Bryan. The increase in registration, the Republicans claim, is due to the normal growth of the voting people. The Democrats, however, claim that the increase shows that those Democrats who remained away from the polls four years ago expect to vote today.

ILLINOIS.

Chicago, Nov. 6.—A full vote will be polled in the state at large, and especially in Chicago and Cook county. The fight here has been of the warmest description, and every effort will be made to bring the full voting strength of both parties into the field.

VIRGINIA.

Richmond, Va., Nov. 6.—Democratic party authorities are confident of a plurality for Bryan of some 20,000 and of electing 7 out of the 10 congressmen, and have hopes amounting almost to positive belief that they will elect the other three. Except as to three close districts the Republicans make no claims.

KANSAS.

Topeka, Nov. 6.—The Republicans claim a victory for McKinley by 25,000 plurality, the success of the state ticket by a plurality somewhat less, the election of eight congressmen and a majority on joint ballot in the legislature. The fusionists concede one congressman to the Republicans, but claim everything else, placing Bryan's plurality at 16,000.

UNTOLD VALUE.

The Statement Contained in This Citizen's Statement is Priceless.

The hale, the hearty, the strong can afford to toss this paper to one side impatiently when they read the following, but any sufferer in East Liverpool who has spent a mint of money and suffered hours of excruciating torture caused by kidney complaint will stand in his own light if he does not follow the valuable advice offered by Mr. S. C. Hill, of Ester, Pa., carpenter, who says: "For a year I suffered from pain across my back, difficulty with the kidney secretions and was naturally anxious to procure some treatment which would check if not radically cure the trouble. Advised by a friend, I procured Doan's Kidney Pills at the W. & W. pharmacy, and I want East Liverpool people to thoroughly grasp this fact, before I used the entire contents of the box I was cured. To prove that my convictions were laid on solid foundation I have since purchased for a neighbor of mine three boxes of Doan's Kidney Pills. They cured him. Now, when a preparation which cured me in the condition I was in, and also my neighbor, a preparation which is held in such estimation in and around East Liverpool that an acquaintance of mine advised me through a newspaper statement to obtain it, when that preparation performs exactly what it promises, what can be expected of any resident of East Liverpool suffering from kidney complaint who will not take advantage of his neighbor's experience and profit by his opinions."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the U. S. Remember the name, Doan's, and take no substitute.

THE ELECTIONS.

Citizens Are Voting Throughout the Country Today.

CONFIDENCE IS EXPRESSED.

Statements Claiming Victory Issued From Each Headquarters.

A HEAVY VOTE IS EXPECTED.

Indications That It Will Be Larger Than Usual In Some of the States—Leaders of Both the Democratic and Republican Parties Claim to Be Sure of Success. Bryan Will Receive Returns at Lincoln, President McKinley at Canton and Governor Roosevelt at Oyster Bay, L. I.—A Statement From Republican Headquarters Says That After a Close Poll They Feel Certain of Success—Democratic Chairman Jones Issued a Statement Saying He Was Confident of Victory—Claims as to Some States.

New York, Nov. 6.—The national elections are being held throughout the country today.

Indications are that in some states the vote will be heavier than usual.

The leaders of both the Democratic and Republican parties have expressed confidence in the success of their respective candidates.

Mr. Bryan is at his home in Lincoln, Neb., where he will receive the returns.

President McKinley will receive the returns at Canton, O.

Governor Roosevelt is at Oyster Bay, where he will hear the returns.

WEATHER FORECAST.

Western Pennsylvania, Ohio and West Virginia—FAIR.

CONFIDENT OF BIG VICTORY.

A Statement From Republican Headquarters Declared a Close Poll Indicated Success.

Chicago, Nov. 6.—The following statement was given out at the headquarters of the Democratic national committee, on the eve of the election:

"There are few surface indications at this time dissimilar to those of four years ago, when McKinley swept the country by the greatest majority probably ever given to a presidential candidate. The work of the Republicans during the past four weeks has been marvelously effective. It has been marked everywhere by completeness in detail of machinery, harmonious action and desired results. In the history of the party no better organization has ever existed. McKinley and Roosevelt will carry every state which voted for McKinley and Hobart four years ago, and certainly seven or eight others that voted for Bryan in 1896. The alleged hopes of Cramer and Bryan as to carrying Indiana and New York are simply following out the program of claiming everything in sight, for the purpose of encouraging their followers in close states to make the most desperate efforts for success. The claims of the Republicans are based upon the result of actual work reported by men in the field, brought up through precinct, ward, township, city, county and state organizations, and upon actual facts as shown by the closest poll ever made by any political organization."

FEELS SURE OF SUCCESS.

National Democratic Chairman Jones Issued a Statement In Which He Expressed Confidence.

Chicago, Nov. 6.—Chairman James K. Jones, of the Democratic national committee, on the eve of the election, said:

"I have no doubt that the result of the ballot tomorrow will be the triumphant election of Bryan and Stevenson. The Democratic party has appealed in this campaign to the reason and conscience of the people, while the Republicans have appealed to passion and prejudice. In the great forum of public opinion I have no doubt the Democratic party has won this, the greatest of its national political struggles. Four years ago the Democratic party was deficient in organization, whereas now it is more perfectly organized and more efficient than it has been in any campaign. The national committee has been in touch with every part of the country and familiar with all the details of the work. While the campaign fund has not been enriched by the contributions of great trusts it has received the patriotic mites of the working classes in sufficient quantities to defray the expenses of the campaign, which was even more satisfactory than if it had been otherwise. "The country is now aroused as it has never been before since the great civil war, and the result can be nothing less than the triumphant election of the national Democratic ticket."

CHIEF DEVERY INDICTED.

He Was Accused of Intending Interference With New York State Election Deputies.

New York, Nov. 6.—The local grand jury indicted Chief of Police William S. Devery on the charge of interfering with the work of State Superintendent of Elections John McCullagh. Chief Devery's bail was fixed and arrangements have been made for hearing the case tomorrow. The indictment has attracted a great deal of attention in political circles. The points involved appear to hinge upon the rights of men to swear in their votes when challenged by any of the deputies of the state superintendent of elections.

The indictment against Chief Devery charges felony. It charges in part: "That he (Devery) did attempt willfully, knowingly and with felonious intent to hinder said John McCullagh in the performance of his duty as superintendent of elections."

Chief Devery, after giving bail, made the following statement:

"When I was sworn in as chief of police of New York city I swore that I would do my duty and protect the people of this city. I propose to do my duty toward the whole of the people. I do not propose to be bulldozed. I am going to see that the people's rights are protected and that every one entitled to vote will be allowed to vote. I am going to see that the policemen in my charge are not bulldozed even by John McCullagh."

Mr. McCullagh refused to talk concerning the indictment. He said, however, that he was a witness before the grand jury.

DEVERY REVOKED ORDER.

A Letter Sent by Roosevelt to Van Wyck, Was Followed by Instructions From Mayor to the Chief.

New York, Nov. 6.—Governor Roosevelt's message to the mayor was delivered to Mr. Van Wyck at the Democratic club. The mayor at once took a cab and was driven to police headquarters, where he called upon Chief Devery, the mayor and the chief of police were closeted together for an hour. At the conclusion of the conference Chief Devery announced that in accordance with the mayor's orders the order issued on Sunday to captains regarding the McCullagh deputies and voters would be rescinded. The order of the mayor read as follows:

"You will at once revoke the order issued from your office on the 4th inst. relative to the duties of the police force on election day, and you will issue immediately such further orders as will require your subordinates to co-operate and assist in the execution and enforcement of the metropolitan election district law and amendments thereto."

Later Mayor Van Wyck made the following statement:

"There will be no intimidation or violence at the election tomorrow. It will pass off as quietly as that of any village. The chief of police will take charge of that and will preserve order. I have the utmost confidence in the chief. He knows his duties and is a perfectly efficient chief and understands how to maintain peace and order."

Chief Devery said that there would be no trouble at the polls today and that he would enforce the orders of the mayor to the letter.

Oyster Bay, L. I., Nov. 6.—Governor Roosevelt sent the following communication to the Hon. Robert A. Van Wyck, mayor, New York city:

"Sir—My attention has been called to the official order issued by Chief of Police Devery, in which he directs his subordinates to disregard the chief of the state election bureau, John McCullagh, and his deputies."

"Unless you have already taken steps to secure the recall of this order, it is necessary for me to point out that I shall be obliged to hold you responsible, as the head of the city government, for the action of the chief of police, if it should result in any breach of the peace and intimidation or any crime whatever against the election laws. The state and city authorities should work together."

"I will not fail to call to summary account either state or city authorities, in the event of either being guilty of intimidation or connivance at fraud or failure to protect every legal voter in his rights.

"I, therefore, notify you that in the event of any wrong doing following upon the failure immediately to recall Chief Devery's order or upon any action or inaction on the part of Chief Devery, I must necessarily call you to account. Yours, etc., "Theodore Roosevelt."

Oyster Bay, L. I., Nov. 5, 1900.

BRYAN'S HOME STATE.

Both Sides Strongly Claim That They Will Win.

Omaha, Nov. 6.—The Republican state committee is still claiming the state by 5,000 plurality for McKinley, but this is placed against the positive assertion by Chairman Hall, of the Democratic committee, that Mr. Bryan will receive a plurality of at least 12,000.

Republicans generally are saying that Charles H. Dietrich, Republican, will be elected over Governor Poynter, and Chairman Lindsay declares that the legislature is safe for Republicans. On the other hand, Chairman Hall says that the whole state ticket will not run behind Bryan, and that the legislature will positively be fusion.

ON M'KINLEY'S LAWN.

A Number of the President's Neighbors Called and He Made a Brief Talk, Introducing Judge Day.

Canton, O., Nov. 6.—President McKinley's townsmen called on him last night to the number of 1,800 to 3,000, gathering in the McKinley lawn.

The affair was purely informal and arranged on the spur of the moment.

Headed by the Grand Army band, of Canton, the crowd marched from the public square to the McKinley home. Much red fire was burned along the route and most vociferous cheering was indulged in upon the arrival of the crowd at its objective point. The band serenaded the household, which included many visitors calling upon the President and Mrs. McKinley.

President McKinley made a brief speech and introduced Judge Hay, who talked.

CONNECTICUT.

New Haven, Conn., Nov. 6.—Observers who are not intensely partisan predict a safe McKinley margin and a probable Republican victory on the state ticket. On the latter point, however, they are careful not to express in figures their opinions.

Call Loan Rate Run Up, but Later Went Back, and Speculation Became Active.

New York, Nov. 6.—Loans made Monday carry over until Wednesday, and when speculators began to look about to find new accommodations with which to carry their holdings of stock over election day, they ran the call loan rate up rapidly to 25 per cent. The first loans were made at 10 per cent. One broker placed $1,000,000 at that rate, another million at 15 per cent and then demanded 25 per cent for a million more. This suddenly checked the animation of the stock market and was followed by a period of contemplation. A conspicuous feature of the market at this time was the large number of transactions for cash, and the small concessions from the ruling prices at which these were quoted. The conditions in the money market was of course responsible for this. When the rates for money fell away to 10 per cent again the speculators very promptly availed themselves of the resources offered and ruled prices up to the top level. The strength of the market was very general and on the whole quite uniform. The steel stocks, the prominent industrials and the Southern and Southwestern railroads, especially the Atchison and Union Pacific, were the leaders in point of strength, with gains ranging from 2 to 2½ per cent. Standard Oil sold in the outside market at 62½, compared with the previous record of 613 on Saturday.

Quite a large business was done in bonds and prices were well maintained. United States new 4s advanced ¼ and the old 4s declined ¼ per cent on the last call.

Total sales bonds, par value, $1,315,200.

"God forbid," exclaimed Richard Olney, when John G. Carlisle said to him, "if all of us come out for Bryan he may be elected."

GUESSING ON GAINS.

Votes Being Cast In Ohio Today.

CHAIRMAN DICK'S CLAIM IS 80,000.

He Also Says the Republicans Will Have 17 of the 21 Congressmen—Chairman Long Declares Bryan Will Carry the State—McLean Working Hard.

Cincinnati, O., Nov. 6.—There was speculation on the question of Democratic gains in the cities and Republican gains in the rural districts of Ohio. John R. McLean is here, trying to reduce the Republican plurality in Hamilton county one-half. This county gave McKinley almost 20,000 plurality four years ago. Republican State Chairman Dick says the poll shows over 80,000 for McKinley in Ohio, and 17 of the 21 congressmen. Democratic State Chairman Long claims Bryan will carry Ohio, "unless prevented by coercion and purchase."

Both sides were issuing notices and warnings about the use of pencils and all sorts of frauds. There was much excitement in some cities, and especially in the towns of close congressional districts. It was thought there would be no congressional contests here, but much fighting developed between Brownwell, Republican, and Kettler, Democrat, in the Second district.

GREATER NEW YORK VOTE.

Each Party Guessing as to the Result. Vote Up the State Speculated Upon by Party Leaders.

New York, Nov. 6.—Confidence was expressed that a full vote will be polled and Republicans and Democrats alike agreed that more than 600,000 citizens in Greater New York would deposit their ballots for the men of their choice.

Indications are that the vote in the city will be at least 65,000 larger than ever before in the history of Greater New York.

Generally speaking, Republicans concede that Bryan will carry Greater New York.

Democratic national headquarters were practically deserted Monday, only Secretary Mason, of the executive committee, being in charge. Chairman Frank Campbell, of the state committee, was at his home and will not return until tomorrow. Secretary Mason declined to make any statement other than to repeat what the chairman had said, that Bryan's election was assured.

At Republican national headquarters last night Joseph H. Manley, Senator Scott, of West Virginia, and Frederick S. Gibbs, of New York, gave out the following statements, respectively:

Mr. Manley said:

"The national committeemen in this city, after the receipt of telegrams today from Chairman Hanna and various state committeemen, have nothing to add to the statement made public this morning except to emphasize it. I do not share with some the opinion that Indiana is entirely safe for us. But we have no doubt of Illinois. We shall certainly carry New York state by not less than 75,000 majority and I look for something over 100,000 majority."

"I anticipate no trouble in this city tomorrow. I believe Superintendent of Police Devery means to give us a fair election, as he gave us a fair parade, and as he gave us protection in our meetings in this city. I do not expect that we shall have any definite statement as to the result before 9:30 o'clock Tuesday night."

Senator Scott, of West Virginia, repeated his former sanguine statements.

National Committeeman Gibbs said: "The election will be fair. I anticipate no trouble. The worst has been done, and it is my opinion that McKinley will have not less than 259 votes in the electoral college. That I consider a conservative estimate."

Richard Croker claims that Bryan will carry Greater New York by between 80,000 and 90,000.

As a general thing, Republican leaders will not admit that the borough of Manhattan will be carried for Bryan by more than 30,000 plurality. Both sides claim the borough of Brooklyn, the Republicans by 12,000, the Democrats by 8,000. The population in the boroughs of the Bronx, Queens and Richmond is relatively small. Democrats and Republicans claim all three boroughs, but the Democrats usually carry Queens and Richmond. As for the Bronx, the increase in population owing to the uptown movement has been so great that all estimates are worthless, the population in some districts having doubled. It will probably not give a decisive majority either way.

Democrats are inclined to concede the state outside Greater New York to McKinley by 70,000.

There is 100,000 less than the Republican allow McKinley in the same territory. Chairman and candidate for governor, Campbell, at his home in Newburgh. He will receive returns at his home and will not return here until Wednesday. Before leaving he said he had nothing to add to his statement that McKinley would carry New York state by 100,000. Greater New York vote included.

Only comparative small bets were being made, the odds ranging anywhere from 1 to 1 to 5 to 1 in favor of McKinley. The odds changed later to 3½ to 1.

NEW MEXICO.

Santa Fe, N. M., Nov. 6.—The Republicans are confident of carrying New Mexico by 2,000 majority for R. S. Rader, their candidate for congress. The Democrats claim 400 majority for their candidate, O. A. Larrazolo.

FLORIDA.

Jacksonville, Fla., Nov. 6.—The majority for Bryan and the Democratic house candidates will be between 20,000 and 25,000.

The oldest house in England stands near St. Albans' abbey. It is octagonal in shape and the walls of its lower story are of great thickness. It is 1,100 years old and is still fit for habitation.

OFFICIAL PAPER OF THE CITY
TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 6, 1900.

A special wire has been placed in the News Review office and complete election returns, both national and local, will be bulletined.

YOUR BALLOT.

It is a sacred trust, the trust of your franchise. See that in your acceptance you fill it aright. Don't make a mistake. Go to the polls this evening and use your own good common sense. Has Republican rule been prosperous for the past four years? Have you had work and good wages? Has McKinley fulfilled every promise he made to the nation four years ago? If he has, and if prosperity rules, then, in the name of good sense, continue McKinley and the Republican party in power. Let all enough alone.

COLONEL WINSHIP.

Those who were at the wigwam last night had a rich and genuine treat. Colonel Winship is a power in any cause, and the Republican party can rejoice that such a man is doing duty in its ranks. He is ready of speech, quick in repartee and retort and is a natural born orator. He is a gentleman and a man of true courage. Had he been otherwise, there would have been trouble at the wigwam last night, as he was interrupted in the most ungentlemanly manner by the foreigner who desired to champion the cause of Bryan and Aguinaldo, and many men in the audience were in an ugly mood in consequence of the fellow's action. But Winship waved the trouble aside and called for fair play, even in favor of the fellow who was not treating the speaker right. Colonel Winship made many warm friends in East Liverpool last night, and he will always be assured of a warm welcome when he comes here.

DISORDERLIES.

Men, or some fellows who have grown to the size of men, should be taught that there is a limit to the right of so-called free speech, even in this land of liberty. The first man who annoyed Colonel Winship last night at the wigwam is evidently a gentleman, but one with an overweening amount of egotism. He first asked a question which he thought would puzzle the speaker, along the line of the silver issue, and received a keen and cutting and incisive retort which met the question fairly and squarely and absolutely routed the questioner, horse, foot and dragoons, and yet given by the colonel in the most gentlemanly and courteous manner and in the most polite language. The questioner returned to the charge and received answer after answer, getting laughed at heartily by the great audience for his pains; but he kept asking questions, until the colonel found was finally merely attempting to be annoying, and then Mr. Winship called him down to the queen's taste, and the lad had the good sense to appreciate the true situation, and he rendered a manly apology. But the second party who interrupted the speaker did not act the part of a gentleman. He is evidently deeply in sympathy with Aguinaldo and his band of assassins, and his words and actions aroused the anger of all those around and about him. He did not ask questions, and he did not desire information. He simply acted the part of a disorderly, and he should be taught that here, in free America, we do not permit speakers on a public platform to be made the play of hoodlums and disorderly persons who do not agree with that speaker. We know the man by sight, and we have had occasion to talk to him on a number of times when we visited the store of Mr. Charles Levis, in the Diamond, and he has always acted as a gentleman in our presence; but he became what we term the "typical tough" in this country, judging by his actions of last night, and acted according to the line laid down by Bill Bryan and Dick Croker. Men who have done full duty in the Philippines, and fathers and mothers who have sons on duty there now, hailing from East Liverpool, do not take kindly to openly expressed treason, and will not bear patiently with the advocacy and backing up of assassins like Aguinaldo and his bolo murderers. The dark skinned fellow who thus acted at the wigwam last night, can thank Colonel Winship that he did not receive a good thumping. An officer finally called the fellow down and danger of serious trouble was over. Colonel Winship, when he was spoken to about the interruptions, after the meeting was over, laughingly said: "Oh, that was all right; it simply added spice to the meeting, and gave me an opportunity to make use of the latter fellow as an object lesson or horrible example."

J. J. PURINTON'S WORDS.

His words carried weight with them last night along certain lines. John J. Purinton knows, very fully, what he is talking about when he discourses on savings banks, building and loan associations, the erection of business houses and houses on the part of the workingmen and mechanics of East Liverpool, and the money put away for a nest egg by our toilers, and his figures of last night, given from the books and defying successful contradiction, showed, in a startling manner, the wonderful success that has come to East Liverpool during the past four years, under Republican rule. As he gave facts and figures, and showed the vast amount of money saved by the toilers, and described the class of houses being erected by the workingmen, and rang out the deep, earnest challenge of "men, do you want a change from such conditions," the audience was closely and deeply attentive, and to the keen observer from the platform, looking squarely in the faces and eyes of the men present, the fact was evident that they appreciated the situation from its best standpoint, and were too deeply in earnest for mere outward applause and were revolving, in their heart of heart, that no change should occur in the country if their ballots could control the matter. John J. Purinton's words did good and made votes last night. Look at this, voters of East Liverpool. These are plain, incontrovertible facts. The net savings of the workingmen of this city amount at present to about twenty-five thousand dollars each month; the mortgages on the homes are being paid off at about the rate of fifteen thousand dollars each month. Do you realize, workingmen and mechanics, what this really means? It means about ten homes, each worth about fifteen hundred dollars, being freed from debt each month. And this under Republican rule. Do you want a change? No sensible man should desire it. Vote for McKinley and the straight Republic.

OUR NEXT VICE PRESIDENT.

can ticket and enjoy four years more of prosperity.

THE HALF BREED.

In the Island of Luzon, Philippines, the Half Caste is

The

Bond between the Spanish father and the Filipino mother, as a rule. The half castes are among the best and most enterprising citizens of Manila, and many of them are quite wealthy. When the writer was in Manila he had the pleasure of forming the close acquaintance of many of these half castes, meeting them in the gymnasium night after night, practicing with them in various sports, such as broad jump, high jump, lifting weights, horizontal bar, boxing, rolling ten pins and other healthful and beneficial exercises. We found them model athletes, courteous and clever in the extreme, anxious to be on good terms with the Americans, and extremely bitter in their hatred of the Spaniards. We believe that, to this day, these men are in favor of American rule, and we believe that no outbreak would have occurred on the part of the insurgents had it not been for Bill Bryan and his followers, and for the free silver kings, Bryan's employers, who made use of the Philippine scare, imperialism and militarism, for the purpose of misleading the people at large, if possible, and thus obtaining votes for Bryan, whom they desired to use as a tool in the advancement of their moneyed interests. Bill Bryan and his employers have forced human life into the balance, in order that they might possibly make millions of dollars out of their mines and silver bullion. There rests against Bryan and his followers an awful crime, if they are guilty of the charges put upon them.

DICK BURROWS

Made an Impromptu Speech at the Republican Wigwam Last Night.

Last evening while the band was playing in front of the wigwam Dick Burrows became enthused and made an impromptu speech. He was persuaded to return to his buggy by Officer Morris.

Furious Man Wants to Know About Mingling of Languages.

"It's a funny thing," said the man with the bad cigar, who had been reading day before yesterday's paper.

"What's that?" asked the young man with the phenomenally short coat.

"Why, the way these fellows that write jokes for newspapers get things tangled up," replied the first seaker.

"How is that?" asked the long legged young man.

"Why, look here," continued the man with the bad cigar warmly. "Did you ever read a Dutch joke in the papers where two Germans are supposed to be talking to each other?"

"Sure I did," said the tall young man, yawning languidly.

"Well, did you ever notice that every time the guy that wrote the joke has them jabbering at each other in broken English? What do you think of this?" He picked up the paper again and after hunting a few moments read as follows:

"Leberwurst—Heinrich, vy iss it ven you bock beer drink yet that you vant to yump alretty?"

"Schwarzkoppen—Mayple it iss vonce because die beer is mit hops filled up. No?"

"Now, that's a good thing, isn't it?" went on the man with the bad cigar. "If those two Germans wanted to talk to each other, do you suppose they would amble around in broken English? No; they would spiel it out in German that they both understand. Suppose you and I were in Germany for a visit and I wanted to tell you about some sight I had seen, would I try to tell you in bum German that neither of us could speak or would I talk English? They make me tired."

"But that would spoil the joke," protested the tall young man.

"Hub!" snorted the other. "Some things are too bad to spoil."

And then the incident was considered closed.—Chicago Chronicle.

YOUR BALLOT.

It is a sacred trust, the trust of your franchise. See that in your acceptance you fill it aright. Don't make a mistake. Go to the polls this evening and use your own good common sense. Has Republican rule been prosperous for the past four years?
Have you had work and good wages?
Has McKinley fulfilled every promise he made to the nation four years ago? If he has, and if prosperity rules, then, in the name of good sense, continue McKinley and the Republican party in power. Let all be enough alone.

COLONEL WINSHIP.

Those who were at the wigwam last night had a rich and genuine treat.
Colonel Winship is a power in any cause, and the Republican party can rejoice that such a man is doing duty in its ranks. He is ready of speech, quick in repartee and retort and is a natural born orator. He is a gentleman and a man of true courage. Had he been otherwise, there would have been trouble at the wigwam last night, as he was interrupted in the most ungentlemanly manner by the foreigner who desired to champion the cause of Bryan and Aguinaldo, and many men in the audience were in an ugly mood in consequence of the fellow's action. But Winship waved the trouble aside and called for fair play, even in favor of the fellow who was not treating the speaker right. Colonel Winship made many warm friends in East Liverpool last night, and he will always be assured of a warm welcome when he comes here.

DISORDERLIES.

Men, or some fellows who have grown to the size of men, should be taught that there is a limit to the right of so-called free speech, even in this land of liberty. The first man who annoyed Colonel Winship last night at the wigwam is evidently a gentleman, but one with an overweening amount of egotism. He first asked a question which he thought would puzzle the speaker, along the line of the silver issue, and received a keen and cutting and incisive retort which met the question fairly and squarely and absolutely routed the questioner, horse, foot and dragoons, and yet given by the colonel in the most gentlemanly and courteous manner and in the most polite language. The questioner returned to the charge and received answer after answer, getting laughed at heartily by the great audience for his pains; but he kept asking questions, until the colonel found was finally merely attempting to be annoying, and then Mr. Winship called him down to the queen's taste, and the lad had the good sense to appreciate the true situation, and he rendered a manly apology. But the second party who interrupted the speaker did not act the part of a gentleman.

He is evidently deeply in sympathy with Aguinaldo and his band of assassins, and his words and actions aroused the anger of all those around and about him. He did not ask questions, and he did not desire information. He simply acted the part of a disorderly, and he should be taught that here, in free America, we do not permit speakers on a public platform to be made the play of hoodlums and disorderly persons who do not agree with that speaker. We know the man by sight, and we have had occasion to talk to him on a number of times when we visited the store of Mr. Charles Levis, in the Diamond, and he has always acted as a gentleman in our presence; but he became what we term the "typical tough" in this country, judging by his actions of last night, and acted according to the line laid down by Bill Bryan and Dick Croker. Men who have done full duty in the Philippines, and fathers and mothers who have sons on duty there now, hailing from East Liverpool, do not take kindly to openly expressed treason, and will not bear patiently with the advocacy and backing up of assassins like Aguinaldo and his bolo murderers. The dark skinned fellow who thus acted at the wigwam last night, can thank Colonel Winship that he did not receive a good thumping.
An officer finally called the fellow down and danger of serious trouble was over. Colonel Winship, when he was spoken to about the interruptions, after the meeting was over, laughingly said: "Oh, that was all right; it simply added spice to the meeting, and gave me an opportunity to make use of the latter fellow as an object lesson or horrible example."

J. J. PURINTON'S WORDS.

His words carried weight with them last night along certain lines.
John J. Purinton knows, very fully, what he is talking about when he discusses on savings banks, building and loan associations, the erection of business houses and houses on the part of the workingmen and mechanics of East Liverpool, and the money put away for a nest egg by our toilers, and his figures of last night, given from the books and defying successful contradiction, showed, in a startling manner, the wonderful success that has come to East Liverpool during the past four years, under Republican rule. As he gave facts and figures, and showed the vast amount of money saved by the toilers, and described the class of houses being erected by the workingmen, and rang out the deep, earnest challenge of "men, do you want a change from such conditions," the audience was closely and deeply attentive, and to the keen observer from the platform, looking squarely in the faces and eyes of the men present, the fact was evident that they appreciated the situation from its best standpoint, and were too deeply in earnest for mere outward applause and were revolving, in their heart of heart, that no change should occur in the country if their ballots could control the matter. John J.
Purinton's words did good and made votes last night. Look at this, voters of East Liverpool. These are plain, incontrovertible facts. The net savings of the workingmen of this city amount at present to about twenty-five thousand dollars each month; the mortgages on the homes are being paid off at about the rate of fifteen thousand dollars each month.
Do you realize, workingmen and mechanics, what this really means? It means about ten homes, each worth about fifteen hundred dollars, being freed from debt each month. And this under Republican rule. Do you want a change? No sensible man should desire it. Vote for McKinley and Republican rule, and the straight Republi-

OUR NEXT VICE PRESIDENT.

can ticket and enjoy four years more of prosperity.

THE HALF BREED.

In the Island of Luzon, Philippines, the Half Caste is

The Bond between the Spanish father and the Filipino mother, as a rule. The half castes are among the best and most enterprising citizens of Manila, and many of them are quite wealthy.
When the writer was in Manila he had the pleasure of forming the close acquaintance of many of these half castes, meeting them in the gymnasium night after night, practicing with them in various sports, such as broad jump, high jump, lifting weights, horizontal bar, boxing, rolling ten pins and other healthful and beneficial exercises. We found them model athletes, courteous and clever in the extreme, anxious to be on good terms with the Americanos, and extremely bitter in their hatred of the Spaniards. We believe that, to this day, these men are in favor of American rule, and we believe that no outbreak would have occurred on the part of the insurgents had it not been for Bill Bryan and his followers, and for the free silver kings, Bryan's employers, who made use of the Philippine scare, imperialism and militarism, for the purpose of misleading the people at large, if possible, and thus obtaining votes for Bryan, whom they desired to use as a tool in the advancement of their moneyed interests. Bill Bryan and his employers have forced human life into the balance, in order that they might possibly make millions of dollars out of their mines and silver bullion. There rests against Bryan and his followers an awful crime, if they are guilty of the charges put upon them.

OHIO IN CONGRESS FROM 1803 TO 1901.

STEPHEN A. NORTHWAY.

Stephen A. Northway of Jefferson, Ashtabula county, was born in Christian Hollow, Onondaga county, New York, June 19, 1833, and removed with his parents to Orwell township, Ashtabula county, Ohio, in 1840. Here he engaged in farm labor. He was educated in Kingsville academy and Orwell academy. He taught school to secure the necessary means to prosecute his studies.

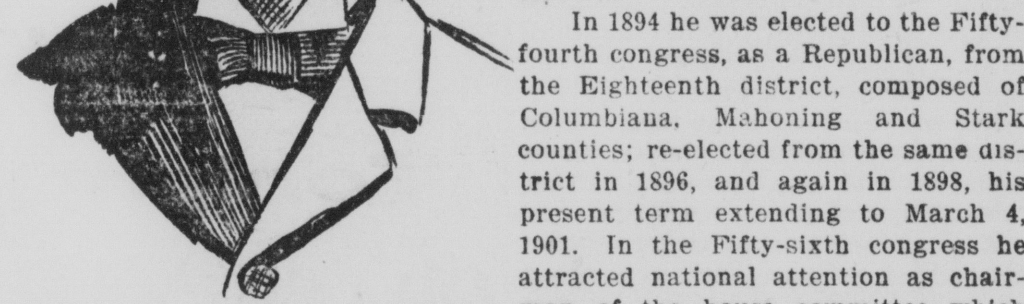

He was admitted to the bar in 1859, and elected prosecuting attorney of Ashtabula county in 1861, and re-elected in 1863, becoming prominent in his profession. He was elected to the lower house of the general assembly in 1865, and served two years, resuming the practice of his profession.

In 1892 he was elected to the Fifty-third congress, as a Republican, from the Nineteenth district, composed of Ashtabula, Geauga, Portage and Trumbull counties; was re-elected to the Fifty-fourth in 1894, and to the Fifty-fifth in 1896, from the same district. He died during his third term in 1898, and was succeeded by Charles Dick. His record in congress was highly commendable.

ROBERT W. TAYLER.

Robert W. Tayler of Lisbon, Columbiana county, was born in Youngstown, Ohio, Nov. 26, 1852. He was graduated from the Western Reserve college, Hudson, Ohio, in 1872. For several years he was identified with the educational interests in eastern Ohio. He was superintendent of the Lisbon High school in 1873 and 1874. In 1875 and 1876 he was editor of the Buckeye State, a newspaper at Lisbon, and conducted it with great spirit and more than usual ability. He was admitted to the bar in 1877, and elected prosecuting attorney of Columbiana county in 1880, and continued to hold the office by re-election until 1888. He is still in the practice of his profession, notwithstanding his congressional services.

In 1894 he was elected to the Fifty-fourth congress, as a Republican, from the Eighteenth district, composed of Columbiana, Mahoning and Stark counties; re-elected from the same district in 1896, and again in 1898, his present term extending to March 4, 1901. In the Fifty-sixth congress he attracted national attention as chairman of the house committee which refused B. H. Roberts of Utah a seat on account of polygamy. He has been an active and industrious legislator since his entrance into congress.

CHARLES P. TAFT.

Charles P. Taft of Cincinnati, a son of Attorney General Alphonso Taft, was born in Cincinnati, Ohio, December 21, 1843. He went through the public schools of that city; was graduated from Andover academy, Massachusetts in 1860; from Yale college in 1864, and from Columbia Law college in 1866. In the latter year he went to Germany and took a degree in the University of Heidelberg.

In 1871 he was elected a representative to the general assembly of Ohio, as a Republican, and as chairman of the committee of common schools brought about the codification of the school laws.

In 1879 he became editor and part proprietor of the Cincinnati Times-Star, a Republican newspaper, and still continues to hold that position, in connection with the practice of his profession. He was elected to the Fifty-fourth congress in 1894, from the First district, a part of Hamilton county, and served but one term.

JAMES H. SOUTHARD.

James Harding Southard of Toledo was born on a farm in Washington township, Lucas county, Ohio, January 20, 1851. He attended Hopewell district school and the grammar and high schools of Toledo, and studied at Adrian, Michigan, and Oberlin, Ohio, preparatory to entering Cornell university, from which he graduated in 1875.

In 1877 he was admitted to the bar, and in 1882 was appointed assistant prosecuting attorney of Lucas county, and was afterward twice elected prosecuting attorney of the county, discharging the duties of the office with marked ability.

He was elected to the Fifty-fourth congress in 1894, as a Republican, from the Ninth district, consisting of the counties of Lucas, Fulton, Wood and Ottawa, and was re-elected to the Fifty-fifth in 1896, and to the Fifty-sixth in 1898. He is still in the active practice of his profession at Toledo.

FRANCIS B. DEWITT.

Francis B. DeWitt of Paulding was born in Jackson county, Indiana, March 11, 1849, and came to Delaware county, Ohio, with his parents in 1854, where he was reared on a farm. In 1861, when 12 years of age, he enlisted in the military service and participated in the Corinth campaign, and in the battle of Shiloh. Because of injuries and disabilities he was mustered out of the service in 1862, but within five weeks re-enlisted in the One Hundred and Twenty-first Ohio volunteer infantry, in which he served until the end of the war. He was a prisoner of war at Salisbury, Danville and Libby.

He attended the common schools, the Galena High school, the Lebanon Normal school and the Ohio Wesleyan university at Delaware. He taught school for three or four years, while pursuing the study of law, was admitted to the practice in 1875, and located at Paulding, where he followed his profession until 1891, when he engaged in agricultural pursuits, and now resides on his farm near Paulding.

He was elected as a representative from Paulding county, as a Republican, in 1891, and re-elected in 1893, resigning the position to enter congress. In 1894 he was elected to the Fifty-fourth congress from the Fifth district, Paulding, Defiance, Henry, Putnam, Van Wert and Williams counties. He carried a largely Democratic district in 1894, and was defeated for re-election in 1896.

SENATOR DAVIS IMPROVING

It Was Found Necessary to Amputate One of His Toes.

St. Paul, Nov. 6.—An operation was performed on Senator Davis, which included the amputation of one of the senator's toes. The patient stood the shock well and Dr. Murphy, who performed the operation, reported that his condition was slightly more favorable. The pus was removed.

TROUBLE FEARED IN DENVER.

Democratic Policemen and Republican Deputy Sheriffs May Clash.

Denver, Nov. 6.—Five hundred extra policemen have been sworn in by the Democratic police board and as many Republican deputies by Sheriff Jones. The county commissioners, in defiance of an order of Judge Butler, of the district court, revoked the commissions of the deputies and last evening bench warrants were issued for the arrest of the commissioners for contempt.

It is said the sheriff will re-commission the deputies and it is feared the rival peace officers will clash in some of the downtown districts. There are no other developments in the situation.

INDIANA.

Indianapolis, Ind., Nov. 6.—Before leaving for his home Chairman Martin, of the Democratic state committee, made the following statement: "I see no reason for changing my predictions as heretofore made. I believe Indiana will go Democratic by a safe majority." Before going away Mr. Hernley, chairman of the Republican state committee, said: "It is a landslide. We will elect 11 congressmen sure, and will carry the state by 40,000, and will elect the entire state and national tickets, and carry both branches of the legislature."

CALIFORNIA.

San Francisco, Nov. 6.—The chairmen of the Republican and Democratic state committees insist that their respective parties will carry the state by from 12,000 to 15,000. The result in California will probably not be known until Wednesday night.

Keifer Refused a Vote.

Springfield, O., Nov. 6.—The board of election refused to grant registration to General Warren Keifer. He threatens to bring mandamus proceedings. He was out of the city campaigning on the regular registration days.

SOUTH CAROLINA.

Charleston, S. C., Nov. 6.—Willis Jones, chairman of the state Democratic executive committee, has issued an address urging Democrats to go to the polls and give Bryan a rousing majority.

The Marriage Problem

"How to be happy though married," has been entirely solved to the satisfaction of hundreds of thousands of women. There can be no happiness without health. The general health of woman is dependent on the local health of the delicate womanly organs. When there are debilitating drains, or inflammation, ulceration or female weakness, happiness in marriage is practically impossible. A host of happy wives testify that the secret of happiness in marriage is found in the use of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. It dries the drains, heals ulceration and inflammation and cures female weakness. It makes weak women strong, sick women well.

Mrs. Anna Willy, (Michigan House), Northville, Spink Co., S. Dak., writes: "I am enjoying good health, thanks to your kind advice and valuable remedies. I suffered very much with female weakness and other ailments for more than two years, when I wrote to you for advice. After carefully following your advice and taking six bottles each of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription and 'Golden Medical Discovery' I am now a well and happy woman."

Women are invited to consult Dr. Pierce by letter, free. Correspondence private. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

Corkscrew Seed.

There are some seeds which "literally corkscrew themselves into the ground." The most remarkable instance is perhaps that of the Spine pennata, a beautiful south European grass. The actual seed is small, with a sharp point and stiff short hairs pointing backward. The top end of the seed is produced into a fine, twisted, corkscrewlike rod, which is followed by a plain cylindrical portion, ending in a long, delicate feather, the whole being more than a foot in length. Owing to this feather the seed falls to the earth point downward and sticks in the ground.

But even if the seed should settle on its side, damp, by acting on the hairs attached to it, causes it to rise up till its point is downward. If a shower comes on or dew falls, the spiral winds, elongating itself upward. Being covered, like the seed, with backward pointing hairs, it usually presses against some blade of grass or other obstacle, with the result that the seed is pressed into the ground.

On the spiral becoming dry again, it curls up, and the seed is not drawn out of the ground owing to its backward pointing hairs, but the spiral and the feather are easily drawn down. On the return of damp the spiral again unwinds and, acting as before, drives the seed still farther down until at last it is quite buried.

Andrew Johnson, who resides about one-half mile above the Rock Springs park, had a narrow escape early Monday morning.

Lord Salisbury once told the following interesting and amusing incident at a meeting of a certain literary club. "One book," said Lord Salisbury, "has always fascinated me and on more than one occasion has drawn me out of bed very early in the morning. This is Dumas' 'Monte-Christo.' A few months ago I was staying at Sandringham. I had my favorite with me, and about half past 4 in the morning I got up and went into the beautiful grounds and sat down for an hour or two to be 'carried away' by my book.

"I had been reading for about half an hour when I heard some one say: 'What! Are a prime minister's duties so heavy that he must needs be up so early in order to study?' I turned and saw the Prince of Wales. I showed him the book that had drawn me out so early, and he said laughingly that he would read such an apparently fascinating book.

"Three weeks afterward he said to me: 'Monte-Christo' drew you out of bed at half past 4 in the morning. I may say that it drew me out of bed at 4 in the morning.'"—London Gem.

A Fish That Eats Ducks.

Among the queer things in India is the fish that eats ducks. When one misses some ducks and is told by the moorgywalla that a fish swallowed them, one begins to think there can really be no limit to the lies the Aryan brother can tell. But early one morning, soon after the ducks had been let out and had, as usual, made their way to the tank, on one side of which stands an indigo assistant's bungalow, the old khansama excitedly announced that the big fish had just caught another duck and swallowed it and could not keep down with it. The gun was at once got hold of, and after watching the antics of the fish trying to keep down under water he was shot. He proved to be a large boali and had actually got the entire bird down, with only the legs just showing in his mouth.

ELECTION DAY.

A LARGE VOTE IS BEING CAST IN THIS CITY.

There is Very Little Scratching And McKinley Will Have a Rousing Majority.

The campaign of 1900 is now almost a thing of the past, and it will only be a few hours until the result is known.

Much interest was taken in the election in this city and at 3 o'clock a large vote had been polled in every precinct. There has not been much scratching, and it is expected the count of the city will be complete not later than 10:30 o'clock.

At the Fourth ward James H. Tracy, one of the judges, caused a smile by getting his ticket and walking directly to the ballot box handing it to Leroy Orr to drop in the box. Everybody smiled and Mr. Tracy suddenly realized that he had not marked the ticket. It was returned to him and he marked it this time.

Arrangements have been made to receive the returns at many places in this city, but the News Review office will again be the place where the crowd will congregate, as nothing has been left undone to secure the most complete and reliable returns at the earliest hour.

Hard to Rob Drug Stores.

"I ain't doing nothing now," said the young man with the small eyes and low brow as he accepted an invitation from an equally low browed companion to sit at a round table. "My last job heeled me pretty well, and I don't do no work unless I has to."

"What is it?" asked the other rascal. The first tough made a significant motion with his arm to indicate his acquaintance with the art of sandbagging and lead piping.

"To tell the truth"—he called it "troot"—"this crackman's work is too risky. Too much pulling of guns by the other fellows, and you've got to have an expensive outfit, and doing the sneak act is too risky. Did I ever tell you how I started out? It was in a drug store, and I thought I could swipe some brushes or something like that. You can always hock them things. Well, I got in all right, but I had to buy a soda—ar-h!—to get an excuse. I took my time swallowing the stuff, and up to that point the graft worked all right.

"The boss he walked away, and after awhile he went behind the little place where they put up prescriptions, and then I gathered in three nice brushes. But before I had taken three steps he was on to me. I found out afterward that all these druggists have little holes or cracks in the stained glass in front of their desks, so they can pipe off all that goes on in the store."—Chicago Tribune.

Glad He Had No Revolver.

"No," said the man, talking of travelling, "you will never find me travelling or going anywhere, for that matter, with a revolver. I gave mine away a number of years ago with a devout feeling of thankfulness that it had not been the cause of endless reproach to me. I had been up the Hudson with my wife, and on the return trip I had in my mind the stories that I had recently heard of sneak thieves who had been robbing passengers on the boat.

"I did not know that I had paid special attention to them, but in the middle of the night, when a little noise at the window awakened me, I knew at once that those sneak thieves were in the room, and with one bound—I couldn't have done it if I had tried at another time—I landed on the floor from the upper berth with my hands on the throat of the thief at the window. I held on so tightly that my victim couldn't make a sound, and you can imagine how horrified I was to find that I had nearly strangled my wife. If I had had a pistol, I would certainly have shot her, and the first opportunity I had after that I gave mine away. They are dangerous things to carry."—New York Times.

EAST LIVERPOOL, O.

DO YOU WISH TO BUY OR SELL REAL ESTATE? If so, consult us.

We have the facilities for accommodating you. Having made real estate dealing a specialty for some time, we have become established in the business. Every day brings us new business and nearly every day sees a deal consummated. Our volume of business grows out of the reasonableness of our charges. We never speculate on other peoples' property. The price set by the owner is the price the purchaser pays. We do not conduct our business on the "get rich quick" plan. Our patrons appreciate this and show it by sending us other patrons. Owners of property who desire to sell the same will do well to place it on our sale list. Those intending to purchase property will do well to consult us before buying.

In all of our business we take care of the interests of both owner and purchaser. We are neither for the one or the other. Justice between both parties is what we seek.

Owners who want a quick sale and will offer a genuine bargain can be accommodated at all times by us. Purchasers, who want a bargain, can take advantage of these offers if they will let us know that they are in the market for such.

Those who have but little money, say from $50 to $100, can buy a home from us at any time, the balance being paid on installments at the rate of $1 monthly to the $100 of indebtedness, which pays both interest and principal, with privilege of paying faster. The large assortment of properties we have constantly on sale enables us to usually suit you.

DO YOU WISH FIRE INSURANCE? This is another branch of our business. We represent ten different companies, all of high standard. We insure dwellings, barns, mercantile buildings, factories, merchandise, household goods, etc. We write at regular rates. We think it unfair to give what is known as "cut rates." As a basis for dwelling rates, we would say that a frame, slate roof building which stands unexposed by other buildings for the space of 25 feet on all sides, will cost you 35 cents per $100 insurance for one year; 70 cents per $100 for three years; or, $1 per $100 for five years. This applies to household goods as well. Household goods are just as valuable, proportionately to you as the house is to its owner, and we often wonder why so many owners of household goods let themselves be exposed to loss, and often lose them when insurance rates are so reasonable.

BONDS, STOCKS AND INVESTMENTS we also handle. We can sell you local stocks, bonds and investments, and also corporation, bank and railroad stocks and bonds. Not much business in this line has developed here yet, but by your co-operation with us, either as a buyer or seller, will be all that is necessary to develop such.

HOUSE RENTING as a business is what East Liverpool has needed for some time. In our renting department, we have a large stock of houses adding to its utility. If you have any property, see if it does not profit you.

All kinds of notarial work, such as wills, deeds, mortgages, etc., and agreements. We also procure marriage licenses.

Loaning of money is another feature of our business. We negotiate loans for a small charge, the rate of interest depending on the class of security and amount wanted. Those who have money to put out should avail themselves of our facilities for doing this kind of business. No charges to the lender.

To the public we extend free of charge our services in the way of supplying information of a general nature concerning our city and vicinity. We try to have at all times just what you want to know.

We open this week a free bureau for the accommodation of those who are seeking houses to rent and landlords who are seeking tenants. We are constantly besieged with applications for houses for rent. To this end we invite all owners of rentable houses in the city or vicinity to let us know when they want or will want a tenant. If they will do so we will refer inquirers to them, making no charge whatever, either to applicant or owner. Landlords by doing this need never have a house empty for more than a day.

In the above we have endeavored to give you the general nature of the business in which we engage. We ask but a continuance of the patronage of the past, and, as then, we will endeavor to render you honest, accurate and valuable service.

Owners of property who desire to sell the same will do well to place it on our sale list. Those intending to purchase property will do well to consult us before buying.

In all of our business we take care of the interests of both owner and purchaser. We are neither for the one or the other. Justice between both parties is what we seek.

Owners who want a quick sale and will offer a genuine bargain can be accommodated at all times by us. Purchasers, who want a bargain, can take advantage of these offers if they will let us know that they are in the market for such.

Those who have but little money, say from $50 to $100, can buy a home from us at any time, the balance being paid on installments at the rate of $1 monthly to the $100 of indebtedness, which pays both interest and principal, with privilege of paying faster. The large assortment of properties we have constantly on sale enables us to usually suit you.

DO YOU WISH FIRE INSURANCE? This is another branch of our business. We represent ten different companies, all of high standard. We insure dwellings, barns, mercantile buildings, factories, merchandise, household goods, etc. We write at regular rates. We think it unfair to give what is known as "cut rates." As a basis for dwelling rates, we would say that a frame, slate roof building which stands unexposed by other buildings for the space of 25 feet on all sides, will cost you 35 cents per $100 insurance for one year; 70 cents per $100 for three years; or, $1 per $100 for five years. This applies to household goods as well. Household goods are just as valuable, proportionately to you as the house is to its owner, and we often wonder why so many owners of household goods let themselves be exposed to loss, and often lose them when insurance rates are so reasonable.

BONDS, STOCKS AND INVESTMENTS we also handle. We can sell you local stocks, bonds and investments, and also corporation, bank and railroad stocks and bonds. Not much business in this line has developed here yet, but by your co-operation with us, either as a buyer or seller, will be all that is necessary to develop such.

HOUSE RENTING as a business is what East Liverpool has needed for some time. In our renting department, we have a large and every day is adding to its utility. If you have any property, let us see if it does not profit you.

All kinds of notarial work, such as wills, deeds, mortgages, etc. We also procure marriage licenses.

Loaning of money is another feature of our business. We negotiate loans for a reasonable charge, the rate of interest depending on the class of security and amount wanted. Those who have money to put out should avail themselves of our facilities for doing this kind of business. No charges to the lender.

To the public we extend free of charge our services in the way of supplying information of a general nature concerning our city and vicinity. We try to have at all times just what you want to know.

We open this week a free bureau for the accommodation of those who are seeking houses to rent and landlords who are seeking tenants. We are constantly besieged with applications for houses for rent. To this end we invite all owners of rentable houses in the city or vicinity to let us know when they want or will want a tenant. If they will do so we will refer inquirers to them, making no charge whatever, either to applicant or owner. Landlords by doing this need never have a house empty for more than a day.

In the above we have endeavored to give you the general nature of the business in which we engage. We ask but a continuance of the patronage of the past, and, as then, we will endeavor to render you honest, accurate and valuable service.

REDUCED PLURALITY.

Amount May Be Cut Down In Pennsylvania.

DUE TO THE FACTIONAL STRIFE.

The Fight Between the Quay and Anti-Quay People For Control of the Next Legislature, Likely to Have an Effect the McKinley Vote.

Philadelphia, Nov. 6.—Very little interest was manifested relative to the vote of the state in the presidential contest, as a big Republican majority is conceded even by the Democratic leaders. Four years ago McKinley's plurality in the state was 295,072, of which plurality furnished 113,139. The highest previous plurality in the state for a presidential candidate was 135,548 for Grant in 1872. In 1892 Harrison's plurality was 63,747.

McKinley's plurality of four years ago will no doubt be considerably reduced through the return to their party of many Democrats who opposed Bryan in 1896, and, it is thought, also that McKinley's vote will be reduced to some extent on account of the fierce contests of the Quay and anti-Quay Republicans to obtain control of the next legislature. The anti-Quay men in some sections have endorsed the Democratic candidates, and it is believed this will in these regions have some effect against the head of the Republican ticket. There is, therefore, every indication of a considerable reduction in McKinley's figures of four years ago.

BRYAN'S CLOSING TOUR.

He Made a Number of Speeches In Omaha, and Also One at His Home City.

Lincoln, Neb., Nov. 6.—With the exception of seven speeches made at Omaha last night, Hon. William J. Bryan completed his presidential campaign tour of this state with a speech in this his home city at 6 o'clock last evening. He returned here at that time from a 12-hour tour of the interior of the state, and delivered a speech of about 30 minutes' duration to his townspeople.

Mr. Bryan seemed entirely satisfied with the audience that greeted him at the various points in his own state which he visited during the day. Many of the places at which he spoke are Republican in sentiment, but in all cases the crowds were large in proportion to population, and in most of them there was a high degree of friendly interest manifested.

Outside of Lincoln and Omaha, Hastings supplied the largest audience of the day.

MARYLAND.

Democrats Claim State by Over 5,000. Republicans by Over 11,000.

Baltimore, Nov. 6.—Before leaving for his home in Hartford county, whither he went to vote, Chairman Murray Vandiver, of the Democratic state central committee, said:

"I have no hesitancy in claiming that we will carry the state by from 5,000 to 10,000 majority and that both city and counties will contribute to that end. We will not only carry the state for Bryan, but will elect four congressmen sure, and it would not surprise me in the least if Major Little should defeat Pearre in the Sixth district."

Chairman Phillips Lee Goldsborough, of the Republican state committee, said that he looks for even a larger majority than 11,000 and insists that Maryland's congressional delegation will be entirely Republican.

WEST VIRGINIA.

Wheeling, W. Va., Nov. 6.—The Republicans continue to claim the state by over 15,000. The Republican state committee has failed to bring home all the voters who are temporarily out of the city, but the Democratic committee is not doing any better.

KENTUCKY.

Louisville, Nov. 6.—A campaign that really began before any nominations were made closed in Kentucky with both sides claiming the state in published reports by 20,000, though disinterested estimates do not put the majority either way above 6,000 or 8,000.

MINNESOTA.

McKinley Electors Assured, but Governorship Close.

St. Paul, Minn., Nov. 6.—The election of Minnesota McKinley electors seems assured, the Democratic committee only expressing a belief in the possibility of Bryan carrying the state without actually claiming it. The Republicans place the McKinley plurality at from 50,000 to 75,000.

The re-election of Governor John Lind over Captain S. R. Van Sant is claimed by the Democrats by more than 20,000, which is the figure given by the Republicans in their claim for Van Sant. The result for governor will undoubtedly be close. The Republicans will elect the balance of their state ticket, down to railroad commissioners, on which the Democrats have put up a stiff fight, making the result doubtful.

SOUTH DAKOTA.

Sion Falls, S. D., Nov. 6.—Conservative Republicans estimate the majority at between 6,000 and 8,000. This would carry congressional and state ticket and comfortable majority on joint ballot in next legislature. Fusionists say Bryan will carry the state by at least 2,000 and elect congressional and state nominees by majorities from 1,500 to 3,500; a majority of not less than 20 on joint ballot in the legislature.

NORTH CAROLINA.

Raleigh, N. C., Nov. 6.—The Democrats charge that in these two districts the Republicans, having abandoned all hope of carrying the state for McKinley, are offering to vote for Bryan if Democrats will support the Republican congressional nominees. It is thought, however, that such a proposition will have little effect in view of the fact that Bryan is sure to carry the state any way.

IDAHO.

Boise, Idaho, Nov. 6.—Both parties manifest great confidence. The most uncertain element in the situation appears to be Shoshone county, the scene of the riots in 1899. While the Republicans are assured they will carry the county, they have no poll of it. There are 5,000 voters in Shoshone county.

SHORTHAND WRITING.

Accuracy Is of Much More Importance Than Speed.

"Speed is by no means the most necessary thing in shorthand writing," explained an experienced stenographer, "but with some teachers it is made the great consideration, often at the expense of everything else. The big thing in shorthand is legibility, for there are many who can write fast enough, but who are unable to tell what it means after it has grown cold. I have been a stenographer, depending entirely on it for my living, for 25 years. During that time I have, of course, picked up some knowledge on the subject. I have been the stenographer for two cabinet officers, four assistant secretaries and three or four senators. Incidentally I have worked for a year as the private secretary of one of the big bank presidents in New York city.

"All of this experience has proven one thing very conclusively, and that is that there is no necessity for any stenographer who does amanuensis work to write over 120 words a minute and in 99 cases out of 100 no necessity to write over 100 words a minute. Indeed, I know of at least 25 stenographers who are drawing the largest kind of salaries as private secretaries who have assured me that they have never been required to average as much as 90 words. Under these circumstances it seems strange that some teachers of stenography will excite pupils to write 150 to 200 words per minute and endeavor to make them believe that such a railroad speed is a necessity. Such a practice does actual injury, for it discourages many from even learning a moderate speed.

"There have been instances where it may have been necessary for stenographers to be able to write over 200 and more words a minute, and there is a legend hanging about the senate chamber that General Hawley, for 10 or 12 minutes in a speech, once spoke 225 words a minute. The average speed of senators in speeches does not reach 110 words and in dictating letters rarely reaches 100 words."—Washington Star.

SOME SURE THINGS.

Bets to Be Avoided by Those Who Never Tried the Fents.

Bets to be avoided by those who are cocksure they can do all things are those relating to athletic feats. It would seem that a good runner could easily give a start of 50 yards in 100 to a man who was doing the 50 yards by hopping on one leg. But few runners, if any, can afford to give that amount of start to any man who is at all strong on his legs. For the first five yards or so they go at practically the same pace, so that to run 95 yards while his opponent is hopping 45 he has to go more than twice as fast, and it is a weak man indeed who cannot hop 50 yards in ten seconds.

An ordinary wooden match is easily broken in the fingers, but, although there are many who will bet they can do it, none succeed in accomplishing the task if the match is laid across the nail of the middle finger of either hand and pressed upon by the first and third fingers of that hand, despite its seeming so easy at first sight.

No one can crush an egg placed lengthwise between his clasped hands—that is, if the egg be sound and has the ordinary shell of a hen's egg.

It is safe to bet a man that he cannot get out of a chair without bending his body forward or putting his feet under it, if he is sitting on it, not at the edge of it.

Another equally certain wager is that a man cannot stand at the side of a room with both of his feet touching the wainscoting lengthwise.

It is safe to bet any man, save one who is blind, that he cannot stand for five minutes without moving if he is blindfolded.

The Original Seven Wonders.

None of the original seven wonders of the world remains, except the great pyramid of Egypt. The tomb of Mausolus, king of Caria, built about 350 B. C., was destroyed before 1400 A. D. The third wonder, the temple of Diana at Ephesus, was built 552 B. C. and was destroyed 356 B. C. The fourth wonder, the walls and terraces of Babylon, were erected about 570 B. C. They decayed gradually after Babylon had ceased to be the capital of the Assyrian empire. The Colossus of Rhodes, erected in 288 B. C., stood 64 years, was destroyed by an earthquake and lay in ruins for nearly 900 years, until a Jew bought it and took it on 900 camels to Alexandria. The statue of Zeus at Olympus was made 437-433 B. C., was removed to Constantinople and was destroyed by fire 475 A. D. The Pharos at Alexandria was built about 283 B. C. and was destroyed by an earthquake about 1300-1400 A. D.

The Correct Stroke in Swimming.

The correct stroke of the legs is exactly like that of a frog's hind legs. Watch one of these frogs and copy his style. You cannot do better. The legs are drawn up together slowly, not with a jerk, until they are gathered in close under the body. Then with a sudden, quick spring they are shot out behind, the ankles being turned so that the soles of the feet present as flat a surface as possible to the water and so offer more resistance from which to make progress. As the kick is made the legs should be spread out in the shape of a letter V, but not allowed to sink far down under the surface of the water. If they kick downward at an angle instead of out straight behind much of their energy is wasted in unnecessarily forcing the body out of the water instead of forward through it.—Harper's Bazar.

Pigs and Savings Banks.

It is rather a surprising fact, considering how enormously they have grown, that at the beginning of the nineteenth century there was not a savings bank in the world. The Rev. Henry Duncan, rector of a very poor English parish, noticed that when the people wished to lay by a little money they would buy a pig or a cow with it, having no other way to find investment for small sums. He founded the first real savings bank in 1810. Two or three which had existed before that time were practically charitable foundations.

THE ELECTIONS.

Citizens Are Voting Throughout the Country Today.

CONFIDENCE IS EXPRESSED.

A HEAVY VOTE IS EXPECTED.

Indications That It Will Be Larger Than Usual In Some of the States—Leaders of Both the Democratic and Republican Parties Claim to Be Sure of Success. Bryan Will Receive Returns at Lincoln, President McKinley at Canton and Governor Roosevelt at Oyster Bay, L. I.—A Statement From Republican Headquarters Says That After a Close Poll They Feel Certain of Success—Democratic Chairman Jones Issued a Statement Saying He Was Confident of Victory—Claims as to Some States.

New York, Nov. 6.—The national elections are being held throughout the country today.

Indications are that in some states the vote will be heavier than usual.

The leaders of both the Democratic and Republican parties have expressed confidence in the success of their respective candidates.

Mr. Bryan is at his home in Lincoln, Neb., where he will receive the returns.

President McKinley will receive the returns at Canton, O.

Governor Roosevelt is at Oyster Bay, where he will hear the returns.

CONFIDENT OF BIG VICTORY.

A Statement From Republican Headquarters Declared a Close Poll.

On the eve of the election:

"There are few surface indications at this time dissimilar to those of four years ago, when McKinley swept the country by the greatest majority probably ever given to a presidential candidate. The work of the Republicans during the past four weeks has been marvelously effective. It has been marked everywhere by completeness in detail of machinery, harmonious action and desired results. In the history of the party no better organization has ever existed. McKinley and Roosevelt will carry every state which voted for McKinley and Hobart four years ago, and certainly seven or eight others that voted for Bryan in 1896. The alleged hopes of Croker and Bryan as to carrying Indiana and New York are simply following out the program of claiming everything in sight, for the purpose of encouraging their followers in close states to make the most desperate efforts for success. The claims of the Republicans are based upon the result of actual work reported by men in the field, brought up through precinct, ward, township, city, county and state organizations, and upon actual facts as shown by the closest poll ever made by any political organization."

FEELS SURE OF SUCCESS.

National Democratic Chairman Jones Issued a Statement In Which He Expressed Confidence.

Chicago, Nov. 6.—Chairman James K. Jones, of the Democratic national committee, on the eve of the election, said:

"I have no doubt that the result of the ballot tomorrow will be the triumphant election of Bryan and Stevenson. The Democratic party has appealed in this campaign to the reason and conscience of the people, while the Republicans have appealed to passion and prejudice. In the great forum of public opinion I have no doubt the Democratic party has won the greatest of its national political struggles. Four years ago the Democratic party was deficient in organization, whereas now it is more perfectly organized and more efficient than it has been in any campaign. The national committee has been in touch with every part of the country and familiar with all the details of the work. While the campaign fund has not been enriched by the contributions of great trusts it has received the patriotic mites of the working classes in sufficient quantities to defray the expenses of the campaign, which was even more satisfactory than if it had been otherwise. "The country is now aroused as it has never been before since the great civil war, and the result can be nothing less than the triumphant election of the national Democratic ticket."

CHIEF DEVERY INDICTED.

He Was Accused of Intending Interference With New York State Election Deputies.

New York, Nov. 6.—The local grand jury indicted Chief of Police William S. Devery on the charge of interfering with the work of State Superintendent of Elections John McCullagh. Chief Devery's bail was fixed and arrangements have been made for hearing the case tomorrow. The indictment has attracted a great deal of attention in political circles. The points involved appear to hinge upon the rights of men to swear in their votes when challenged by any of the deputies of the state superintendent of elections.

The indictment against Chief Devery charges felony. It charges in part: "That he (Devery) did attempt willfully, knowingly and with felonious intent to hinder said John McCullagh in the performance of his duty as superintendent of elections."

Chief Devery, after giving bail, made the following statement:

"When I was sworn in as chief of police of New York city I swore that I would do my duty and protect the people of this city. I propose to do my duty toward the whole of the people. I do not propose to be bulldozed. I am going to see that the people's rights are protected and that every one entitled to vote will be allowed to vote. I am going to see that the policemen in my charge are not bulldozed even by John McCullagh."

Mr. McCullagh refused to talk concerning the indictment. He said, however, that he was a witness before the grand jury.

DEVERY REVOKED ORDER.

A Letter Sent by Roosevelt to Van Wyck, Was Followed by Instructions From Mayor to the Chief.

New York, Nov. 6.—Governor Roosevelt's message to the mayor was delivered to Mr. Van Wyck at the Democratic headquarters. The mayor at once took a drive to police headquarters and called upon Chief Devery. The mayor and the chief of police were closeted together for an hour. At the conclusion of the conference Chief Devery announced that in accordance with the mayor's orders the order issued on Sunday to captains regarding the McCullagh deputies and voters would be rescinded. The order of the mayor read as follows:

"You will at once revoke the order issued from your office on the 4th inst. relative to the duties of the police force on election day, and you will issue immediately such further orders as will require your subordinates to co-operate and assist in the execution and enforcement of the metropolitan election district law and amendments thereto."

Later Mayor Van Wyck made the following statement:

"There will be no intimidation or violence at the election tomorrow. It will pass off as quietly as that of any village. The chief of police will take charge of that and will preserve order. I have the utmost confidence in the chief. He knows his duties and is a perfectly efficient chief and understands how to maintain peace and order."

Chief Devery said that there would be no trouble at the polls today and that he would enforce the orders of the mayor to the letter.

Oyster Bay, L. I., Nov. 6.—Governor Roosevelt sent the following communication to the Hon. Robert A. Van Wyck, mayor, New York city:

"Sir—My attention has been called to the official order issued by Chief of Police Devery, in which he directs his subordinates to disregard the chief of the state election bureau, John McCullagh, and his deputies."

"Unless you have already taken steps to secure the recall of this order, it is necessary for me to point out that I shall be obliged to hold you responsible, as the head of the city government, for the action of the chief of police, if it should result in any breach of the peace and intimidation or any crime whatever against the election laws. The state and city authorities should work together."

"I will not fail to call to summary account either state or city authorities, in the event of either being guilty of intimidation or connivance at fraud or failure to protect every legal voter in his rights."

"I, therefore, notify you that in the event of any wrong doing following upon the failure immediately to recall Chief Devery's order or upon any action or inaction on the part of Chief Devery, I must necessarily call you to account."

Yours, etc.,
"Theodore Roosevelt."
Oyster Bay, L. I., Nov. 5, 1900.

BRYAN'S HOME STATE.

Both Sides Strongly Claim That They Will Win.

Omaha, Nov. 6.—The Republican state committee is still claiming the state by 5,000 plurality for McKinley, but this is placed against the positive assertion by Chairman Hall, of the Democratic committee, that Mr. Bryan will receive a plurality of at least 12,000.

Republicans generally are saying that Charles H. Dietrich, Republican, will be elected over Governor Poynter, and Chairman Lindsay declares that the legislature is safe for Republicans. On the other hand, Chairman Hall says that the whole state ticket will not run behind Bryan, and that the legislature will positively be fusion.

ON MCKINLEY'S LAWN.

A Number of the President's Neighbors Called and He Made a Brief Talk, Introducing Judge Day.

Canton, O., Nov. 6.—President McKinley's townsmen called on him last night to the number of 1,800 to 3,000, gathering in the McKinley lawn.

The affair was purely informal and arranged on the spur of the moment. Headed by the Grand Army band, of Canton, the crowd marched from the public square to the McKinley home. Much red fire was burned along the route and most vociferous cheering was indulged in upon the arrival of the crowd at its objective point. The band serenaded the household, which included many visitors calling upon the President and Mrs. McKinley.

President McKinley made a brief speech and introduced Judge Hay, who talked.

CONNECTICUT.

New Haven, Conn., Nov. 6.—Observers who are not intensely partisan predict a safe McKinley margin and a probable Republican victory on the state ticket. On the latter point, however, they are careful not to express in figures their opinions.

Call Loan Rate Run Up, but Later Went Back, and Speculation Became Active.

New York, Nov. 6.—Loans made Monday carry over until Wednesday, and when speculators began to look about to find new accommodations with which to carry their holdings of stock over election day, they ran the call loan rate up rapidly to 25 per cent. The first loans were made at 10 per cent. One broker placed $1,000,000 at that rate, another million at 15 per cent and then demanded 25 per cent for a million more. This suddenly checked the animation of the stock market and was followed by a period of contemplation. A conspicuous feature of the market at this time was the large number of transactions for cash, and the small concessions from the ruling prices at which these were quoted. The conditions in the money market was of course responsible for this. When the rates for money fell away to 10 per cent again the speculators very promptly availed themselves of the resources offered and ruled prices up to the top level. The strength of the market was very general and on the whole quite uniform. The steel stocks, the prominent industrials and the Southern and Southwestern railroads, especially the Atchison and Union Pacific, were the leaders in point of strength, with gains ranging from 2 to 2½ per cent.

Standard Oil sold in the outside market at 62½, compared with the previous record of 61½ on Saturday.

Quite a large business was done in bonds and prices were well maintained.

United States new 4s advanced ½ and the old 4s declined ¼ per cent on the last call.

Total sales bonds, par value, $1,315,200.

"God forbid," exclaimed Richard Olney, when John G. Carlisle said to him, "if all of us come out for Bryan he may be elected."

GUESSING ON GAINS.

CHAIRMAN DICK'S CLAIM IS 80,000.

He Also Says the Republicans Will Have 17 of the 21 Congressmen—Chairman Long Declares Bryan Will Carry the State—McLean Working Hard.

Cincinnati, O., Nov. 6.—There was speculation on the question of Democratic gains in the cities and Republican gains in the rural districts of Ohio. John R. McLean is here, trying to reduce the Republican plurality in Hamilton county one-half. This county gave McKinley almost 20,000 plurality four years ago. Republican State Chairman Dick says the poll shows over 80,000 for McKinley in Ohio, and 17 of the 21 congressmen. Democratic State Chairman Long claims Bryan will carry Ohio, "unless prevented by coercion and purchase."

Both sides were issuing notices and warnings about the use of pencils and all sorts of frauds. There was much excitement in some cities, and especially in the towns of close congressional districts. It was thought there would be no congressional contests here, but much fighting developed between Brownwell, Republican, and Kettler, Democrat, in the Second district.

GREATER NEW YORK VOTE.

Each Party Guessing as to the Result. Vote Up the State Speculated Upon by Party Leaders.

New York, Nov. 6.—Confidence was expressed that a full vote will be polled and Republicans and Democrats alike agreed that more than 600,000 citizens in Greater New York would deposit their ballots for the men of their choice.

Indications are that the vote in the city will be at least 65,000 larger than ever before in the history of Greater New York.

Generally speaking, Republicans concede that Bryan will carry Greater New York.

Democratic national headquarters were practically deserted Monday, only Secretary Mason, of the executive committee, being in charge. Chairman Frank Campbell, of the state committee, was at his home and will not return until tomorrow. Secretary Mason declined to make any statement other than to repeat what the chairman had said, that Bryan's election was assured.

At Republican national headquarters last night Joseph H. Manley, Senator Scott, of West Virginia, and Frederick S. Gibbs, of New York, gave out the following statements, respectively:

Mr. Manley said: "The national committeemen in this city, after the receipt of telegrams to-day from Chairman Hanna and various state committeemen, have nothing to add to the statement made public this morning except to emphasize it. I do not share with some the opinion that Indiana is entirely safe for us. But we have no doubt of Illinois. We shall certainly carry New York state by not less than 75,000 majority and I look for something over 100,000 majority."

"I anticipate no trouble in this city tomorrow. I believe Superintendent of Police Devery means to give us a fair election, as he gave us a fair parade, and as he gave us protection in our meetings in this city. I do not expect that we shall have any definite statement as to the result before 9:30 o'clock Tuesday night."

Senator Scott, of West Virginia, repeated his former sanguine statements.

National Committeeman Gibbs said: "The election will be fair. I anticipate no trouble. The worst has been done, and it is my opinion that McKinley will have not less than 250 votes in the electoral college. That I consider a conservative estimate."

Richard Croker claims that Bryan will carry Greater New York by between 80,000 and 90,000.

As a general thing, Republican leaders will not admit that the borough of Manhattan will be carried by Bryan by more than 30,000 plurality. Both sides claim the borough of Brooklyn, the Republicans by 12,000, the Democrats by 8,000. The population in the boroughs of the Bronx, Queens and Richmond is relatively small. Democrats and Republicans claim all three boroughs, but the Democrats usually carry Queens and Richmond. As for the Bronx, the increase in population owing to the up-town movement has been so great that all estimates are worthless, the population in some districts having doubled. It will probably not give a decisive majority either way.

Democrats are inclined to concede the state outside Greater New York to McKinley by 70,000.

This is 100,000 less than the Republican allow McKinley in the same territory. Chairman and candidate for governor, Dick, is at his home in Newburgh. He will receive nothing at his home and will not return here until Wednesday. Before leaving he said he had nothing to add to his statement that McKinley would carry New York state by 100,000. Greater New York included.

Only comparative small bets were being made, the odds ranging anywhere from 1 to 5 to 1 in favor of McKinley. The odds changed later to 3½ to 1.

NEW JERSEY.

Santa Fe, N. M., Nov. 6.—The Republicans are confident of carrying New Mexico by a 2,000 majority for R. S. Rader, their candidate for congress. The Democrats claim 400 majority for their candidate, O. A. Larrazolo.

FLORIDA.

Jacksonville, Fla., Nov. 6.—The majority for Bryan and the Democratic house candidates will be between 20,000 and 25,000.

The oldest house in England stands near St. Albans' abbey. It is octagonal in shape and the walls of its lower story are of great thickness. It is 1,100 years old and is still fit for habitation.

STEPHEN A. NORTHWAY.

Stephen A. Northway of Jefferson, Ashtabula county, was born in Christian Hollow, Onondaga county, New York, June 19, 1833, and removed with his parents to Orwell township, Ashtabula county, Ohio, in 1840. Here he engaged in farm labor. He was educated in Kingsville academy and Orwell academy. He taught school to secure the necessary means to prosecute his studies.

He was admitted to the bar in 1859, and elected prosecuting attorney of Ashtabula county in 1861, and re-elected in 1863, becoming prominent in his profession. He was elected to the lower house of the general assembly in 1865, and served two years, resuming the practice of his profession.

In 1892 he was elected to the Fifty-third congress, as a Republican, from the Nineteenth district, composed of Ashtabula, Geauga, Portage and Trumbull counties; was re-elected to the Fifty-fourth in 1894, and to the Fifty-fifth in 1896, from the same district. He died during his third term in 1898, and was succeeded by Charles Dick. His record in congress was highly commendable.

ROBERT W. TAYLER.

Robert W. Tayler of Lisbon, Columbiana county, was born in Youngstown, Ohio, Nov. 26, 1852. He was graduated from the Western Reserve college, Hudson, Ohio, in 1872. For several years he was identified with the educational interests in eastern Ohio. He was superintendent of the Lisbon High school in 1873 and 1874. In 1875 and 1876 he was editor of the Buckeye State, a newspaper at Lisbon, and conducted it with great spirit and more than usual ability. He was admitted to the bar in 1877, and elected prosecuting attorney of Columbiana county in 1880, and continued to hold the office by re-election until 1888. He is still in the practice of his profession, notwithstanding his congressional services.

In 1894 he was elected to the Fifty-fourth congress, as a Republican, from the Eighteenth district, composed of Columbiana, Mahoning and Stark counties; re-elected from the same district in 1896, and again in 1898, his present term extending to March 4, 1901. In the Fifty-sixth congress he attracted national attention as chairman of the house committee which refused B. H. Roberts of Utah a seat on account of polygamy. He has been an active and industrious legislator since his entrance into congress.

CHARLES P. TAFT.

Charles P. Taft of Cincinnati, a son of Attorney General Alphonso Taft, was born in Cincinnati, Ohio, December 21, 1843. He went through the public schools of that city; was graduated from Andover academy, Massachusetts in 1860; from Yale college in 1864, and from Columbia Law college in 1866. In the latter year he went to Germany and took a degree in the University of Heidelberg.

In 1871 he was elected a representative to the general assembly of Ohio, as a Republican, and as chairman of the committee of common schools brought about the codification of the school laws.

In 1879 he became editor and part proprietor of the Cincinnati Times-Star, a Republican newspaper, and still continues to hold that position, in connection with the practice of his profession. He was elected to the Fifty-fourth congress in 1894, from the First district, a part of Hamilton county, and served but one term.

He attended Hope-well district school and the grammar and high schools of Toledo, and studied at Adrian, Michigan, and Oberlin, Ohio, preparatory to entering Cornell university, from which he graduated in 1875.

In 1877 he was admitted to the bar, and in 1882 was appointed assistant prosecuting attorney of Lucas county, and was afterward twice elected prosecuting attorney of the county, discharging the duties of the office with marked ability.

He was elected to the Fifty-fourth congress in 1894, as a Republican, from the Ninth district, consisting of the counties of Lucas, Fulton, Wood and Ottawa, and was re-elected to the Fifty-fifth in 1896, and to the Fifty-sixth in 1898. He is still in the active practice of his profession at Toledo.

FRANCIS B. DEWITT.

Francis B. DeWitt of Paulding was born in Jackson county, Indiana, March 11, 1849, and came to Delaware county, Ohio, with his parents in 1854, where he was reared on a farm. In 1861, when 12 years of age, he enlisted in the military service and participated in the Corinth campaign, and in the battle of Shiloh. Because of injuries and disabilities he was mustered out of the service in 1862, but within five weeks re-enlisted in the One Hundred and Twenty-first Ohio volunteer infantry, in which he served until the end of the war. He was a prisoner of war at Salisbury, Danville and Libby.

He attended the common schools, the Galena High school, the Lebanon normal school and the Ohio Wesleyan university at Delaware. He taught school for three or four years, while pursuing the study of law, was admitted to the practice in 1875, and located at Paulding, where he followed his profession until 1891, when he engaged in agricultural pursuits, and now resides on his farm near Paulding.

He was elected as a representative from Paulding county, as a Republican, in 1891, and re-elected in 1893, resigning the position to enter congress. In 1894 he was elected to the Fifty-fourth congress from the Fifth district, Paulding, Defiance, Henry, Putnam, Van Wert and Williams counties. During last week 18,232 tons of coal were shipped abroad from Newport News, Va., breaking the record for any previous week in the history of the port.

The Dutch women of Northern Cape Colony will hold a convention at Paarl on Nov. 10 to protest against the burning of farms, and the eviction of families by the British.

Rather than return to the Gilbert home for children at Winsted, Conn., from which he had escaped, Orsman Reed, a 12-year-old colored boy, committed suicide by drowning himself.

Peter Regan, aged 23 years, single and residing at No. 224 Henderson street, Allegheny, was killed by a United Traction car at Federal street and Montgomery avenue, Allegheny City, Pa.

The Marriage Problem

"How to be happy though married," has been entirely solved to the satisfaction of hundreds of thousands of women. There can be no happiness without health. The general health of woman is dependent on the local health of the delicate womanly organs. When there are debilitating drains, or inflammation, ulceration or female weakness, happiness in marriage is practically impossible. A host of happy wives testify that the secret of happiness in marriage is found in the use of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. It dries the drains, heals ulceration and inflammation and cures female weakness. It makes weak women strong, sick women well.

Mrs. Anna Willy, (Michigan House), Northville, Spink Co., S. Dak., writes: "I am enjoying good health, thanks to your kind advice and valuable remedies. I suffered very much with female weakness and other ailments for more than two years, when I wrote to you for advice. After carefully following your advice and taking six bottles each of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription and 'Golden Medical Discovery' I am now a well and happy woman."

Women are invited to consult Dr. Pierce by letter, free. Correspondence private. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

The foundry and machine shop of the new plant of the Kftanning Plate Glass company will be ready to start next week and the main plant will soon be completed. The works will cost over $250,000.

A Baltimore and Ohio surveying party is now at work locating the route for a railroad to reach the immense coal purchases in Stony Creek, Quemahoning and Jenner townships, near Berlin, Pa.

The Rev. George J. Diener, to the surprise of his congregation, Sunday, tendered his resignation as pastor of Harrison City and Bouquet Lutheran churches, near Greensburg, Pa.

At Cumberland, Md., friends of Brice Welker, a young Baltimore and Ohio brakeman, whose body was found on the tracks near Thomas station recently, think he was murdered and robbed.

House of W. D. Reznor, in Delaware township, near Sharon, Pa., destroyed by fire, together with contents. Occupied by Alonzo Long and family, but they were absent. Loss about $3,000, partly insured.

Harry Southwell, while returning to his home at Nineveh, near Greensburg, Pa., from attending a Republican meeting, was thrown from his horse and had his skull fractured. His recovery is doubtful.

Lord Roberts telegraphs from Johannesburg, Nov. 3, that in operations in the Belfast district, Nov. 2, Captain Chalmers, of the Canadian mounted rifles, was killed and Major Sanders, of the same command, wounded.

The Second United Presbyterian congregation of Washington, Pa., elected the Rev. Presley Thompson, of Colorado Springs, Col., as pastor. Mr. Thompson was a candidate for the pastorate eight years ago.

Corkscrew Seed.

There are some seeds which "literally" corkscrew themselves into the ground. The most remarkable instance is perhaps that of the Spina pennata, a beautiful south European grass. The actual seed is small, with a sharp point and stiff short hairs pointing backward. The top end of the seed is produced into a fine, twisted, corkscrewlike rowl, which is followed by a plain cylindrical portion, ending in a long, delicate feather, the whole being more than a foot in length. Owing to this feather the seed falls to the earth point downward and sticks in the ground.

But even if the seed should settle on its side, damp, by acting on the hairs attached to it, causes it to rise up till its point is downward. If a shower comes on or dew falls, the spiral winds, elongating itself upward. Being covered, like the seed, with backward pointing hairs, it usually presses against some blade of grass or other obstacle, with the result that the seed is pressed into the ground.

On the spiral becoming dry again, it curls up, and the seed is not drawn out of the ground owing to its backward pointing hairs, but the spiral and the feather are easily drawn down. On the return of damp the spiral again unwinds and, acting as before, drives the seed still farther down until at last it is quite buried.

OHIO IN CONGRESS FROM 1803 TO 1901.

STEPHEN A. NORTHWAY.

Stephen A. Northway of Jefferson, Ashtabula county, was born in Christian Hollow, Onondaga county, New York, June 19, 1833, and removed with his parents to Orwell township, Ashtabula county, Ohio, in 1840. Here he engaged in farm labor. He was educated in Kingsville academy and Orwell academy. He taught school to secure the necessary means to prosecute his studies.

He was admitted to the bar in 1859, and elected prosecuting attorney of Ashtabula county in 1861, and re-elected in 1863, becoming prominent in his profession. He was elected to the lower house of the general assembly in 1865, and served two years, resuming the practice of his profession.

In 1892 he was elected to the Fifty-third congress, as a Republican, from the Nineteenth district, composed of Ashtabula, Geauga, Portage and Trumbull counties; was re-elected to the Fifty-fourth in 1894, and to the Fifty-fifth in 1896, from the same district. He died during his third term in 1898, and was succeeded by Charles Dick. His record in congress was highly commendable.

ROBERT W. TAYLER.

Robert W. Tayler of Lisbon, Columbiana county, was born in Youngstown, Ohio, Nov. 26, 1852. He was graduated from the Western Reserve college, Hudson, Ohio, in 1872. For several years he was identified with the educational interests in eastern Ohio. He was superintendent of the Lisbon High school in 1873 and 1874. In 1875 and 1876 he was editor of the Buckeye State, a newspaper at Lisbon, and conducted it with great spirit and more than usual ability. He was admitted to the bar in 1877, and elected prosecuting attorney of Columbiana county in 1880, and continued to hold the office by re-election until 1888. He is still in the practice of his profession, notwithstanding his congressional services.

refused B. H. Roberts of Utah a seat on account of polygamy. He has been an active and industrious legislator since his entrance into congress.

CHARLES P. TAFT.

Charles P. Taft of Cincinnati, a son of Attorney General Alphonso Taft, was born in Cincinnati, Ohio, December 21, 1843. He went through the public schools of that city; was graduated from Andover academy, Massachusetts in 1860; from Yale college in 1864, and from Columbia Law college in 1866. In the latter year he went to Germany and took a degree in the University of Heidelberg.

In 1871 he was elected a representative to the general assembly of Ohio, as a Republican, and as chairman of the committee of common schools brought about the codification of the school laws.

In 1879 he became editor and part proprietor of the Cincinnati Times-Star, a Republican newspaper, and still continues to hold that position, in connection with the practice of his profession. He was elected to the Fifty-fourth congress in 1894, from the First district, a part of Hamilton county, and served but one term.

JAMES H. SOUTHARD.

James Harding Southard of Toledo was born on a farm in Washington township, Lucas county, Ohio, January 20, 1851. He attended Hope-well district school and the grammar and high schools of Toledo, and studied at Adrian, Michigan, and Oberlin, Ohio, preparatory to entering Cornell university, from which he graduated in 1875.

In 1877 he was admitted to the bar, and in 1882 was appointed assistant prosecuting attorney of Lucas county, and was afterward twice elected prosecuting attorney of the county, discharging the duties of the office with marked ability.

He was elected to the Fifty-fourth congress in 1894, as a Republican, from the Ninth district, consisting of the counties of Lucas, Fulton, Wood and Ottawa, and was re-elected to the Fifty-fifth in 1896, and to the Fifty-sixth in 1898. He is still in the active practice of his profession at Toledo.

FRANCIS B. DEWITT.

Francis B. DeWitt of Paulding was born in Jackson county, Indiana, March 11, 1849, and came to Delaware county, Ohio, with his parents in 1854, where he was reared on a farm. In 1861, when 12 years of age, he enlisted in the military service and participated in the Corinth campaign, and in the battle of Shiloh. Because of injuries and disabilities he was mustered out of the service in 1862, but within five weeks re-enlisted in the One Hundred and Twenty-first Ohio volunteer infantry, in which he served until the end of the war. He was a prisoner of war at Salisbury, Danville and Libby.

He attended the common schools, the Galena High school, the Lebanon normal school and the Ohio Wesleyan university at Delaware. He taught school for three or four years, while pursuing the study of law, was admitted to the practice in 1875, and located at Paulding, where he followed his profession until 1891, when he engaged in agricultural pursuits, and now resides on his farm near Paulding.

He was elected as a representative from Paulding county, as a Republican, in 1891, and re-elected in 1893, resigning the position to enter congress. In 1894 he was elected to the Fifty-fourth congress from the Fifth district, Paulding, Defiance, Henry, Putnam, Van Wert and Williams counties. He carried a largely Democratic district in 1894, and was defeated at re-election in 1896.

It is said the sheriff will recommission the deputies and it is feared the rival peace officers will clash in some of the downtown districts. There are no other developments in the situation.

INDIANA.

Indianapolis, Ind., Nov. 6.—Before leaving for his home Chairman Martin, of the Democratic state committee, made the following statement: "I see no reason for changing my predictions as heretofore made. I believe Indiana will go Democratic by a safe majority." Before going away Mr. Henley, chairman of the Republican state committee, said: "It is a landslide. We will elect 11 congressmen sure, and will carry the state by 40,000, and will elect the entire state and national tickets, and carry both branches of the legislature."

REDUCED PLURALITY.

Amount May Be Cut Down In Pennsylvania.

DUE TO THE FACTIONAL STRIFE.

The Fight Between the Quay and Anti-Quay People For Control of the Next Legislature, Likely to Have an Effect the McKinley Vote.

Philadelphia, Nov. 6.—Very little interest was manifested relative to the vote of the state in the presidential contest, as a big Republican majority is conceded even by the Democratic leaders. Four years ago McKinley's plurality in the state was 295,072, of which plurality furnished 113,139. The highest previous plurality in the state for a presidential candidate was 135,548 for Grant in 1872. In 1892 Harrison's plurality was 63,747.

McKinley's plurality of four years ago will no doubt be considerably reduced through the return to their party of many Democrats who opposed Bryan in 1896, and, it is thought, also that McKinley's vote will be reduced to some extent on account of the fierce contests of the Quay and anti-Quay Republicans to obtain control of the next legislature. The anti-Quay men in some sections have endorsed the Democratic candidates, and it is believed this will in these regions have some effect against the head of the Republican ticket. There is, therefore, every indication of a considerable reduction in McKinley's figures of four years ago.

BRYAN'S CLOSING TOUR.

He Made a Number of Speeches in Omaha, and Also One at His Home City.

Lincoln, Neb., Nov. 6.—With the exception of seven speeches made at Omaha last night, Hon. William J. Bryan completed his presidential campaign tour of this state with a speech in this his home city at 6 o'clock last evening. He returned here at that time from a 12-hour tour of the interior of the state, and delivered a speech of about 30 minutes' duration to his townspeople.

Mr. Bryan seemed entirely satisfied with the audience that greeted him at the various points in his own state which he visited during the day. Many of the places at which he spoke are Republican in sentiment, but in all cases the crowds were large in proportion to population, and in most of them there was a high degree of friendly interest manifested.

Outside of Lincoln and Omaha, Hastings supplied the largest audience of the day.

MARYLAND.

Democrats Claim State by Over 5,000. Republicans by Over 11,000.

Baltimore, Nov. 6.—Before leaving for his home in Hartford county, whither he went to vote, Chairman Murray Vandiver, of the Democratic state central committee, said:

"I have no hesitancy in claiming that we will carry the state by from 5,000 to 10,000 majority and that both city and counties will contribute to that end. We will not only carry the state for Bryan, but will elect four congressmen sure, and it would not surprise me in the least if Major Little should defeat Pearre in the Sixth district."

Chairman Phillips Lee Goldsborough, of the Republican state committee, said that he looks for even a larger majority than 11,000 and insists that Maryland's congressional delegation will be entirely Republican.

WEST VIRGINIA.

Wheeling, W. Va., Nov. 6.—The Republicans continue to claim the state by over 15,000. The Republican state committee has failed to bring home all the voters who are temporarily out of the city, but the Democratic committee is not doing any better.

KENTUCKY.

Louisville, Nov. 6.—A campaign that really began before any nominations were made closed in Kentucky with both sides claiming the state in published reports by 20,000, though disinterested estimates do not put the majority either way above 6,000 or 8,000.

MINNESOTA.

McKinley Electors Assured, but Governorship Close.

St. Paul, Minn., Nov. 6.—The election of Minnesota McKinley electors

seems assured, the Democratic committee only expressing a belief in the possibility of Bryan carrying the state without actually claiming it. The Republicans place the McKinley plurality at from 50,000 to 75,000.

The re-election of Governor John Lind over Captain S. R. Van Sant is claimed by the Democrats by more than 20,000, which is the figure given by the Republicans in their claim for Van Sant. The result for governor will undoubtedly be close. The Republicans will elect the balance of their state ticket, down to railroad commissioners, on which the Democrats have put up a stiff fight, making the result doubtful.

SOUTH DAKOTA.

Sioux Falls, S. D., Nov. 6.—Conservative Republicans estimate the majority at between 6,000 and 8,000. This would carry congressional and state ticket and comfortable majority on joint ballot in next legislature. Fusionists say Bryan will carry the state by at least 2,000 and elect congressional and state nominees by majorities from 1,500 to 3,500; a majority of not less than 20 on joint ballot in the legislature.

NORTH CAROLINA.

Raleigh, N. C., Nov. 6.—The Democrats charge that in these two districts the Republicans, having abandoned all hope of carrying the state for McKinley, are offering to vote for Bryan if Democrats will support the Republican congressional nominees. It is thought, however, that such a proposition will have little effect in view of the fact that Bryan is sure to carry the state any way.

IDAHO.

Boise, Idaho, Nov. 6.—Both parties manifest great confidence. The most uncertain element in the situation appears to be Shoshone county, the scene of the riots in 1899. While the Republicans are assured they will carry the county, they have no poll of it. There are 5,000 voters in Shoshone county.

SHORTHAND WRITING.

Accuracy Is of Much More Importance Than Speed.

"Speed is by no means the most necessary thing in shorthand writing," explained an experienced stenographer, "but with some teachers it is made the great consideration, often at the expense of everything else. The big thing in shorthand is legibility, for there are many who can write fast enough, but who are unable to tell what it means after it has grown cold. I have been a stenographer, depending entirely on it for my living, for 25 years. During that time I have, of course, picked up some knowledge on the subject. I have been the stenographer for two cabinet officers, four assistant secretaries and three or four senators. Incidentally I have worked for a year as the private secretary of one of the big bank presidents in New York city.

"All of this experience has proven one thing very conclusively, and that is that there is no necessity for any stenographer who does amanuensis work to write over 120 words a minute and in 99 cases out of 100 no necessity to write over 100 words a minute. Indeed, I know of at least 25 stenographers who are drawing the largest kind of salaries as private secretaries who have assured me that they have never been required to average as much as 90 words. Under these circumstances it seems strange that some teachers of stenography will excite pupils to write 150 to 200 words per minute and endeavor to make them believe that such a railroad speed is a necessity. Such a practice does actual injury, for it discourages many from even learning a moderate speed.

"There have been instances where it may have been necessary for stenographers to be able to write over 200 and more words a minute, and there is a legend hanging about the senate chamber that General Hawley, for 10 or 12 minutes in a speech, once spoke 225 words a minute. The average speed of senators in speeches does not reach 110 words and in dictating letters rarely reaches 100 words."—Washington Star.

SOME SURE THINGS.

Bets to Be Avoided by Those Who Never Tried the Fenta.

Bets to be avoided by those who are cocksure they can do all things are those relating to athletic feats. It would seem that a good runner could easily give a start of 50 yards in 100 to a man who was doing the 50 yards by hopping on one leg. But few runners, if any, can afford to give that amount of start to any man who is at all strong on his legs. For the first five yards or so they go at practically the same pace, so that to run 95 yards while his opponent is hopping 45 he has to go more than twice as fast, and it is a weak man indeed who cannot hop 50 yards in ten seconds.

An ordinary wooden match is easily broken in the fingers, but, although there are many who will bet they can do it, none succeed in accomplishing the task if the match is laid across the nail of the middle finger of either hand and pressed upon by the first and third fingers of that hand, despite its seeming so easy at first sight.

No one can crush an egg placed lengthwise between his clasped hands—that is, if the egg be sound and has the ordinary shell of a hen's egg.

It is safe to bet a man that he cannot get out of a chair without bending his body forward or putting his feet under it, if he is sitting on it, not at the edge of it.

Another equally certain wager is that a man cannot stand at the side of a room with both of his feet touching the wainscoting lengthwise.

It is safe to bet any man, save one who is blind, that he cannot stand for five minutes without moving if he is blindfolded.

The Original Seven Wonders.

None of the original seven wonders of the world remains, except the great pyramid of Egypt. The tomb of Mausolus, king of Caria, built about 350 B. C., was destroyed before 1400 A. D. The third wonder, the temple of Diana at Ephesus, was built 552 B. C. and was destroyed 356 B. C. The fourth wonder, the walls and terraces of Babylon, were erected about 570 B. C. They decayed gradually after Babylon had ceased to be the capital of the Assyrian empire. The Colossus of Rhodes, erected in 288 B. C., stood 64 years, was destroyed by an earthquake and lay in ruins for nearly 900 years, until a Jew bought it and took it on 900 camels to Alexandria. The statue of Zeus at Olympus was made 437-433 B. C., was removed to Constantinople and was destroyed by fire 475 A. D. The Pharos at Alexandria was built about 283 B. C. and was destroyed by an earthquake about 1300-1400 A. D.

The Correct Stroke in Swimming.

The correct stroke of the legs is exactly like that of a frog's hind legs. Watch one of these frogs and copy his style. You cannot do better. The legs are drawn up together slowly, not with a jerk, until they are gathered in close under the body. Then with a sudden, quick spring they are shot out behind, the ankles being turned so that the soles of the feet present as flat a surface as possible to the water and so offer more resistance from which to make progress. As the kick is made the legs should be spread out in the shape of a letter V, but not allowed to sink far down under the surface of the water. If they kick downward at an angle instead of out straight behind much of their energy is wasted in unnecessarily forcing the body out of the water instead of forward through it.—Harper's Bazar.

Pigs and Savings Banks.

It is rather a surprising fact, considering how enormously they have grown, that at the beginning of the nineteenth century there was not a savings bank in the world. The Rev. Henry Duncan, rector of a very poor English parish, noticed that when the people wished to lay by a little money they would buy a pig or a cow with it, having no other way to find investment for small sums. He founded the first real savings bank in 1810. Two or three which had existed before that time were practically charitable foundations.

REDUCED PLURALITY.

Amount May Be Cut Down In Pennsylvania.

DUE TO THE FACTIONAL STRIFE.

The Fight Between the Quay and Anti-Quay People For Control of the Next Legislature, Likely to Have an Effect the McKinley Vote.

Philadelphia, Nov. 6.—Very little interest was manifested relative to the vote of the state in the presidential contest, as a big Republican majority is conceded even by the Democratic leaders. Four years ago McKinley's plurality in the state was 295,072, of which plurality furnished 113,139. The highest previous plurality in the state for a presidential candidate was 135,548 for Grant in 1872. In 1892 Harrison's plurality was 63,747.

McKinley's plurality of four years ago will no doubt be considerably reduced through the return to their party of many Democrats who opposed Bryan in 1896, and it is thought, also that McKinley's vote will be reduced to some extent on account of the fierce contests of the Quay and anti-Quay Republicans to obtain control of the next legislature. The anti-Quay men in some sections have endorsed the Democratic candidates, and it is believed this will in these regions have some effect against the head of the Republican ticket. There is, therefore, every indication of a considerable reduction in McKinley's figures of four years ago.

BRYAN'S CLOSING TOUR.

He Made a Number of Speeches In Omaha, and Also One at His Home City.

Lincoln, Neb., Nov. 6.—With the exception of seven speeches made at Omaha last night, Hon. William J. Bryan completed his presidential campaign tour of this state with a speech in this his home city at 6 o'clock last evening. He returned here at that time from a 12-hour tour of the interior of the state, and delivered a speech of about 30 minutes' duration to his townspeople.

Mr. Bryan seemed entirely satisfied with the audience that greeted him at the various points in his own state which he visited during the day. Many of the places at which he spoke are Republican in sentiment, but in all cases the crowds were large in proportion to population, and in most of them there was a high degree of friendly interest manifested.

Outside of Lincoln and Omaha, Hastings supplied the largest audience of the day.

MARYLAND.

Democrats Claim State by Over 5,000. Republicans by Over 11,000.

Baltimore, Nov. 6.—Before leaving for his home in Hartford county, whither he went to vote, Chairman Murray Vandiver, of the Democratic state central committee, said:

"I have no hesitancy in claiming that we will carry the state by from 5,000 to 10,000 majority and that both city and counties will contribute to that end. We will not only carry the state for Bryan, but will elect four congressmen sure, and it would not surprise me in the least if Major Little should defeat Pearre in the Sixth district."

Chairman Phillips Lee Goldsborough, of the Republican state committee, said that he looks for even a larger majority than 11,000 and insists that Maryland's congressional delegation will be entirely Republican.

WEST VIRGINIA.

Wheeling, W. Va., Nov. 6.—The Republicans continue to claim the state by over 15,000. The Republican state committee has failed to bring home all the voters who are temporarily out of the city, but the Democratic committee is not doing any better.

KENTUCKY.

Louisville, Nov. 6.—A campaign that really began before any nominations were made closed in Kentucky with both sides claiming the state in published reports by 20,000, though disinterested estimates do not put the majority either way above 6,000 or 8,000.

MINNESOTA.

St. Paul, Minn., Nov. 6.—The election of Minnesota McKinley electors

seems assured, the Democratic committee only expressing a belief in the possibility of Bryan carrying the state without actually claiming it. The Republicans place the McKinley plurality at from 50,000 to 75,000.

The re-election of Governor John Lind over Captain S. R. Van Sant is claimed by the Democrats by more than 20,000, which is the figure given by the Republicans in their claim for Van Sant. The result for governor will undoubtedly be close. The Republicans will elect the balance of their state ticket, down to railroad commissioners, on which the Democrats have put up a stiff fight, making the result doubtful.

SOUTH DAKOTA.

Sioux Falls, S. D., Nov. 6.—Conservative Republicans estimate the majority at between 6,000 and 8,000. This would carry congressional and state ticket and comfortable majority on joint ballot in next legislature. Fusionists say Bryan will carry the state by at least 2,000 and elect congressional and state nominees by majorities from 1,500 to 3,500; a majority of not less than 20 on joint ballot in the legislature.

NORTH CAROLINA.

Raleigh, N. C., Nov. 6.—The Democrats charge that in these two districts the Republicans, having abandoned all hope of carrying the state for McKinley, are offering to vote for Bryan if Democrats will support the Republican congressional nominees. It is thought, however, that such a proposition will have little effect in view of the fact that Bryan is sure to carry the state any way.

IDAHO.

Boise, Idaho, Nov. 6.—Both parties manifest great confidence. The most uncertain element in the situation appears to be Shoshone county, the scene of the riots in 1899. While the Republicans are assured they will carry the county, they have no poll of it. There are 5,000 voters in Shoshone county.

THE EVENING NEWS REVIEW.

16TH YEAR. NO. 127.

EAST LIVERPOOL, O., TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 6, 1900.

TWO CENTS

AND HIS SPEECH WAS A PEACH

Colonel Winship Electrified His Hearers at the Wigwam Last Night.

ELOQUENT AND STRONG

Interrupted By a Dark Skinned Friend of Aguinaldo and His Assassins.

THE CROWD WAS VERY ANGRY

A magnificent audience was assembled at the wigwam last night, drawn thither by the knowledge that the talented orator, Colonel J. O. Winship, of Cleveland, would address the meeting.

The meeting was not called to order until 8:30, as the speaker did not arrive until the late train and was naturally desirous of partaking of some refreshment.

Haines' band made music in the meantime for the crowd and kept them in a good humor.

At 9:15, Mr. George H. Owen introduced J. J. Purinton as the chairman for the evening. Mr. Purinton said:

"We are tonight on the verge of a matter of great moment, made doubly so on account of the happenings of the past four years; tomorrow will determine what shall be our condition and fate for the next four years. From the tenor of articles which appeared in our local papers of this evening, the Democracy and Prohibitionists seem to think that the Republicans who opposed R. W. Taylor in the battle for the nomination will oppose him now and cast their ballots against him. I opposed R. W. Taylor; but I will vote and work for him now, and I anticipate that every true Republican will do the same. I want to see Mr. Taylor run right along with our peerless leader, William McKinley."

Mr. Purinton then gave facts and figures in connection with the erection of fine homes, and with the savings effected by the workingmen of East Liverpool during the last four years, and called upon the voters to do their full duty on the morrow and vote for McKinley and Roosevelt and the entire Republican ticket. He then introduced the speaker of the evening, who said in part:

"Four years ago I had the honor and pleasure of addressing an East Liverpool audience. I made certain predictions then as to the condition of affairs that would ensue two years from that time in case you placed William McKinley and the Republican party in power, and I am delighted to know that my predictions have been verified and that prosperity reigns within your borders. I'm a better prophet than is Mr. Bill Bryan. A prominent English statesman is authoritative for the statement that the United States is today the greatest nation in the world, and that she is an example for good all over the civilized world; so that it means something to be a citizen of the United States at the present time; and you have a right to be proud of citizenship; we are part and parcel of this wonderful sovereignty—the sovereignty of the individual, in the intelligent, thoughtful use of the ballot entrusted to our care. Our nation is today recognized as the champion of liberty and human rights the wide world over.

ness and common sense, to join in with me.

"What are the issues in the present battle? The Kansas City platform says that imperialism is the paramount issue. I don't believe that; you don't believe it, and they don't believe it. When they were in session at Kansas City, a message came to them from Bill Bryan saying that he insisted upon the Chicago platform, upon the free and unlimited coinage of silver, at the ratio of 16 to 1, and further threatened that if this was not complied with he would himself come to Kansas City by special train and take the stand in favor of silver, and if they still refused to bow to his autocratic, dictatorial and Populist will, he would refuse to be their candidate for the presidency, and he carried the day; and the free silver Republicans likewise nominated Bill Bryan; and you know, and the political world knows, that the unlimited and free coinage of silver is the paramount issue with Bill Bryan and his followers, while imperialism and militarism are only side shows, to be made use of to catch the unwary and gullible voter.

"Bryan has said plainly that, if you elect him, he will destroy the gold basis of currency just as soon as it rests in his power to do so. And, my friend, he is fool enough to do it, and to destroy you and me and the industries of this nation if we are so blind and foolish as to cast our ballots in his favor.

"Say, my friend, let's reason together. The silver dollar I now hold in my hand is worth 100 cents in gold, if you wish to exchange it for gold. Bill Bryan's dollar will be worth from 48 to 51 cents in gold. Bill Bryan's silver dollars are to be on the same basis as the Mexican silver dollar, worth about 48 cents.

"Say, my friends, the commercial value of money will determine whether or not a particular class of currency shall control or remain upon the market and continue to do business. My farmer friend, if wheat commands 90 cents and rye commands 45 cents, and you find it necessary to feed grain to your hogs, what will you give them as food, wheat or rye? Do you drop? You will not feed them wheat. And if your stock of rye runs out, you'll still refuse to feed them your good wheat. Of course you will, for the simple reason that you possess good common sense; and you'll sell your wheat for 90 cents and continue to feed your hogs on 45 cent rye.

"If you owe a man a debt of ten dollars, and Bryan obtains full play in his silver craze or fallacy, you can take ten dollars in gold, go to the mint, get twenty dollars in silver pay your debt and still have ten Bryan dollars in your possession; and the fellow who owes you ten dollars can do the same with you."

(At this moment a man in the audience, a rabid silver fanatic, who has a few stereotyped ideas which he has been shooting off at the lesser lights about East Liverpool, desired to know if he could ask the speaker a question along the line of silver. Winship smilingly answered in the affirmative. The question was asked and an answer given which convulsed the audience with laughter and long continued.

ceased, another question was asked and answered, and this was followed by numerous questions and answers, until the great audience became impatient and cries of "throw him out; stop the chaff; we want to hear the speech," went up from all parts of the wigwam. Winship interfered and said: "Oh, no; don't be rude; the gentleman asked for information in a courteous way, and I shall be glad to answer any fair questions." And then the questioner, emboldened, played the part of a very foolish and verdant customer, and reiterated questions which he had already had answers to, and the colonel, appreciating the fact that he was simply trying to annoy him, said: "My friend, you have had a concise and comprehensive answer to that question, and if you possess the intelligence to know that two and two make four, you will appreciate the fact." And then the audience went wild. Colonel Winship then tried to resume his speech, but the individual kept talking right along to those about him, and the speaker halted, shook his finger at the disturber and said: "I treated you as a gentleman and answered your questions fairly and courteously; and now you have no right to disturb me; if you want to continue your talk, go and hire a hall." And then the crowd went wild for a few minutes, and indulged in hand clapping, cheers and cries of "put him out." As soon as the man could make himself heard he said: "That's right, sir, and I beg your pardon," and the meeting proceeded without any further interruption from him.)

"You remember the sad days and nights of four years ago, men, when good and true workmen, honest and honorable fellows, were willing to work at any employment at any kind of wages, in order to keep the wolf from the door, and were unable to get anything to do; it was indeed sad and pitiable.

(A voice from the audience: "Yes, colonel, we know all about it—we had a soup house in this city.")

"Men, you know that it is undeniable history that, in those Democratic times, we were compelled to go to Europe and sell our bonds to them in order to run this government. Your mills were idle, your furnace fires were out, and general desolation and paralysis of industry held sway.

"And now, my fellow citizens, what a transformation. Mills, mines, furnaces, potteries and all manufacturing establishments in full swing, with workingmen and mechanics in demand, with good wages for all who are willing to work. We have loaned two hundred million dollars in gold to Europe, and it has not even caused a flurry in our money market. We are the greatest nation today in the world. Why? Simply because we do the manufacturing, and this assures prosperity and success to any nation. And this has come to us under the wise control of William McKinley and the Republican party. Out of the very jaws of Democratic disaster and failure have we wrested prosperity and wonderful success. Some men say that this is all right for the manufacturer and the capitalist. Bill Bryan has been fool enough to tell the men to ascertain how their employers vote, for what party, and then vote directly opposite to that vote. Men, that is the advice of a demagogue and a fool, and you know that I am speaking the truth. I am not a politician. I never held an office, and I never received a dollar from any political party. I do not get a single dollar for my talk. I am a toiler and a worker, and in the past ten years I have done as hard and as arduous work as any man in this audience, barring none. I have been a toiler and of the fact. Your labor is your capital. I want my employer to do good business and make a good profit. And you want your employer to do the same, and then you want to use all honorable and peaceful and legal means to see that he grants you a fair division of his profits in the form of good and remunerative wages; and I want to tell you, right here, that the Democratic demagogue who tries to create confusion and strife between capital and labor, between the employer and his workmen, without showing any legitimate reason for so doing, is an arrant enemy to the toiler and mechanic and workingman; and that is the part that Bill Bryan has been playing all through this presidential campaign.

"What's a pernicious trust? A combination of great corporations under one great or general head, formed for the purpose of oppression and for the creation of artificial values. Some years since there was formed a gigantic railroad trust, embracing 31 lines of railroads, reaching from the New England states to the Mississippi river; and this trust aimed to fix the rate on every pound of freight hauled on other lines—a fancy and unjust price, and aiming to so control affairs that they could virtually take the producer and manufacturer by the throat. The great Standard Oil company tried the same thing. The state of Ohio tried to kill this latter monopoly, chased it out of Ohio and simply let it go to work in New Jersey and there continues its devilment.

"On the question of two mammoth railroad trusts, congress killed them by means of the interstate commerce law. But when congress attempted to reach after the corporations, working under a state charter, the supreme court stepped in and said that such interference was unconstitutional. The next play was for an amendment to the federal constitution, and when this came to a vote, every Democrat but five voted against it, and every Republican but two voted in its favor, and Democracy voted squarely in favor of the pernicious trusts. And, see here my Democratic friends, I defy you to show me any record wherein the Democratic party ever legislated a single solitary feature against a trust of any kind or character. Your party has been great along this line in bluff and bluster and chin music; but it all ended right there. The Republican party has enacted legislation against trusts and has driven them out of states where they were plying their nefarious traffic without a charter, and has voted almost solidly in favor of an amendment to the federal constitution, in order to reach them anywhere, in any state, and thus be able to successfully cope with them and crush them out of existence.

"Bill Bryan says we bought Filipinos at $1 50 a head, and that we rule without the consent of the governed. Bill talks too much; he talks so much that he don't have time to think. Napoleon had Louisiana and wanted to sell it. Thomas Jefferson, president of the United States, and the man who wrote the constitution, purchased Louisiana for the sum of fifteen million dollars, or about 87½ cents per head, and he didn't say a single word to a Spaniard, or a Frenchman, or a savage about the consent of the governed. Of course they kicked, and Jefferson sent an army down there and let them kick until they got tired and quit.

"In 1819, Monroe bought Florida, and he paid about 62½ cents a head. Of course they kicked, and a man by the name of Jackson, whom some Democrats may have heard of, was sent down there to quiet them, and he attended to the business in good shape. California and Texas had some experience along this line, which you Democrats may find of interest when you come to read about the matter.

"What about the Philippines? Two years ago, Democrats and Republicans alike were wrought up to a fine frenzy of rage over the outrages dered by the Spaniards within a short space of time. Then came the Maine horror. Then Spain declared war. Dewey received instructions to destroy a Spanish fleet which was threatening our Pacific coast; history tells how well he did his work; and the sound of Dewey's guns proclaimed the fact of the existence of the United States as a factor in the future movements of the civilized world. Sampson and Schley made quick ending of Spain's boasted navy and the war was virtually over.

"We had taken Manila; no government held control there, and we were in honor and duty bound to protect the rights and property of citizens, and give them some form of government, and, as Uncle Sam always does, when Republicans are in control, we did that duty well. Then came the ratification of the treaty of peace. And Bill Bryan was the cause, directly and absolutely, of the treaty being ratified, and he will be proud of this fact when he gets older and has better sense, as it is the only real good and sensible thing he ever did do.

"Then Aguinaldo attempted his dirty and treacherous work, when he aimed to have his followers murder all foreigners, in order that he might be able to loot the rich city of Manila and maltreat and outrage her women. But he counted without his host and was driven to his dens in the mountains.

"Schools are now being established in Manila. Night schools are being given play. Protestant churches are being established. Adults are crowding in, eager to learn the English language. Thousands of bibles are being distributed on every hand, and are eagerly sought for. Oh, my fellow citizens, wherever our dear old flag goes, she carries with her the glorious boon of fullest liberty and the destruction of servitude and darkness and slavery."

"Two years ago, European nations would get together and consult about the affairs of the civilized world, and never thought it worth while to take the United States into consideration. And now they cuddle up to your Uncle Samuel like a kitten to a hot brick.

"John Bright said that if the United States ever again became fully united, that not a gun would be fired in the world, after the expiration of 50 years, without the consent of the United States. Two years of John Bright's 50 have passed, and I wish to God that I could live throughout the other 48 years, and I'm going to do my best to do so.

"Democracy has had a checkered career. In 1864, when we were in the throes of disaster, and when England and France stood ready to recognize the Southern confederacy, the Democrats met in a national convention at Chicago and resolved that the war was a failure, that we could not conquer the south, and that the Democratic party, as a party, would not send another soldier to the front, nor subscribe a single dollar to the maintenance of the war. And this is undeniable history. And the Republicans of the northland assured Abraham Lincoln that he could have 500,000 more men if he so desired, and billions of money, and that the war must not be ended until all out. "And I here accuse Bill Bryan of being the murderer of each and every one of our boys who have been killed in the Philippine islands within the past four months.

"An old-time Democrat in Maine said to me not long since: 'Winship, I'm going to vote for McKinley.' I told him that I did not see how he could do otherwise, when one of his own brave boys was doing duty in the Philippines; and he made answer: 'It isn't that, altogether. Winship; but say, old man, I can't bear to think of being laid away in my last resting place, and have my neighbors point me out and say—that's the grave of a darned old copperhead.'

"And now, friends, old and young, every loyal and true citizen, every man who wants prosperity and who dreads depression and stagnation of business, with starvation in your midst, and soup houses doling out charity to yourself and your fellow men, go to the polls tomorrow and cast your ballots for McKinley and Roosevelt and the full Republican ticket, and thus inherit and deserve four years more of glorious prosperity. Good night."

DISTRICT CONVENTION.

Meeting of the Fourteenth District Convention of the Women's Relief Corps.

On Thursday last, November 1, the convention met in G. A. R. hall, Youngstown, Ohio, fifty-four delegates being present. The hall was beautifully draped with bunting and flags, presenting a very handsome appearance. Dinner and supper were served by the Youngstown corps, the layout reflecting credit upon the members of that organization. A fine musical program held sway at the camp fire in the evening, and a number of speeches were made by the veterans, Sons of Veterans and visiting members.

Mrs. Sadie Hogle, president of No. 3 corps, Youngstown, presided at the camp fire in a most pleasing manner.

Mrs. Fisher, of Youngstown, was elected president of the district for the coming year.

Mrs. Fannie Wylie and Mrs. Emma Palmer, of General Lyon corps, East Liverpool, were in attendance. These ladies report an exceedingly enjoyable time in our sister city. The next convention will be held at Salem.

Mrs. Mary D. Kerr, of General Lyon corps, East Liverpool, assistant inspector of this department, inspected the Marlborough corps, near Alliance, Ohio, on Saturday last. She reports having had a very enjoyable time, and states that the membership is very enthusiastic in the work. Choice refreshments were served. The hall was handsomely decorated.

Weeds if they are pulled out of a lawn at a time when they are full of seed will evince a degree of care for the seeds which is almost touching. They will curl their leaves upward as far as each can go to cover the seeds and protect them from the sun till the end, and often one will find weeds that are quite dead, sun killed, whose leaves still are wrapped firmly around the seed pods. No mother could show more striking devotion in death than do these despised plants.—Cincinnati Enquirer.

NEW JERSEY.

New York, Nov. 6.—The Republicans are confident of success in New Jersey, but the Democrats claim that if the members of their party who remained away from the polls four years ago turn out today the state will go for Bryan. The increase in registration, the Republicans claim, is due to the normal growth of the voting people. The Democrats, however, claim that the increase shows that those Democrats who remained away from the polls four years ago expect to vote today.

ILLINOIS.

Chicago, Nov. 6.—A full vote will be polled in the state at large, and especially in Chicago and Cook county. The fight here has been of the warmest description, and every effort will be made to bring the full voting strength of both parties into the field.

VIRGINIA.

Richmond, Va., Nov. 6.—Democratic party authorities are confident of a plurality for Bryan of some 20,000 and of electing 7 out of the 10 congressmen, and have hopes amounting almost to positive belief that they will elect the other three. Except as to three close districts the Republicans make no claims.

KANSAS.

Topeka, Nov. 6.—The Republicans claim a victory for McKinley by 25,000 plurality, the success of the state ticket by a plurality somewhat less, the election of eight congressmen and a majority on joint ballot in the legislature. The fusionists concede one congressman to the Republicans, but claim everything else, placing Bryan's plurality of 16,000.

UNTOLD VALUE.

The Statement Contained in This Citizen's Statement is Priceless.

The hale, the hearty, the strong can afford to toss this paper to one side impatiently when they read the following, but any sufferer in East Liverpool who has spent a mint of money and suffered hours of excruciating torture caused by kidney complaint will stand in his own light if he does not follow the valuable advice offered by Mr. S. C. Hill, of Ester, Pa., carpenter, who says: "For a year I suffered from pain across my back, difficulty with the kidney secretions and was naturally anxious to procure some treatment which would check if not radically cure the trouble. Advised by a friend, I procured Doan's Kidney Pills at the W. & W. pharmacy, and I want East Liverpool people to thoroughly grasp this fact, before I used the entire contents of the box I was cured. To prove that my convictions were laid on solid foundation I have since purchased for a neighbor of mine three boxes of Doan's Kidney Pills. They cured him. Now, when a preparation which cured me in the condition I was in, and also my neighbor, a preparation which is held in such estimation in and around East Liverpool that an acquaintance of mine advised me through a newspaper statement to obtain it, when that preparation performs exactly what it promises, what can be expected of any resident of East Liverpool suffering from kidney complaint who will not take advantage of his neighbor's experience and profit by his opinions."

of the fact. Your labor is your capital. I want my employer to do good business and make a good profit. And you want your employer to do the same, and then you want to use all honorable and peaceful and legal means to see that he grants you a fair division of his profits in the form of good and remunerative wages; and I want to tell you, right here, that the Democratic demagogue who tries to create confusion and strife between capital and labor, between the employer and his workmen, without showing any legitimate reason for so doing, is an ardent enemy to the toiler and mechanic and workingman; and that is the part that Bill Bryan has been playing all through this presidential campaign.

"What's a pernicious trust? A combination of great corporations under one great or general head, formed for the purpose of oppression and for the creation of artificial values. Some years since there was formed a gigantic railroad trust, embracing 31 lines of railroads, reaching from the New England states to the Mississippi river; and this trust aimed to fix the rate on every pound of freight hauled on other lines—a fancy and unjust price, and aiming to so control affairs that they could virtually take the producer and manufacturer by the throat. The great Standard Oil company tried the same thing. The state of Ohio tried to kill this latter monopoly, chased it out of Ohio and simply let it go to work in New Jersey and there continues its devilment.

"On the question of two mammoth railroad trusts, congress killed them by means of the interstate commerce law. But when congress attempted to reach after the corporations, working under a state charter, the supreme court stepped in and said that such interference was unconstitutional. The next play was for an amendment to the federal constitution, and when this came to a vote, every Democrat but five voted against it, and every Republican but two voted in its favor, and Democracy voted squarely in favor of the pernicious trusts. And, see here my Democratic friends, I defy you to show me any record wherein the Democratic party ever legislated a single solitary feature against a trust of any kind or character. Your party has been great along this line in bluff and bluster and chin music; but it all ended right there. The Republican party has enacted legislation against trusts and has driven them out of states where they were plying their nefarious traffic without a charter, and has voted almost solidly in favor of an amendment to the federal constitution, in order to reach them anywhere, in any state, and thus be able to successfully cope with them and crush them out of existence.

"Bill Bryan says we bought Filipinos at $1 50 a head, and that we rule without the consent of the governed. Bill talks too much; he talks so much that he don't have time to think. Napoleon had Louisiana and wanted to sell it. Thomas Jefferson, president of the United States, and the man who wrote the constitution, purchased Louisiana for the sum of fifteen million dollars, or about 87½ cents per head, and he didn't say a single word to a Spaniard, or a Frenchman, or a savage about the consent of the governed. Of course they kicked, and Jefferson sent an army down there and let them kick until they got tired and quit.

"In 1819, Monroe bought Florida, and he paid about 62½ cents a head. Of course they kicked, and a man by the name of Jackson, whom some Democrats may have heard of, was sent down there to quiet them, and he attended to the business in good shape. California and Texas had some experience along this line, which you Democrats may find of interest when you come to read about the matter.

"What about the Philippines? Two years ago, Democrats and Republicans alike were wrought up to a fine frenzy of rage over the outrages dered by the Spaniards within a short space of time. Then came the Maine horror. Then Spain declared war. Dewey received instructions to destroy a Spanish fleet which was threatening our Pacific coast; history tells how well he did his work; and the sound of Dewey's guns proclaimed the fact of the existence of the United States as a factor in the future movements of the civilized world. Sampson and Schley made quick ending of Spain's boasted navy and the war was virtually over.

"We had taken Manila; no government held control there, and we were in honor and duty bound to protect the rights and property of citizens and give them some form of government, and, as Uncle Sam always does, when Republicans are in control, we did that duty well. Then came the ratification of the treaty of peace. And Bill Bryan was the cause, directly and absolutely, of the treaty being ratified, and he will be proud of this fact when he gets older and has better sense, as it is the only real good and sensible thing he ever did do.

"Then Aguinaldo attempted his dirty and treacherous work, when he aimed to have his followers murder all foreigners, in order that he might be able to loot the rich city of Manila and maltreat and outrage her women. But he counted without his host and was driven to his dens in the mountains.

"Schools are now being established in Manila. Night schools are being given play. Protestant churches are being established. Adults are crowding in, eager to learn the English language. Thousands of bibles are being distributed on every hand, and are eagerly sought for. Oh, my fellow citizens, wherever our dear old flag goes, she carries with her the glorious boon of fullest liberty and the destruction of servitude and darkness and slavery."

"Two years ago, European nations would get together and consult about the affairs of the civilized world, and never thought it worth while to take the United States into consideration. And now they cuddle up to your Uncle Samuel like a kitten to a hot brick.

"John Bright said that if the United States ever again became fully united, that not a gun would be fired in the world, after the expiration of 50 years, without the consent of the United States. Two years of John Bright's 50 have passed, and I wish to God that I could live throughout the other 48 years, and I'm going to do my best to do so.

"Democracy has had a checkered career. In 1864, when we were in the throes of disaster, and when England and France stood ready to recognize the Southern confederacy, the Democrats met in a national convention at Chicago and resolved that the war was a failure, that we could not conquer the south, and that the Democratic party, as a party, would not send another soldier to the front, nor subscribe a single dollar to the maintenance of the war. And this is undeniable history. And the Republicans of the northland assured Abraham Lincoln that he could have 500,000 more men if he so desired, and billions of money, and that the war must not be ended until

out. "And I here accuse Bill Bryan of being the murderer of each and every one of our boys who have been killed in the Philippine islands within the past four months.

"An old-time Democrat in Maine said to me not long since: 'Winship, I'm going to vote for McKinley.' I told him that I did not see how he could do otherwise, when one of his own brave boys was doing duty in the Philippines; and he made answer: 'It isn't that, altogether, Winship; but say, old man, I can't bear to think of being laid away in my last resting place, and have my neighbors point me out and say—that's the grave of a darned old copperhead.'

"And now, friends, old and young, every loyal and true citizen, every man who wants prosperity and who dreads depression and stagnation of business, with starvation in your midst, and soup houses doling out charity to yourself and your fellow men, go to the polls tomorrow and cast your ballots for McKinley and Roosevelt and the full Republican ticket, and thus inherit and deserve four years more of glorious prosperity. Good night."

DISTRICT CONVENTION.

Meeting of the Fourteenth District Convention of the Women's Relief Corps.

On Thursday last, November 1, the convention met in G. A. R. hall, Youngstown, Ohio, fifty-four delegates being present. The hall was beautifully draped with bunting and flags, presenting a very handsome appearance. Dinner and supper were served by the Youngstown corps, the layout reflecting credit upon the members of that organization. A fine musical program held sway at the camp fire in the evening, and a number of speeches were made by the veterans, Sons of Veterans and visiting members.

Mrs. Sadie Hogle, president of No. 3 corps, Youngstown, presided at the camp fire in a most pleasing manner.

Mrs. Fisher, of Youngstown, was elected president of the district for the coming year.

Mrs. Fannie Wylie and Mrs. Emma Palmer, of General Lyon corps, East Liverpool, were in attendance. These ladies report an exceedingly enjoyable time in our sister city. The next convention will be held at Salem.

Mrs. Mary D. Kerr, of General Lyon corps, East Liverpool, assistant inspector of this department, inspected the Marlborough corps, near Alliance, Ohio, on Saturday last. She reports having had a very enjoyable time, and states that the membership is very enthusiastic in the work. Choice refreshments were served. The hall was handsomely decorated.

Exhibit Lifelike Qualities.

Weeds if they are pulled out of a lawn at a time when they are full of seed will evince a degree of care for the seeds which is almost touching. They will curl their leaves upward as far as each can go to cover the seeds and protect them from the sun till the end, and often one will find weeds that are quite dead, sun killed, whose leaves still are wrapped firmly around the seed pods. No mother could show more striking devotion in death than do these despised plants.—Cincinnati Enquirer.

NEW JERSEY.

New York, Nov. 6.—The Republicans are confident of success in New Jersey, but the Democrats claim that if the members of their party who remained away from the polls four years ago turn out today the state will go for Bryan. The increase in registration, the Republicans claim, is due to the normal growth of the voting people. The Democrats, however, claim that the increase shows that those Democrats who remained away from the polls four years ago expect to vote today.

ILLINOIS.

Chicago, Nov. 6.—A full vote will be polled in the state at large, and especially in Chicago and Cook county. The fight here has been of the warmest description, and every effort will be made to bring the full voting strength of both parties into the field.

VIRGINIA.

Richmond, Va., Nov. 6.—Democratic party authorities are confident of a plurality for Bryan of some 20,000 and of electing 7 out of the 10 congressmen, and have hopes amounting almost to positive belief that they will elect the other three. Except as to three close districts the Republicans make no claims.

KANSAS.

Topeka, Nov. 6.—The Republicans claim a victory for McKinley by 25,000 plurality, the success of the state ticket by a plurality somewhat less, the election of eight congressmen and a majority on joint ballot in the legislature. The fusionists concede one congressman to the Republicans, but claim everything else, placing Bryan's plurality of 16,000.

UNTOLD VALUE.

The Statement Contained in This Citizen's Statement is Priceless.

The hale, the hearty, the strong can afford to toss this paper to one side impatiently when they read the following, but any sufferer in East Liverpool who has spent a mint of money and suffered hours of excruciating torture caused by kidney complaint will stand in his own light if he does not follow the valuable advice offered by Mr. S. C. Hill, of Ester, Pa., carpenter, who says: "For a year I suffered from pain across my back, difficulty with the kidney secretions and was naturally anxious to procure some treatment which would check if not radically cure the trouble. Advised by a friend, I procured Doan's Kidney Pills at the W. & W. pharmacy, and I want East Liverpool people to thoroughly grasp this fact, before I used the entire contents of the box I was cured. To prove that my convictions were laid on solid foundation I have since purchased for a neighbor of mine three boxes of Doan's Kidney Pills. They cured him. Now, when a preparation which cured me in the condition I was in, and also my neighbor, a preparation which is held in such estimation in and around East Liverpool that an acquaintance of mine advised me through a newspaper statement to obtain it, when that preparation performs exactly what it promises, what can be expected of any resident of East Liverpool suffering from kidney complaint who will not take advantage of his neighbor's experience and profit by his opinions."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the U. S. Remember the name, Doan's, and take no substitute.

YOUR BALLOT.

It is a sacred trust, the trust of your franchise. See that in your acceptance you fill it aright. Don't make a mistake. Go to the polls this evening and use your own good common sense. Has Republican rule been prosperous for the past four years? Have you had work and good wages? Has McKinley fulfilled every promise he made to the nation four years ago? If he has, and if prosperity rules, then, in the name of good sense, continue McKinley and the Republican party in power. Let well enough alone.

COLONEL WINSHIP.

Those who were at the wigwam last night had a rich and genuine treat. Colonel Winship is a power in any cause, and the Republican party can rejoice that such a man is doing duty in its ranks. He is ready of speech, quick in repartee and retort and is a natural born orator. He is a gentleman and a man of true courage. Had he been otherwise, there would have been trouble at the wigwam last night, as he was interrupted in the most ungentlemanly manner by the foreigner who desired to champion the cause of Bryan and Aguinaldo, and many men in the audience were in an ugly mood in consequence of the fellow's action. But Winship waved the trouble aside and called for fair play, even in favor of the fellow who was not treating the speaker right. Colonel Winship made many warm friends in East Liverpool last night, and he will always be assured of a warm welcome when he comes here.

DISORDERLIES.

Men, or some fellows who have grown to the size of men, should be taught that there is a limit to the right of so-called free speech, even in this land of liberty. The first man who annoyed Colonel Winship last night at the wigwam is evidently a gentleman, but one with an overweening amount of egotism. He first asked a question which he thought would puzzle the speaker, along the line of the silver issue, and received a keen and cutting and incisive retort which met the question fairly and squarely and absolutely routed the questioner, horse, foot and dragoons, and yet given by the colonel in the most gentlemanly and courteous manner and in the most polite language. The questioner returned to the charge and received answer after answer, getting laughed at heartily by the great audience for his pains; but he kept asking questions, until the colonel found was finally merely attempting to be annoying, and then Mr. Winship called him down to the queen's taste, and the lad had the good sense to appreciate the true situation, and he rendered a manly apology. But the second party who interrupted the speaker did not act the part of a gentleman. He is evidently deeply in sympathy with Aguinaldo and his band of assassins, and his words and actions aroused the anger of all those around and about him. He did not ask questions, and he did not desire information. He simply acted the part of a disorderly, and he should be taught that here, in free America, we do not permit speakers on a public platform to be made the play of hoodlums and disorderly persons who do not agree with that speaker. We know the man by sight, and we have had occasion to talk to him on a number of times when we visited the store of Mr. Charles Levis, in the Diamond, and he has always acted as a gentleman in our presence; but he became what we term the "typical tough" in this country, judging by his actions of last night, and acted according to the line laid down by Bill Bryan and Dick Croker. Men who have done full duty in the Philippines, and fathers and mothers who have sons on duty there now, hailing from East Liverpool, do not take kindly to openly expressed treason, and will not bear patiently with the advocacy and backing up of assassins like Aguinaldo and his bolo murderers. The dark skinned fellow who thus acted at the wigwam last night, can thank Colonel Winship that he did not receive a good thumping. An officer finally called the fellow down and danger of serious trouble was over. Colonel Winship, when he was spoken to about the interruptions, after the meeting was over, laughingly said: "Oh, that was all right; it simply added spice to the meeting, and gave me an opportunity to make use of the latter fellow as an object lesson or horrible example."

J. J. PURINTON'S WORDS.

His words carried weight with them last night along certain lines. John J. Purinton knows, very fully, what he is talking about when he discourses on savings banks, building and loan associations, the erection of business houses and houses on the part of the workingmen and mechanics of East Liverpool, and the money put away for a nest egg by our toilers, and his figures of last night, given from the books and defying successful contradiction, showed, in a startling manner, the wonderful success that has come to East Liverpool during the past four years, under Republican rule. As he gave facts and figures, and showed the vast amount of money saved by the toilers, and described the class of houses being erected by the workingmen, and rang out the deep, earnest challenge of "men, do you want a change from such conditions," the audience was closely and deeply attentive, and to the keen observer from the platform, looking squarely in the faces and eyes of the men present, the fact was evident that they appreciated the situation from its best standpoint, and were too deeply in earnest for mere outward applause and were revolving, in their heart of heart, that no change should occur in the country if their ballots could control the matter. John J. Purinton's words did good and made votes last night. Look at this, voters of East Liverpool. These are plain, incontrovertible facts. The net savings of the workingmen of this city amount at present to about twenty-five thousand dollars each month; the mortgages on the homes are being paid off at about the rate of fifteen thousand dollars each month. Do you realize, workingmen and mechanics, what this really means? It means about ten homes, each worth about fifteen hundred dollars, being freed from debt each month. And this under Republican rule. Do you want a change? No sensible man should desire it. Vote for McKinley and Roosevelt and the straight Republican ticket and enjoy four years more of prosperity.

In the Island of Luzon, Philippines, the Half Caste is The Bond between the Spanish father and the Filipino mother, as a rule. The half castes are among the best and most enterprising citizens of Manila, and many of them are quite wealthy. When the writer was in Manila he had the pleasure of forming the close acquaintance of many of these half castes, meeting them in the gymnasium night after night, practicing with them in various sports, such as broad jump, high jump, lifting weights, horizontal bar, boxing, rolling ten pins and other healthful and beneficial exercises. We found them model athletes, courteous and clever in the extreme, anxious to be on good terms with the Americans, and extremely bitter in their hatred of the Spaniards. We believe that, to this day, these men are in favor of American rule, and we believe that no outbreak would have occurred on the part of the insurgents had it not been for Bill Bryan and his followers, and for the free silver kings, Bryan's employers, who made use of the Philippine scare, imperialism and militarism, for the purpose of misleading the people at large, if possible, and thus obtaining votes for Bryan, whom they desired to use as a tool in the advancement of their moneyed interests. Bill Bryan and his employers have forced human life into the balance, in order that they might possibly make millions of dollars out of their mines and silver bullion. There rests against Bryan and his followers an awful crime, if they are guilty of the charges put upon them.

A REQUEST.

Mayor Davidson Asks the Potters to Refrain from Blowing Their Whistles.

Owing to the serious condition of Mrs. Charles Surles, I would respectfully request that the potters refrain from blowing the whistles tonight. Also that the people who desire to jollify remain away from Seventh street. The life of Mrs. Surles hangs in the balance, and the physicians state that absolute quiet is necessary for her recovery.

W. C. DAVIDSON,
Mayor.

—Harley Gillingham returned to his home in Richland Center, Wis., yesterday afternoon after a three months' visit with Mr. and Mrs. Frank Earl, Seventh street.

DICK BURROWS

Made an Impromptu Speech at the Republican Wigwam Last Night.

Last evening while the band was playing in front of the wigwam Dick Burrows became enthused and made an impromptu speech. He was persuaded to return to his buggy by Officer Morris.

A Neat Compliment.

In speaking of the foot ball game played here last Saturday the Patriot pays the following well deserved compliment to the Royal Tigers:

"The Lisbon boys speak well of their opponents as gentlemanly players, and the courteous treatment given them generally on their visit to the Crockery City."

A TIP FOR THE JOKERS.

Curious Man Wants to Know About Mingling of Languages.

"It's a funny thing," said the man with the bad cigar, who had been reading day before yesterday's paper.

"What's that?" asked the young man with the phenomenally short coat.

"Why, the way these fellows that write jokes for newspapers get things tangled up," replied the first seaker.

"How is that?" asked the long legged young man.

"Why, look here," continued the man with the bad cigar warmly. "Did you ever read a Dutch joke in the papers where two Germans are supposed to be talking to each other?"

"Sure I did," said the tall young man, yawning languidly.

"Well, did you ever notice that every time the guy that wrote the joke has them jabbering at each other in broken English? What do you think of this?" He picked up the paper again and after hunting a few moments read as follows:

"Leberwurst—Heinrich, vy iss it ven you bock beer drink yet that you vant to jump alretty?"

"Schwarzkoppen—Mayple it iss vonce because die beer is mit hops filled up. No?"

"Now, that's a good thing, isn't it?" went on the man with the bad cigar.

"If those two Germans wanted to talk to each other, do you suppose they would amble around in broken English? No; they would spiel it out in German that they both understand. Suppose you and I were in Germany for a visit and I wanted to tell you about some sight I had seen, would I try to tell you in bum German that neither of us could speak or would I talk English? They make me tired."

"But that would spoil the joke," protested the tall young man.

"Huh!" snorted the other. "Some things are too bad to spoil."

And then the incident was considered closed.—Chicago Chronicle.

A UNIQUE STATE.

Texas Has Paid Allegiance to the Flags of Six Nations.

Scarcely another state in the union has as remarkable and interesting a history as Texas. In one respect at least it occupies a unique position in the history of American states. Since its discovery six different governments have at different times claimed its allegiance, and as many different flags have waved over it, those of France, Spain, Mexico, independent Texas, the United States and the Confederate states.

The foundations of Texas statehood were not laid as a British colony, nor under the grant or control of the British crown, as were those of the original thirteen states. Its first settlement dates back more than 200 years, and its first American colonists went there under terms and conditions imposed by a foreign state, to whose language, laws and institutions they were total strangers. There never was, there never could be, any sympathy between these first American colonists and the Mexican government under the old regime. Separated by vast wildernesses from the people of the United States, and unaided save by the individual efforts of sympathizing brethren therein, these colonists declared their independence, established it with the sword, and for nine years maintained a stable republic.

Texas was neither purchased nor conquered for the union. Annexation to the United States was accomplished through a treaty made by Texas representatives and ratified by the free suffrage of the citizens. No other state in the Union has had such varied experience or sailed through such stormy seas into the haven of peace and prosperity.—St. Louis Globe-Democrat.

The Professor's Prophecy Failed.
While a student at Harvard university Phillips Brooks was walking in the yard one day with a professor, who asked him what he intended making of himself.

"I am thinking of the ministry," answered the youth.

"Then banish such thoughts," said the professor earnestly. "Your manner of speech would forever bar you from being successful in that career."

Many years later, when Phillips Brooks was one of the world's great pulpit orators, the most expert rhapsodist in England took down one of his sermons and said:

"Any stenographer who thought he has conquered fast talkers should try Phillips Brooks."—Ladies' Home Journal.

A Narrow Escape.

Andrew Johnson, who resides about one-half mile above the Rock Springs park, had a narrow escape early Monday morning.

Mr. Johnson, who is well advanced in years, has been suffering with a bad cold for the past four weeks. About 3:30 o'clock Monday morning he imagined something was wrong with his window and got on a chair to fix it. He fell out of the window and crawled on his hands and knees about one-eighth of a mile from the house and return in his underwear, which was covered with mud and burs, and his feet were almost frozen. He was discovered in the cellar upon his return to the house hunting for his bed.

The Charms of "Monte-Christo."

Lord Salisbury once told the following interesting and amusing incident at a meeting of a certain literary club. "One book," said Lord Salisbury, "has always fascinated me and on more than one occasion has drawn me out of bed very early in the morning. This is Dumas' 'Monte-Christo.' A few months ago I was staying at Sandringham. I had my favorite with me, and about half past 4 in the morning I got up and went into the beautiful grounds and sat down for an hour or two to be 'carried away' by my book.

"I had been reading for about half an hour when I heard some one say: 'What! Are a prime minister's duties so heavy that he must needs be up so early in order to study?' I turned and saw the Prince of Wales. I showed him the book that had drawn me out so early, and he said laughingly that he would read such an apparently fascinating book.

"Three weeks afterward he said to me: 'Monte-Christo' drew you out of bed at half past 4 in the morning. I may say that it drew me out of bed at 4 in the morning.'—London Gem.

A Fish That Eats Ducks.

Among the queer things in India is the fish that eats ducks. When one misses some ducks and is told by the moorgywalla that a fish swallowed them, one begins to think there can really be no limit to the lies the Aryan brother can tell. But early one morning, soon after the ducks had been let out and had, as usual, made their way to the tank, on one side of which stands an indigo assistant's bungalow, the old khansama excitedly announced that the big fish had just caught another duck and swallowed it and could not keep down with it. The gun was at once got hold of, and after watching the antics of the fish trying to keep down under water he was shot. He proved to be a large boali and had actually got the entire bird down, with only the legs just showing in his mouth.

ELECTION DAY.

A LARGE VOTE IS BEING CAST IN THIS CITY.

There is Very Little Scratching And McKinley Will Have a Rousing Majority.

The campaign of 1900 is now almost a thing of the past, and it will only be a few hours until the result is known.

Much interest was taken in the election in this city and at 3 o'clock a large vote had been polled in every precinct. There has not been much scratching, and it is expected the count of the city will be complete not later than 10:30 o'clock.

At the Fourth ward James H. Tracy, one of the judges, caused a smile by getting his ticket and walking directly to the ballot box handing it to Leroy Orr to drop in the box. Everybody smiled and Mr. Tracy suddenly realized that he had not marked the ticket. It was returned to him and he marked it this time.

Arrangements have been made to receive the returns at many places in this city, but the News Review office will again be the place where the crowd will congregate, as nothing has been left undone to secure the most complete and reliable returns at the earliest hour.

Hard to Rob Drug Stores.

"I ain't doing nothing now," said the young man with the small eyes and low brow as he accepted an invitation from an equally low browed companion to sit at a round table. "My last job heeled me pretty well, and I don't do no work unless I has to."

"What is it?" asked the other rascal. The first tough made a significant motion with his arm to indicate his acquaintance with the art of sandbagging and lead piping.

"To tell the truth"—he called it "troot"—"this cracksmen's work is too risky. Too much pulling of guns by the other fellows, and you've got to have an expensive outfit, and doing the sneak act is too risky. Did I ever tell you how I started out? It was in a drug store, and I thought I could swipe some brushes or something like that. You can always hook them things. Well, I got in all right, but I had to buy a soda—a-r-h!—to get an excuse. I took my time swallowing the stuff, and up to that point the graft worked all right.

"The boss he walked away, and after awhile he went behind the little place where they put up prescriptions, and then I gathered in three nice brushes. But before I had taken three steps he was on to me. I found out afterward that all these druggists have little holes or cracks in the stained glass in front of their desks, so they can pipe off all that goes on in the store."—Chicago Tribune.

Glad He Had No Revolver.

"No," said the man, talking of traveling or going anywhere, for that matter, with a revolver. I gave mine away a number of years ago with a devout feeling of thankfulness that it had not been the cause of endless reproach to me. I had been up the Hudson with my wife, and on the return trip I had in my mind the stories that I had recently heard of sneak thieves who had been robbing passengers on the boat.

"I did not know that I had paid special attention to them, but in the middle of the night, when a little noise at the window awakened me, I knew at once that those sneak thieves were in the room, and with one bound—I couldn't have done it if I had tried at another time—I landed on the floor from the upper berth with my hands on the throat of the thief at the window. I held on so tightly that my victim couldn't make a sound, and you can imagine how horrified I was to find that I had nearly strangled my wife. If I had had a pistol, I would certainly have shot her, and the first opportunity I had after that I gave mine away. They are dangerous things to carry."—New York Times.

ELIJAH W. HILL,

Real Estate Dealer,

Second Floor Grand Building, Corner Sixth and Washington,
EAST LIVERPOOL, O.

DO YOU WISH TO BUY OR SELL REAL ESTATE? If so, consult us.

We have the facilities for accommodating you. Having made real estate dealing a specialty for some time, we have become established in the business. Every day brings us new business and nearly every day sees a deal consummated. Our volume of business grows out of the reasonableness of our charges. We never speculate on other peoples' property. The price set by the owner is the price the purchaser pays. We do not conduct our business on the "get rich quick" plan. Our patrons appreciate this and show it by sending us other patrons. Owners of property who desire to sell the same will do well to place it on our sale list. Those intending to purchase property will do well to consult us before buying.

In all of our business we take care of the interests of both owner and purchaser. We are neither for the one or the other. Justice between both parties is what we seek.

Owners who want a quick sale and will offer a genuine bargain can be accommodated at all times by us. Purchasers, who want a bargain, can take advantage of these offers if they will let us know that they are in the market for such.

Those who have but little money, say from $50 to $100, can buy a home from us at any time, the balance being paid on installments at the rate of $1 monthly to the $100 of indebtedness, which pays both interest and principal, with privilege of paying faster. The large assortment of properties we have constantly on sale enables us to usually suit you.

DO YOU WISH FIRE INSURANCE? This is another branch of our business. We represent ten different companies, all of high standard. We insure dwellings, barns, mercantile buildings, factories, merchandise, household goods, etc. We write at regular rates. We think it unfair to give what is known as "cut rates." As a basis for dwelling rates, we would say that a frame, slate roof building which stands unexposed by other buildings for the space of 25 feet on all sides, will cost you 35 cents per $100 insurance for one year; 70 cents per $100 for three years; or, $1 per $100 for five years. This applies to household goods as well. Household goods are just as valuable, proportionately to you as the house is to its owner, and we often wonder why so many owners of household goods let themselves be exposed to loss, and often lose them when insurance rates are so reasonable.

BONDS, STOCKS AND INVESTMENTS we also handle. We can sell you local stocks, bonds and investments, and also corporation, bank and railroad stocks and bonds. Not much business in this line has developed here yet, but by your co-operation with us, either as a buyer or seller, will be all that is necessary to develop such.

HOUSE RENTING as a business is what East Liverpool has needed for some time. In our renting department, we add such and every day is adding to its utility. If you have any property, see if it does not profit you.

All kinds of notarial work, wills, deeds, mortgages, agreements. We also procure marriage licenses.

Loaning of money is another feature of our business. We negotiate loans for a reasonable charge, the rate of interest depending on the class of security and amount wanted. Those who have money to put out should avail themselves of our facilities for doing this kind of business. No charges to the lender.

To the public we extend free of charge our services in the way of supplying information of a general nature concerning our city and vicinity. We try to have at all times just what you want to know.

We open this week a free bureau for the accommodation of those who are seeking houses to rent and landlords who are seeking tenants. We are constantly besieged with applications for houses for rent. To this end we invite all owners of rentable houses in the city or vicinity to let us know when they want or will want a tenant. If they will do so we will refer inquirers to them, making no charge whatever, either to applicant or owner. Landlords by doing this need never have a house empty for more than a day.

In the above we have endeavored to give you the general nature of the business in which we engage. We ask but a continuance of the patronage of the past, and, as then, we will endeavor to render you honest, accurate and valuable service.

THE ELECTIONS.

Citizens Are Voting Throughout the Country Today.

CONFIDENCE IS EXPRESSED.

Statements Claiming Victory Issued From Each Headquarters.

A HEAVY VOTE IS EXPECTED.

Indications That It Will Be Larger Than Usual In Some of the States—Leaders of Both the Democratic and Republican Parties Claim to Be Sure of Success. Bryan Will Receive Returns at Lincoln, President McKinley at Canton and Governor Roosevelt at Oyster Bay, L. I.—A Statement From Republican Headquarters Says That After a Close Poll They Feel Certain of Success—Democratic Chairman Jones Issued a Statement Saying He Was Confident of Victory—Claims as to Some States.

New York, Nov. 6.—The national elections are being held throughout the country today.

Indications are that in some states the vote will be heavier than usual.

The leaders of both the Democratic and Republican parties have expressed confidence in the success of their respective candidates.

Mr. Bryan is at his home in Lincoln, Neb., where he will receive the returns.

President McKinley will receive the returns at Canton, O.

Governor Roosevelt is at Oyster Bay, where he will hear the returns.

CONFIDENT OF BIG VICTORY.

A Statement From Republican Headquarters Declared a Close Poll Indicated Success.

Committee, on the eve of the election: "There are few surface indications at this time dissimilar to those of four years ago, when McKinley swept the country by the greatest majority probably ever given to a presidential candidate. The work of the Republicans during the past four weeks has been marvelously effective. It has been marked everywhere by completeness in detail of machinery, harmonious action and desired results. In the history of the party no better organization has ever existed. McKinley and Roosevelt will carry every state which voted for McKinley and Hobart four years ago, and certainly seven or eight others that voted for Bryan in 1896. The alleged hopes of Croker and Bryan as to carrying Indiana and New York are simply following out the program of claiming everything in sight, for the purpose of encouraging their followers in close states to make the most desperate efforts for success. The claims of the Republicans are based upon the result of actual work reported by men in the field, brought up through precinct, ward, township, city, county and state organizations, and upon actual facts as shown by the closest poll ever made by any political organization."

FEELS SURE OF SUCCESS. National Democratic Chairman Jones Issued a Statement In Which He Expressed Confidence. Chicago, Nov. 6.—Chairman James K. Jones, of the Democratic national committee, on the eve of the election, said: "I have no doubt that the result of the ballot tomorrow will be the triumphant election of Bryan and Stevenson. The Democratic party has appealed in this campaign to the reason and conscience of the people, while the Republicans have appealed to passion and prejudice. In the great forum of public opinion I have no doubt the Democratic party has won this, the greatest of its national political struggles. Four years ago the Democratic party was deficient in organization, whereas now it is more perfectly organized and more efficient than it has been in any campaign. The national committee has been in touch with every part of the country and familiar with all the details of the work. While the campaign fund has not been enriched by the contributions of great trusts it has received the patriotic mites of the working classes in sufficient quantities to defray the expenses of the campaign, which was even more satisfactory than if it had been otherwise. "The country is now aroused as it has never been before since the great civil war, and the result can be nothing less than the triumphant election of the national Democratic ticket."

CHEIF DEVERY INDICTED.

He Was Accused of Intending Interference With New York State Election Deputies.

New York, Nov. 6.—The local grand jury indicted Chief of Police William S. Devery on the charge of interfering with the work of State Superintendent of Elections John McCullagh. Chief Devery's bail was fixed and arrangements have been made for hearing the case tomorrow. The indictment has attracted a great deal of attention in political circles. The points involved appear to hinge upon the rights of men to swear in their votes when challenged by any of the deputies of the state superintendent of elections.

The indictment against Chief Devery charges felony. It charges in part:

"That he (Devery) did attempt wilfully, knowingly and with felonious intent to hinder said John McCullagh in the performance of his duty as superintendent of elections."

Chief Devery, after giving bail, made the following statement:

"When I was sworn in as chief of police of New York city I swore that I would do my duty and protect the people of this city. I propose to do my duty toward the whole of the people. I do not propose to be bulldozed. I am going to see that the people's rights are protected and that every one entitled to vote will be allowed to vote. I am going to see that the policemen in my charge are not bullied even by John McCullagh."

Mr. McCullagh refused to talk concerning the indictment. He said, however, that he was a witness before the grand jury.

DEVERY REVOKED ORDER.

A Letter Sent by Roosevelt to Van Wyck, Was Followed by Instructions From Mayor to the Chief.

New York, Nov. 6.—Governor Roosevelt's message to the mayor was delivered to Mr. Van Wyck at the Democratic club. The mayor at once took a cab and was driven to police headquarters, where he called upon Chief Devery. The mayor and the chief of police were closeted together for an hour. At the conclusion of the conference Chief Devery announced that in accordance with the mayor's orders the order issued on Sunday to captains regarding the McCullagh deputies and voters would be rescinded. The order of the mayor read as follows:

"You will at once revoke the order issued from your office on the 4th inst. relative to the duties of the police force on election day, and you will issue immediately such further orders as will require your subordinates to co-operate and assist in the execution and enforcement of the metropolitan election district law and amendments thereto."

Later Mayor Van Wyck made the following statement:

"There will be no intimidation or violence at the election tomorrow. It will pass off as quietly as that of any village. The chief of police will take charge of that and will preserve order. I have the utmost confidence in the chief. He knows his duties and is a perfectly efficient chief and understands how to maintain peace and order."

Chief Devery said that there would be no trouble at the polls today and that he would enforce the orders of the mayor to the letter.

Oyster Bay, L. I., Nov. 6.—Governor Roosevelt sent the following communication to the Hon. Robert A. Van Wyck, mayor, New York city:

"Sir—My attention has been called to the official order issued by Chief of Police Devery, in which he directs his subordinates to disregard the chief of the state election bureau, John McCullagh, and his deputies.

"Unless you have already taken steps to secure the recall of this order, it is necessary for me to point out that I shall be obliged to hold you responsible, as the head of the city government, for the action of the chief of police, if it should result in any breach of the peace and intimidation or any crime whatever against the election laws. The state and city authorities should work together.

"I will not fail to call to summary account either state or city authorities, in the event of either being guilty of intimidation or connivance at fraud or failure to protect every legal voter in his rights.

"I, therefore, notify you that in the event of any wrong doing following upon the failure immediately to recall Chief Devery's order or upon any action or inaction on the part of Chief Devery, I must necessarily call you to account.

Yours, etc., "Theodore Roosevelt."

BRYAN'S HOME STATE.

Both Sides Strongly Claim That They Will Win.

Omaha, Nov. 6.—The Republican state committee is still claiming the state by 5,000 plurality for McKinley, but this is placed against the positive assertion by Chairman Hall, of the Democratic committee, that Mr. Bryan will receive a plurality of at least 12,000.

Republicans generally are saying that Charles H. Dietrich, Republican, will be elected over Governor Poynter, and Chairman Lindsay declares that the legislature is safe for Republicans. On the other hand, Chairman Hall says that the whole state ticket will not run behind Bryan, and that the legislature will positively be fus-

ON M'KINLEY'S LAWN.

A Number of the President's Neighbors Called and He Made a Brief Talk, Introducing Judge Day.

Canton, O., Nov. 6.—President McKinley's townsmen called on him last night to the number of 1,800 to 3,000, gathering in the McKinley lawn.

The affair was purely informal and arranged on the spur of the moment.

Headed by the Grand Army band, of Canton, the crowd marched from the public square to the McKinley home. Much red fire was burned along the route and most vociferous cheering was indulged in upon the arrival of the crowd at its objective point. The band serenaded the household, which included many visitors calling upon the President and Mrs. McKinley.

President McKinley made a brief speech and introduced Judge Hay, who talked.

CONNECTICUT.

New Haven, Conn., Nov. 6.—Observers who are not intensely partisan predict a safe McKinley margin and a probable Republican victory on the state ticket. On the latter point, however, they are careful not to express in figures their opinions.

Call Loan Rate Run Up, but Later Went Back, and Speculation Became Active.

New York, Nov. 6.—Loans made Monday carry over until Wednesday, and when speculators began to look about to find new accommodations with which to carry their holdings of stock over election day, they ran the call loan rate up rapidly to 25 per cent. The first loans were made at 10 per cent. One broker placed $1,000,000 at that rate, another million at 15 per cent and then demanded 25 per cent for a million more. This suddenly checked the animation of the stock market and was followed by a period of contemplation. A conspicuous feature of the market at this time was the large number of transactions for cash, and the small concessions from the ruling prices at which these were quoted. The conditions in the money market was of course responsible for this. When the rates for money fell away to 10 per cent again the speculators very promptly availed themselves of the resources offered and ruled prices up to the top level. The strength of the market was very general and on the whole quite uniform. The steel stocks, the prominent industrials and the Southern and Southwestern railroads, especially the Atchison and Union Pacific, were the leaders in point of strength, with gains ranging from 2 to 2½ per cent.

Standard Oil sold in the outside market at 62½, compared with the previous record of 61½ on Saturday.

Quite a large business was done in bonds and prices were well maintained.

United States new 4s advanced ½ and the old 4s declined ¼ per cent on the last call.

Total sales bonds, par value, $1,315,200.

"God forbid," exclaimed Richard Olney, when John G. Carlisle said to him, "if all of us come out for Bryan he may be elected."

GUESSING ON GAINS.

Votes Being Cast In Ohio Today.

CHAIRMAN DICK'S CLAIM IS 80,000.

He Also Says the Republicans Will Have 17 of the 21 Congressmen—Chairman Long Declares Bryan Will Carry the State—McLean Working Hard.

Cincinnati, O., Nov. 6.—There was speculation on the question of Democratic gains in the cities and Republican gains in the rural districts of Ohio. John R. McLean is here, trying to reduce the Republican plurality in Hamilton county one-half. This county gave McKinley almost 20,000 plurality four years ago. Republican State Chairman Dick says the poll shows over 80,000 for McKinley in Ohio, and 17 of the 21 congressmen. Democratic State Chairman Long claims Bryan will carry Ohio, "unless prevented by coercion and purchase."

Both sides were issuing notices and warnings about the use of pencils and all sorts of frauds. There was much excitement in some cities, and especially in the towns of close congressional districts. It was thought there would be no congressional contests here, but much fighting developed between Bromwell, Republican, and Kettler, Democrat, in the Second district.

GREATER NEW YORK VOTE.

Each Party Guessing as to the Result. Vote Up the State Speculated Upon by Party Leaders.

New York, Nov. 6.—Confidence was expressed that a full vote will be polled and Republicans and Democrats alike agreed that more than 600,000 citizens in Greater New York would deposit their ballots for the men of their choice.

Indications are that the vote in the city will be at least 65,000 larger than ever before in the history of Greater New York.

Generally speaking, Republicans concede that Bryan will carry Greater New York.

Democratic national headquarters were practically deserted Monday, only Secretary Mason, of the executive committee, being in charge. Chairman Frank Campbell, of the state committee, was at his home and will not return until tomorrow. Secretary Mason declined to make any statement other than to repeat what the chairman had said, that Bryan's election was assured.

At Republican national headquarters last night Joseph H. Manley, Senator Scott, of West Virginia, and Frederick S. Gibbs, of New York, gave out the following statements, respectively:

Mr. Manley said:

"The national committeemen in this city, after the receipt of telegrams today from Chairman Hanna and various state committeemen, have nothing to add to the statement made public this morning except to emphasize it. I do not share with some the opinion that Indiana is entirely safe for us. But we have no doubt of Illinois. We shall certainly carry New York state by not less than 75,000 majority and I look for something over 100,000 majority."

"I anticipate no trouble in this city tomorrow. I believe Superintendent of Police Devery means to give us a fair election, as he gave us a fair parade, and as he gave us protection in our meetings in this city. I do not expect that we shall have any definite statement as to the result before 9:30 o'clock Tuesday night."

Senator Scott, of West Virginia, repeated his former sanguine statements.

National Committeeman Gibbs said: "The election will be fair. I anticipate no trouble. The worst has been done, and it is my opinion that McKinley will have not less than 250 votes in the electoral college. That I consider a conservative estimate."

Richard Croker claims that Bryan will carry Greater New York by between 80,000 and 90,000.

As a general thing, Republican leaders will not admit that the borough of Manhattan will be carried for Bryan by more than 30,000 plurality. Both sides claim the borough of Brooklyn, the Republicans by 12,000, the Democrats by 8,000. The population in the boroughs of the Bronx, Queens and Richmond is relatively small. Democrats and Republicans claim all three boroughs, but the Democrats usually carry Queens and Richmond. As for the Bronx, the increase in population owing to the uptown movement has been so great that all estimates are worthless, the population in some districts having doubled. It will probably not give a decisive majority either way.

Democrats are inclined to concede the state outside Greater New York to McKinley by 70,000.

This is 100,000 less than the Republican allow McKinley in the same territory. Chairman and candidate for governor, Odell, is at his home in Newburgh. He will receive returns at his home and will not return here until Wednesday. Before leaving he said he had nothing to add to his statement that McKinley would carry New York state by 100,000. Greater New York included.

Only comparative small bets were being made, the odds ranging anywhere from 4 to 1 to 5 to 1 in favor of McKinley. The odds changed later to 3½ to 1.

OHIO IN CONGRESS FROM 1803 TO 1901.

STEPHEN A. NORTHWAY.

Stephen A. Northway of Jefferson, Ashtabula county, was born in Christian Hollow, Onondaga county, New York, June 19, 1833, and removed with his parents to Orwell township, Ashtabula county, Ohio, in 1840. Here he engaged in farm labor. He was educated in Kingsville academy and Orwell academy. He taught school to secure the necessary means to prosecute his studies.

He was admitted to the bar in 1859, and elected prosecuting attorney of Ashtabula county in 1861, and re-elected in 1863, becoming prominent in his profession. He was elected to the lower house of the general assembly in 1865, and served two years, resuming the practice of his profession.

In 1892 he was elected to the Fifty-third congress, as a Republican, from the Nineteenth district, composed of Ashtabula, Geauga, Portage and Trumbull counties; was re-elected to the Fifty-fourth in 1894, and to the Fifty-fifth in 1896, from the same district. He died during his third term in 1898, and was succeeded by Charles Dick. His record in congress was highly commendable.

ROBERT W. TAYLER.

Robert W. Tayler of Lisbon, Columbiana county, was born in Youngstown, Ohio, Nov. 26, 1852. He was graduated from the Western Reserve college, Hudson, Ohio, in 1872. For several years he was identified with the educational interests in eastern Ohio. He was superintendent of the Lisbon High school in 1873 and 1874.

In 1875 and 1876 he was editor of the Buckeye State, a newspaper at Lisbon, and conducted it with great spirit and more than usual ability. He was admitted to the bar in 1877, and elected prosecuting attorney of Columbiana county in 1880, and continued to hold the office by re-election until 1888. He is still in the practice of his profession, notwithstanding his congressional services.

In 1894 he was elected to the Fifty-fourth congress, as a Republican, from the Eighteenth district, composed of Columbiana, Mahoning and Stark counties; re-elected from the same district in 1896, and again in 1898, his present term extending to March 4, 1901. In the Fifty-sixth congress he attracted national attention as chairman of the house committee which refused B. H. Roberts of Utah a seat on account of polygamy. He has been an active and industrious legislator since his entrance into congress.

CHARLES P. TAFT.

Charles P. Taft of Cincinnati, a son of Attorney General Alphonso Taft, was born in Cincinnati, Ohio, December 21, 1843. He went through the public schools of that city; was graduated from Andover academy, Massachusetts in 1860; from Yale college in 1864, and from Columbia Law college in 1866. In the latter year he went to Germany and took a degree in the University of Heidelberg.

In 1871 he was elected a representative to the general assembly of Ohio, as a Republican, and as chairman of the committee of common schools brought about the codification of the school laws.

In 1879 he became editor and part proprietor of the Cincinnati Times-Star, a Republican newspaper, and still continues to hold that position, in connection with the practice of his profession. He was elected to the Fifty-fourth congress in 1894, from the First district, a part of Hamilton county, and served but one term.

JAMES H. SOUTHARD.

James Harding Southard of Toledo was born on a farm in Washington township, Lucas county, Ohio, January 20, 1851. He attended Hope-well district school and the grammar and high schools of Toledo, and studied at Adrian, Michigan, and Oberlin, Ohio, preparatory to entering Cornell university, from which he graduated in 1875.

In 1877 he was admitted to the bar, and in 1882 was appointed assistant prosecuting attorney of Lucas county, and was afterward twice elected prosecuting attorney of the county, discharging the duties of the office with marked ability.

He was elected to the Fifty-fourth congress in 1894, as a Republican, from the Ninth district, consisting of the counties of Lucas, Fulton, Wood and Ottawa, and was re-elected to the Fifty-fifth in 1896, and to the Fifty-sixth in 1898. He is still in the active practice of his profession at Toledo.

FRANCIS B. DEWITT.

Francis B. DeWitt of Paulding was born in Jackson county, Indiana, March 11, 1849, and came to Delaware county, Ohio, with his parents in 1854, where he was reared on a farm. In 1861, when 12 years of age, he enlisted in the military service and participated in the Corinth campaign, and in the battle of Shiloh. Because of injuries and disabilities he was mustered out of the service in 1862, but within five weeks re-enlisted in the One Hundred and Twenty-first Ohio volunteer infantry, in which he served until the end of the war. He was a prisoner of war at Salisbury, Danville and Libby.

He attended the common schools, the Galena High school, the Lebanon Normal school and the Ohio Wesleyan university at Delaware. He taught school for three or four years, while pursuing the study of law, was admitted to the practice in 1875, and located at Paulding, where he followed his profession until 1891, when he engaged in agricultural pursuits, and now resides on his farm near Paulding.

He was elected as a representative from Paulding county, as a Republican, in 1891, and re-elected in 1893, resigning the position to enter congress. In 1894 he was elected to the Fifty-fourth congress from the Fifth district, Paulding, Defiance, Henry, Putnam, Van Wert and Williams counties. He carried a largely Democratic district in 1894, and was defeated for re-election in 1896.

The Marriage Problem

"How to be happy though married," has been entirely solved to the satisfaction of hundreds of thousands of women. There can be no happiness without health. The general health of woman is dependent on the local health of the delicate womanly organs. When there are debilitating drains, or inflammation, ulceration or female weakness, happiness in marriage is practically impossible. A host of happy wives testify that the secret of happiness in marriage is found in the use of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. It dries the drains, heals ulceration and inflammation and cures female weakness. It makes weak women strong, sick women well.

Mrs. Anna Willy, (Michigan House), Northville, Spink Co., S. Dak., writes: "I am enjoying good health, thanks to your kind advice and valuable remedies. I suffered very much with female weakness and other ailments for more than two years, when I wrote to you for advice. After carefully following your advice and taking six bottles each of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription and 'Golden Medical Discovery' I am now a well and happy woman."

Women are invited to consult Dr. Pierce by letter, free. Correspondence private. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

The Second United Presbyterian congregation of Washington, Pa., elected the Rev. Presley Thompson, of Colorado Springs, Col., as pastor. Mr. Thompson was a candidate for the pastorate eight years ago.

Corkscrew Seed.

There are some seeds which "literally corkscrew themselves into the ground." The most remarkable instance is perhaps that of the Spine pennata, a beautiful south European grass. The actual seed is small, with a sharp point and stiff short hairs pointing backward. The top end of the seed is produced into a fine, twisted, corkscrewlike rod, which is followed by a plain cylindrical portion, ending in a long, delicate feather, the whole being more than a foot in length. Owing to this feather the seed falls to the earth point downward and sticks in the ground.

But even if the seed should settle on its side, damp, by acting on the hairs attached to it, causes it to rise up till its point is downward. If a shower comes on or dew falls, the spiral winds, elongating itself upward. Being covered, like the seed, with backward pointing hairs, it usually presses against some blade of grass or other obstacle, with the result that the seed is pressed into the ground.

On the spiral becoming dry again, it curls up, and the seed is not drawn out of the ground owing to its backward pointing hairs, but the spiral and the feather are easily drawn down. On the return of damp the spiral again unwinds and, acting as before, drives the seed still farther down until at last it is quite buried.

REDUCED PLURALITY.

Amount May Be Cut Down In Pennsylvania.

DUE TO THE FACTIONAL STRIFE.

The Fight Between the Quay and Anti-Quay People For Control of the Next Legislature, Likely to Have an Effect the McKinley Vote.

Philadelphia, Nov. 6.—Very little interest was manifested relative to the vote of the state in the presidential contest, as a big Republican majority is conceded even by the Democratic leaders. Four years ago McKinley's plurality in the state was 295,072, of which plurality furnished 113,139. The highest previous plurality in the state for a presidential candidate was 135,548 for Grant in 1872. In 1892 Harrison's plurality was 63,747.

McKinley's plurality of four years ago will no doubt be considerably reduced through the return to their party of many Democrats who opposed Bryan in 1896, and, it is thought, also that McKinley's vote will be reduced to some extent on account of the fierce contests of the Quay and anti-Quay Republicans to obtain control of the next legislature. The anti-Quay men in some sections have endorsed the Democratic candidates, and it is believed this will in these regions have some effect against the head of the Republican ticket. There is, therefore, every indication of a considerable reduction in McKinley's figures of four years ago.

BRYAN'S CLOSING TOUR.

He Made a Number of Speeches in Omaha, and Also One at His Home City.

Lincoln, Neb., Nov. 6.—With the exception of seven speeches made at Omaha last night, Hon. William J. Bryan completed his presidential campaign tour of this state with a speech in this his home city at 6 o'clock last evening. He returned here at that time from a 12-hour tour of the interior of the state, and delivered a speech of about 30 minutes' duration to his townpeople.

Mr. Bryan seemed entirely satisfied with the audience that greeted him at the various points in his own state which he visited during the day. Many of the places at which he spoke are Republican in sentiment, but in all cases the crowds were large in proportion to population, and in most of them there was a high degree of friendly interest manifested.

Outside of Lincoln and Omaha, Hastings supplied the largest audience of the day.

MARYLAND.

Democrats Claim State by Over 5,000. Republicans by Over 11,000.

Baltimore, Nov. 6.—Before leaving for his home in Hartford county, whither he went to vote, Chairman Murray Vandiver, of the Democratic state central committee, said:

"I have no hesitancy in claiming that we will carry the state by from 5,000 to 10,000 majority and that both city and counties will contribute to that end. We will not only carry the state for Bryan, but will elect four congressmen sure, and it would not surprise me in the least if Major Little should defeat Pearre in the Sixth district."

Chairman Phillips Lee Goldsborough, of the Republican state committee, said that he looks for even a larger majority than 11,000 and insists that Maryland's congressional delegation will be entirely Republican.

WEST VIRGINIA.

Wheeling, W. Va., Nov. 6.—The Republicans continue to claim the state by over 15,000. The Republican state committee has failed to bring home all the voters who are temporarily out of the city, but the Democratic committee is not doing any better.

KENTUCKY.

Louisville, Nov. 6.—A campaign that really began before any nominations were made closed in Kentucky with both sides claiming the state in published reports by 20,000, though disinterested estimates do not put the majority either way above 6,000 or 8,000.

MINNESOTA.

St. Paul, Minn., Nov. 6.—The election of Minnesota McKinley electors

seems assured, the Democratic committee only expressing a belief in the possibility of Bryan carrying the state without actually claiming it. The Republicans place the McKinley plurality at from 50,000 to 75,000.

The re-election of Governor John Lind over Captain S. R. Van Sant is claimed by the Democrats by more than 20,000, which is the figure given by the Republicans in their claim for Van Sant. The result for governor will undoubtedly be close. The Republicans will elect the balance of their state ticket, down to railroad commissioners, on which the Democrats have put up a stiff fight, making the result doubtful.

SOUTH DAKOTA.

Sioux Falls, S. D., Nov. 6.—Conservative Republicans estimate the majority at between 6,000 and 8,000. This would carry congressional and state ticket and comfortable majority on joint ballot in next legislature. Fusionists say Bryan will carry the state by at least 2,000 and elect congressional and state nominees by majorities from 1,500 to 3,500; a majority of not less than 20 on joint ballot in the legislature.

NORTH CAROLINA.

Raleigh, N. C., Nov. 6.—The Democrats charge that in those two districts the Republicans, having abandoned all hope of carrying the state for McKinley, are offering to vote for Bryan if Democrats will support the Republican congressional nominees. It is thought, however, that such a proposition will have little effect in view of the fact that Bryan is sure to carry the state any way.

IDAHO.

Boise, Idaho, Nov. 6.—Both parties manifest great confidence. The most uncertain element in the situation appears to be Shoshone county, the scene of the riots in 1899. While the Republicans are assured they will carry the county, they have no poll of it. There are 5,000 voters in Shoshone county.

SHORTHAND WRITING.

Accuracy Is of Much More Importance Than Speed.

"Speed is by no means the most necessary thing in shorthand writing," explained an experienced stenographer, "but with some teachers it is made the great consideration, often at the expense of everything else. The big thing in shorthand is legibility, for there are many who can write fast enough, but who are unable to tell what it means after it has grown cold. I have been a stenographer, depending entirely on it for my living, for 25 years. During that time I have, of course, picked up some knowledge on the subject. I have been the stenographer for two cabinet officers, four assistant secretaries and three or four senators. Incidentally I have worked for a year as the private secretary of one of the big bank presidents in New York city.

"All of this experience has proven one thing very conclusively, and that is that there is no necessity for any stenographer who does amanuensis work to write over 120 words a minute and in 99 cases out of 100 no necessity to write over 100 words a minute. Indeed, I know of at least 25 stenographers who are drawing the largest kind of salaries as private secretaries who have assured me that they have never been required to average as much as 90 words. Under these circumstances it seems strange that some teachers of stenography will excite pupils to write 150 to 200 words per minute and endeavor to make them believe that such a railroad speed is a necessity. Such a practice does actual injury, for it discourages many from even learning a moderate speed.

"There have been instances where it may have been necessary for stenographers to be able to write over 200 and more words a minute, and there is a legend hanging about the senate chamber that General Hawley, for 10 or 12 minutes in a speech, once spoke 225 words a minute. The average speed of senators in speeches does not reach 110 words and in dictating letters rarely reaches 100 words."—Washington Star.

The Passion Play Town.

"Oberammergau is a quaint place," says a traveler. "The whole town is practically controlled by the Lang family. They are the leading spirits in the production of the play. They have more or less charge of the various taverns, inns or hotels for the accommodation of the travelers and in a general way supervise everything."

SOME SURE THINGS.

Bets to Be Avoided by Those Who Never Tried the Feats.

Bets to be avoided by those who are cocksure they can do all things are those relating to athletic feats. It would seem that a good runner could easily give a start of 50 yards in 100 to a man who was doing the 50 yards by hopping on one leg. But few runners, if any, can afford to give that amount of start to any man who is at all strong on his legs. For the first five yards or so they go at practically the same pace, so that to run 95 yards while his opponent is hopping 45 he has to go more than twice as fast, and it is a weak man indeed who cannot hop 50 yards in ten seconds.

An ordinary wooden match is easily broken in the fingers, but, although there are many who will bet they can do it, none succeed in accomplishing the task if the match is laid across the nail of the middle finger of either hand and pressed upon by the first and third fingers of that hand, despite its seeming so easy at first sight.

No one can crush an egg placed lengthwise between his clasped hands—that is, if the egg be sound and has the ordinary shell of a hen's egg.

It is safe to bet a man that he cannot get out of a chair without bending his body forward or putting his feet under it, if he is sitting on it, not at the edge of it.

Another equally certain wager is that a man cannot stand at the side of a room with both of his feet touching the wainscoting lengthwise.

It is safe to bet any man, save one who is blind, that he cannot stand for five minutes without moving if he is blindfolded.

The Original Seven Wonders.

None of the original seven wonders of the world remains, except the great pyramid of Egypt. The tomb of Mausolus, king of Caria, built about 350 B. C., was destroyed before 1400 A. D. The third wonder, the temple of Diana at Ephesus, was built 552 B. C. and was destroyed 356 B. C. The fourth wonder, the walls and terraces of Babylon, were erected about 570 B. C. They decayed gradually after Babylon had ceased to be the capital of the Assyrian empire. The Colossus of Rhodes, erected in 288 B. C., stood 64 years, was destroyed by an earthquake and lay in ruins for nearly 900 years, until a Jew bought it and took it on 900 camels to Alexandria. The statue of Zeus at Olympus was made 437-433 B. C., was removed to Constantinople and was destroyed by fire 475 A. D. The Pharos at Alexandria was built about 283 B. C. and was destroyed by an earthquake about 1300-1400 A. D.

The Correct Stroke in Swimming.

The correct stroke of the legs is exactly like that of a frog's hind legs. Watch one of these frogs and copy his style. You cannot do better. The legs are drawn up together slowly, not with a jerk, until they are gathered in close under the body. Then with a sudden, quick spring they are shot out behind, the ankles being turned so that the soles of the feet present as flat a surface as possible to the water and so offer more resistance from which to make progress. As the kick is made the legs should be spread out in the shape of a letter V, but not allowed to sink far down under the surface of the water. If they kick downward at an angle instead of out straight behind much of their energy is wasted in unnecessarily forcing the body out of the water instead of forward through it.—Harper's Bazar.

Pigs and Savings Banks.

It is rather a surprising fact, considering how enormously they have grown, that at the beginning of the nineteenth century there was not a savings bank in the world. The Rev. Henry Duncan, rector of a very poor English parish, noticed that when the people wished to lay by a little money they would buy a pig or a cow with it, having no other way to find investment for small sums. He founded the first real savings bank in 1810. Two or three which had existed before that time were practically charitable foundations.
